Santa Clara's Team Work Pays Off in 70-47 Victory

United Press International

The basketball star is not always the player who does the most scoring. His contribution to the team is the real test.

Santa Clara has a great one in Frank Sobrero, 6-foot-3 inch forward and son of a famed athlete. Monday night, when Hawaii threw up a tight zone defense aimed at holding down young Sobrero, he responded with a dazzling passing and rebounding performance which set up at least 14 field goals by teammates.

He was held to 10 points, his low output of the year. But the Broncs breezed to a 70-47 win in notching their fourth win in five starts. Guard Jim Russi took over the scoring burden with 28 points. The teams clash in a rematch tonight.

Cougars Edge Gonzaga

At Pullman, Wash., the evening's most hectic battle found Washington State conquering Gonzaga, 69-67. Gonzaga's one-man gang, Frank Burgess, meshed 29 points, but they weren't enough. The Cougars' John Maras tallied 20.

Oft-battered Pepperdine finally managed to come up on the win side during its Eastern swing with a 61-57 thumping of Regis. Dick Buckeley and Sterling Forbes had 16 and 15 for the Waves.

Little giant Chapman knocked over Sacramento State, 79-59. Guard Ned Eckert fired 19 points for the winners, who had a 23-4 record last year and appear headed for another banner year.

Cal Poly's touring quintet didn't need more than 12 points from any one player to down Buffalo Teachers, 74-62. The squads meet again tonight. Cal Poly of Pomona downed Humboldt State, 68-59 in the first of a two-game set.

Gaels Meet Wichita

St. Mary's faces Wichita tonight in the latter's baliwick. Other contests pit undefeated COP against the Cal Aggies, Chapman-San Francisco St., San Diego St.-Arizona, and Fresno State-San Jose State.

Meanwhile, in action off the court, the University of California basketball team is still undefeated but that's not quite good enough for either coach Pete Newell or the UPI board of coaches.

Newell complained Monday that the Bears made too many ball-handling errors when they won their 19th straight game against San Jose State Saturday. The UPI coaches dropped the Bears from second in the nation to fourth in the latest rating. But the coaches moved Southern California into the tenth spot to give the AAWU two out of 10 places.

California meets Colorado in a two game series this week end, while Troy takes a breather.

Ring Titleholder Aims for Bigger Men

San Francisco –(UPI)– World featherweight champion Davey Moore said today he hoped his win over Hilario Morales would show that he could handle bigger men and eventually pave the way for a shot at lightweight titleholder Joe Brown.

Moore decked his Mexican challenger in the first round of a non-title bout here Monday night and then went on to win a unanimous decision.

The little champion tipped the scales at 130¾ to 134 for his opponent.

The paid crowd of 2,374 got its money's worth as the two foes repeatedly stood toe to toe and landed freely throughout the middle portion of the bout. Referee Jack Silver did not have to separate the men once during the evening.

Makes Knockdown

The first round knockdown came when Moore backed Morales into a corner and dropped him with a right to the jaw. Morales rose after a six count, but took the mandatory eight count before resuming fighting at the bell.

The champion failed to hurt Morales in the middle rounds although he appeared to have slightly the upper hand in the rugged in-fighting that highlighted the action.

In the last round, Morales appeared to be in trouble after being on the short end of a solid two-handed attack, but he weathered the storm until the final bell.

Silver and Judge Frankie Carter gave the champion every round by a 10-9 count. Judge Eddie James called it 98-94 while UPI had it 99-94.

It was Moore's 39th victory against five defeats. Morales' record is 29-4. He is only 20 and did no harm to his fast-rising reputation in Monday night's bout.

Medford High school football fans should be proud of the 1959 state championship Black Tornado for more than its accomplishments on the gridiron. For, players on the titular club also stand high academically. Their record affords proof that championship football requires brains as well as brawn.

LAUGH IN OREGON

Said Braven Dyer in his Los Angeles Times sports column: "Up Portland (Ore.) way they are laughing because Medford and Jefferson, clashing for the state prep grid title, drew 21,512 fans, while UCLA, which doesn't play Oregon teams anymore, lured (just) 19,528 for the Utah game." He adds in the same paragraph: "At a recent football dinner the invocation, 'Guide our youth to a maturity of integrity,' made me think more than once or twice."

A copy of the Times sports page with the foregoing tidbit was sent by Sjan Arfestad, "former Medford resident and football fan." He is sales and merchandise manager for J. C. Penney company at Long Beach, Calif.

JACK MORRIS DUE

Jack Morris, ex-Medford athletic great, is due here this week en route to Roseburg where he'll winter after completing the football season with the professional Los Angeles Rams. Jack's brother, Frank, an athletic standout in his own right and resident of the Central Point vicinity now, says he's eager to see his brother and take him on at a bowling alley since it's been so long since he beat Jack at anything.

East's Team Set For Bowl

Los Angeles – (UPI) – Norm Van Brocklin of the Philadelphia Eagles and Bobby Layne of the Pittsburgh Steelers, two all-time great quarterbacks, will lead the Eastern Conference All Stars against the Western conference in the Jan. 17 Pro Bowl game at the Coliseum.

The West squad will be named Wednesday.

Van Brocklin and Layne were chosen by coaches of the National Football league to participate, along with 30 other players, in the annual charity classic.

About to compete in his eighth Pro Bowl game, the second with the East, Van Brocklin sent the East to an upset 28-21 victory over the West in the game last Jan. 11.

Van Brocklin, an offensive star for the Rams for eight years, was traded to the Eagles in 1958.

Layne, who will make his debut with the East squad, was traded to Pittsburgh in 1958.

Frank Gifford, voted player of the game in last year's East victory, will lead the Eastern champion New York Giants into the tilt.

All-pro fullback Jim Brown leads the list of Cleveland Browns players who were chosen for the East team. Other Brown players include Lou Groza, iron man of all pro-bowlers who will be competing in his ninth bowl game.

Buck Shaw, head coach of the East team, will be allowed to select one more man to complete the squad of 32 men selected by the coaches.

University of Hawaii Has 'Old' Frosh On Basketball Squad; Rated Top Man

United Press International

San Francisco –(UPI)– University of Hawaii's basketball team has the oldest freshman cage performer in the history of this sport – but don't think that mean's he's a graybeard.

The fellow's name is Arnold Kelly Kaliszewski, aged 29, known around his home town of Detroit, as Arnold Kelly.

Just how he got to Hawaii to play basketball is an interesting story according to coach Al Saake of Honolulu. Saake was in the San Francisco Bay Area with his touring Rainbow cagers – including the aforementioned Kelly or Kaliszewski.

NAMED MVPs

Washington –(UPI)– End Bill Anderson, a pro two years, and tackle Bob Toneff, a veteran who played his collegiate ball at Notre Dame, have been named the most valuable players on the 1959 Washington Redskins by local sports writers.

Pirates' Catcher Sold to K. City

Pittsburgh – (UPI) – Henry (Hank) Foiles, peppery catcher of the Pittsburgh Pirates whose efficiency was hampered by a leg injury last season, has been sold to the Kansas City Athletics, it was announced today.

The Pirates did not disclose the sum involved in the deal. Foiles, who appeared in 53 games in the 1959 season, hit .225, got 18 hits and four RBI's.

Foiles returns to the scene of his baseball activities of 10 years ago when Kansas City was in the Triple "A" American Assn.

"First time I saw Kelly playing basketball he was with the Sub-Pac Navy team stationed in Hawaii," said Saake. "Kelly was a powerful man and, if I recall correctly, held the great Tom Sears, formerly of Santa Clara and now with the New York Knicks, scoreless for nearly half a game. That was in 1952.

"Kelly played for Sub-Pac for the next four years.

"I didn't hear from him until 1956. Then he called me from Detroit saying his name was Arnold Kelly and wondered if we would give him a basketball scholarship, with tuition paid. I hadn't heard of Kelly – but then he told me his real name was Arnold Kelly Kaliszewski. So I told him to come along.

"But he didn't show. In the summer of 1957, I got another call from him. This time he told me his best friend had left town and he didn't come over because he bought his liquor business at a bargain price.

"But Kelly still didn't arrive. Then in 1958 I got a letter from him. This time it was on stationery saying 'Kelly's Floral Shop.' He wanted to come to school. But he never showed up.

Final Call

"This last summer I got another call—saying he would come for sure if I could get him tuition." About this time Saake was getting bored a little with the whole thing. His answer was:

"Listen, young fellow. If you don't get over here pretty soon, you won't be worrying about tuition. You'll need an old-age pension."

This time Kelly arrived. He has been a freshman bulwark on a surprisingly good cage team that has a 5-3 record, including a win over Oregon State.

But he is embarrassed by all the publicity given his age.

"You shouldn't have told my age, coach," he said to Saake, "now none of them young co-eds will go out with an old man like me."

Syracuse Tops In Grid Points

New York –(UPI)– Syracuse, which will meet Texas in the Cotton Bowl game Jan. 1, is the first college football team in history to win five of the nine principal offense and defense championships.

Final NCAA figures showed today that Syracuse finished far ahead of the major college field in total yardage 451.5 yards a game, rushing offense 313.6, total defense 96.2, resistance to rushing 19.3 and scoring 39.9 points a game.

Mississippi, Alabama, Brigham Young and Stanford divided the four titles which the undefeated - untied Syracuse Orangemen did not grab. Mississippi led in defense against scoring, yielding 21 points in 10 games for a 2.1 average. Alabama led in forward pass defense, allowing 45.7 air yards per game to its rivals. Brigham Young won team punting honors with a 43.2-yard average for 48 kicks. Stanford finished first in forward passing offense, collecting 2,278 air yards for an average of 227.8 per game.

Eclipses Records

Syracuse eclipsed all previous records for margin of offense over defense. While the Orangemen averaged 451.5 yards a game, their defense held opponents to 96.2 yards per game–a difference of 353.3 yards. Alabama posted the best previous mark in 1945 when its offense gained 311.8 yards a game more than the team's opponents.

Syracuse is the first Eastern team other than Army to win the total offense crown in nearly two decades. Syracuse never before won a team title but made up for that lack with a venegance this year.
