HOW OLD IS IT?

SCIENTISTS CAN DETERMINE THE APPROXIMATE AGE OF AN OBJECT IF IT CONTAINS A RADIOACTIVE SUBSTANCE SUCH AS URANIUM AND CARBON. THIS IS MADE POSSIBLE BY THE FACT THAT RADIOACTIVITY DECREASES AT A KNOWN RATE OVER A PERIOD OF TIME. THIS BY MEASURING THE RADIOACTIVITY OF CERTAIN OF THE EARTH'S ROCKS, SCIENTISTS HAVE CALCULATED THE AGE OF THE EARTH AS ABOUT 4.5 BILLION YEARS.

BY MEASURING THE RADIOACTIVITY OF THE CARBON IN THE DEAD SEA SCROLLS IT HAS BEEN ESTABLISHED BY SCIENTISTS THAT THEY ARE AT LEAST 1,800 YEARS OLD, WHICH SUPPORTS THE ESTIMATE OF HISTORIANS AS TO WHEN THE SCROLLS WERE WRITTEN.

Don't Worry About Radioactive Drugs

Chicago—UPI—If you're about to take a radioactive drug, don't worry. That little pill probably contains considerably less radioactivity than the amount you've already received from your luminous wrist watch or alarm clock.

This information is found in a booklet called, "So You're Going To Take a Radioactive Drug," put out by the Abbott Laboratories, which runs a radio-pharmaceutical laboratory at Oak Ridge, Tenn., the only one of its kind in the U.S.

Isotopes in medicine can't be seen, felt, tasted or smelled, the booklet says. And they can't cause sterility, can't explode and can't contaminate your clothing. Radio-active drugs are being used daily to measure metabolism, digestion, blood flow and many other bodily functions.

Try and Stop Me

—By BENNETT CERF

IN ISRAEL, they tell of a young man who strode into a recruiting office and asked to be sworn into the navy forthwith. "My girl is waiting for me outside," he explained, "and I want to join her in uniform." But when he asked for size 9 shoes, they were all out of size 9: when he asked for a size 40 suit, they were all out of size 40; when he wanted a hat, they were out of hats altogether.

Finally, the recruiting officer interrupted. "There's one question I have to ask you: Can you swim?" "What's the matter?" asked the exasperated recruit. "Boats you don't have either?"

Lament from Richard Armour:
I note with dismay
And each year with more sorrow
That my scalp of today
Is my forehead tomorrow.
