Anti-Vitamin Factor Used to Treat Cancer

New York (Science Service)—An "anti-vitamin" and a vitamin factor have been used successfully in treating patients with inoperable cancers of the head and neck. While the technique of using Methotrexate, an anti-metabolite, and citrovorum, a vitamin factor, caused temporary partial regression of the tumor in 10 of the 18 patients treated, the researchers

Christmas Observed In Hong Kong, Too

Hong Kong (UPI)—Outwardly, Hong Kong celebrates Christmas like almost any place in the Western world.

The only difference is that half of the people here don't know what the celebration is all about — apart from the fact that it's a public holiday and everyone is having a merry time.

That Christmas is a big religious occasion is about the remotest thought from most minds.

This state of affairs prevails today because 75 per cent of this colony's population is made up of people who, prior to fleeing Red China in 1949, did not celebrate Christmas even though a good number of them were Christians.

Sending Christmas cards, however, has increased a hundred-fold here and is presently a Chinese custom as well as a Western one.

Christmas in Hong Kong is a 2-day public holiday, Dec. 25-26.

Westerners invariably hold home parties either on Christmas eve, Christmas day or on Boxing day, the 26th. The exchange of visits and gifts is carried out as it is in the West.

But the Chinese, though they celebrate Christmas in their best Sunday suits, do not go in for family visits or gatherings.

Injured Truck Driver Loses Court Appeal

Salem (UPI)—A truck driver injured when a hystler he was driving fell off a loading dock and who had charged the owner of the loading dock with negligence lost a Supreme Court appeal Wednesday.

The personal injury action had been filed by Edward D. Fisher in Multnomah county.

Christmas Shared

It's difficult, these days, to go out on one's own and find the families or the individuals most in need of assistance at Christmastime.

But, it's easy to enlist the services of The Salvation Army to do the looking in your behalf. Salvation Army workers know the people who, through misfortune, are in need of help. They are familiar with the homeless and hungry, the lonely and neglected.

It's comforting to know that the contribution you make to The Salvation Army Christmas Appeal will be used wisely and thoughtfully to brighten the shadowed areas of our community.

Share your Christmas with those in need, through The Salvation Army.
