Quotes From the News

By United Press International
New York — Two Soviet officials, expressing surprise at the low prices in a mass distribution clothing store: "Is this rigged?"

Mount Moriah, Mo. — The Rev. Edward Lathrop, a Methodist minister, stating he will not allow his children to attend newly-instituted high school dances: "Many unwed mothers . . . across the nation are victims of the school dance."

Parks Air Force Base, Calif.—Army Capt. Joe H. Sheard, of Shreveport, La., one of 96 volunteers who emerged from an underground fallout shelter after a two-week experiment: "C-rations are for the birds. I don't think anything would taste better than a steak right now."

Miami — Ten-year-old Johnny Giambra, crying for joy at a judge's decision awarding custody of him to Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Hallett, a couple in their 60s with whom he has lived since he was five: "Oh boy, now I can stay in Miami for good. I never have to leave. What a Christmas this will be."

PASTOR FACES CHARGES—The Rev. Clinton Bell, 40, pastor of the Church of God of the Union Assembly at Kokomo, Ind., is returning to Kokomo to face charges of sexually molesting a teen-aged girl. Bell, a native of Maynardville, Tenn., left Kokomo about two weeks ago with a 22-year-old woman and several thousand dollars in church funds. Bell is married and the father of three children. Deadline to Enter Gold Hill Lighting Contest Established

Gold Hill — The deadline for entering the outdoor Christmas lighting contest in Gold Hill is Tuesday, Dec. 22. Fred Lester, president of the Gold Hill Lion's club has announced.

All residents in the city of Gold Hill are invited to participate in the contest. Officials of the sponsoring group stressed that no judging will be done outside the city limits due to the difficulty in determining boundary lines.

Those who wish to enter the contest are requested to mail a post card addressed to the Gold Hill Lion's club in care of the local post office, with their name and address on it no later than Dec. 22.

Cash prizes donated through the courtesy of the Gold Hill Lion's club will be awarded. Lester praised the committee responsible for the decorations and techniques used to light the tree in the Gold Hill city park.

Dave Irving, Lion governor of district 36, Medford, spoke to local Lions at a dinner meeting at the Gold Hill Grange hall. He talked on "Lionism" and said the heart of Lionism is in the local clubs where members are community minded. He stressed that from these clubs help for needy youngsters may be obtained to provide eye glasses.

Plans were made by the club to sponsor a New Year's Eve dance at the Gold Hill Grange hall.

10 SOC Students On Who's Who List

Ashland — Ten Southern Oregon college students have been selected for inclusion in the 1960 edition of "Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges," Dr. Alvin Fellers, director of student affairs announced.

They are Vernon Arnold, senior in secondary education, Butte Falls; Myrtle Converse, Sue Main, Carolyn Crowley Williams, Judy Paulsen, seniors in elementary education, Ashland; Wayne Paulsen, senior in secondary education, Lynn Susee, junior in secondary education, Ashland; Student Body President Bob Meade, senior in elementary education, Klamath Falls; and Pat Urie, senior in secondary education, Reedsport; Pat Leek, junior in elementary education, Medford.

Students are selected for this honor from a number nominated by upperclassmen, campus classes, clubs, and organizations. From this list, 10 are chosen by the faculty on the basis of excellence and sincerity in scholarship; participation and leadership in co-curricular and academic activities; citizenship and service to the college; and the promise of future usefulness to society.

SUNDAY TOPIC
Jerrie Dole with the Home of Esoteric Science, 826 South Central ave., will speak Sunday at 8 p.m. on "Spiritualism and How It Works." Services are also held Wednesday and Friday at 8 p.m.
