Orr-Lyons Ceremony Held

An event of Sunday, December 13, was the wedding of Miss Elizabeth Louise Lyons and Eugene Gregory Orr at First Presbyterian church with Dr. D. Kirkland West officiating. The double ring ceremony, attended by 120 relatives and friends, was read at two o'clock in the afternoon.

The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Emily Ann Lyons, 621 Alberts street. Mr. Orr's parents are Mr. and Mrs. A. Eugene Orr, Old Military road, and has been making his home at 914 West Main street.

The bride wore a floor length white taffeta gown styled with fitted bodice and full skirt. Lace applique trimmed the scoop neckline and skirt and a bow marked the waistline in back. Her fingertip length veil was held by a seed pearl crown and she carried a bouquet of white roses. Carl Norris, family friend, gave the bride in marriage.

Miss Susan Brill was maid of honor and bridesmaid was Miss Sandra Semple. They wore street length frocks of dark aquamarine with matching bow headresses and carried cascades of white chrysanthemums. Candle lighters were Janet Gifford, who was dressed as the other attendants, and James Bryan, niece and nephew of the bride, respectively.

Brother Attends

Richard Orr served as best man for his brother. Seating the guests were Leonard Holzinger, Grants Pass; Wendell Clawson, Coos Bay, and Arden Hildebrand.

Baskets of white chrysanthemums decorated the church for the ceremony. Mrs. Carl Hueners, sister of the bride, was soloist.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Lyons wore a blue wool suit with black and white accessories. Mrs. Orr chose a blue silk suit with matching accessories. Their flowers were white chrysanthemums with pink ribbons.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the Pioneer room of the Jackson hotel. Mrs. Boyd Gibson and Mrs. William Schei cut and served the wedding cake. Mrs. Arden Hildebrand presided at the punch bowl and Mrs. Le Roy Stegall and Mrs. Carl Norris poured the coffee. Mrs. Gene Smith was in charge of the guest book.

The newlyweds are making their home at 2223 East Main street following their return from a wedding trip to the coast. For her traveling attire the bride wore a black and white tweed suit with black accessories.

The bride attended Medford High school and is a bookkeeper for the U. S. National Bank of Portland, Medford branch. Mr. Orr attended Medford High school and Oregon state college and is assistant manager for Weeks and Orr Furniture store.

Among the out of town guests attending the wedding were relatives of the bride. They included Mr. and Mrs. John C. Lyons, Coos Bay, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lyons, Eugene, brothers and sisters-in-law; Mr. and Mrs. John A. Lyons, Roseburg, uncle and aunt; Mrs. Basil Kelso, sister; and Mrs. Arthur Adler and son, James, Mt. Shasta.

The bridegroom's parents and his grandmother, Mrs. Albert E. Orr, were hosts for a rehearsal dinner December 12 at the Medford hotel.
