Newlywed Couple Living In Central Point Home

Mr. and Mrs. Allan L. Higinbotham, whose wedding was held earlier this winter, are now making their home on Head road, Central Point. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas H. Hinesley, 1032 Murray avenue. Mr. Higinbotham's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Lester Higinbotham, 569 Head road, Central Point.

The Rev. George Roseberry of First Methodist church, Medford, officiated at the double ring rites, held November 25 at the Higinbotham home. Baskets of white and lavender chrysanthemums were at the front of the fireplace.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white knit suit and a small white hat. Her earrings of small gold leaves set with pearls were a gift from the bridegroom. She carried a large orchid surrounded by white carnations. The bouquet was set on the white Bible which the bride's aunt carried at her wedding 12 years ago. For her "something old," the bride wore a small gold wedding ring which belonged to the bridegroom's great-aunt. The gold for the ring was mined in a Jacksonville Sterling mine in October, 1867.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Burns, brother-in-law and sister of the bridegroom, attended the couple. Mrs. Burns wore a beige knit suit with red accessories. Her corsage was of red carnations.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Hinesley chose an emerald green sheath dress with black accessories. Mrs. Higinbotham wore a blue-print dress with black accessories.

The couple traveled to San Francisco on their wedding trip, the bride wearing a black and white checked suit with black accessories. She also wore the orchid from her bridal bouquet.

November 29 the newly-married couple was honored at a reception given by the bride's parents at their home from 4 to 8 o'clock in the evening. Attending were 125 friends and relatives. The rooms were decorated with multi-colored chrysanthemums. The wedding cakes were made and decorated by a close family friend, Mrs. Gene Fields.

For the reception the bride wore her wedding attire and a corsage of pink roses.

Cutting and serving the cake were Mrs. Fields and Mrs. Keith Lee, Happy Camp, Calif. Mrs. Ronald Shellhart, Eugene, and Mrs. Jack Burns, sister of the bridegroom, poured coffee. Presiding at the punch bowl were Miss Nyla Lovenborg and Miss Janet Snodgrass.

Miss Elizabeth Howard and Miss Colleen Riley took care of the guest book. Young Karen Kurovsky and Kathy Ettles passed the cake. Also assisting were Mrs. Clifton Friend, Mrs. George Ettles, and Mrs. Orville Williams.

Also among out-of-town guests here for the wedding and reception were Mrs. W.

College Students Engaged to Wed

Cave Junction — Mr. and Mrs. Jack Williams have announced the engagement of their daughter, Jackie, to Robert Wright, son of Mrs. James Hayter, Crescent City.

Amrhein-Madison Ceremony Held at Methodist Church

First Methodist church of Medford was scene of the wedding Sunday, December 13, of Miss Lorna Madison, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Madison, Kellogg Star route, Oakland, Ore., to George C. Amrhein, 2413 Kings highway.

The bridegroom, a forester with the Bureau of Land Management, is a son of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Amrhein, Erlanger, Ky.

The Rev. George Roseberry officiated for the 1 o'clock ceremony. Fifty guests attended. White candles and white flowers decorated the church. The bride's father gave her in marriage. She wore a street-length dress of white lace over taffeta. It was of princess style with three-quarter-length sleeves and scoop neckline. Her veil was shoulder length and she carried a white Bible topped with a white orchid.

Miss Dorothy Brownson, Salem, her maid of honor, wore a blue taffeta dress styled with a scoop neck, three-quarter-length sleeves and a soft-pleated skirt. She carried white carnations.

Dwight L. Patton was best man. Hugh Shera and William Cousineau seated the guests.

Mrs. Mabel Radar, aunt of the bride, sang.

The newlyweds were hosts for a reception following their marriage. The event took place at 2413 Kings highway, where they will make their home. Decorations were in keeping with the Christmas season.

The young couple traveled to Erlanger to spend the holidays with the bridegroom's parents, the bride wearing for traveling a powder blue suit with black accessories. They plan to return to Medford in January.

The bride attended Elkton high school and Oregon State college and was formerly employed by Montgomery Ward and company. The bridegroom attended Centre college of Kentucky at Danville.
