

GOLD HILL Programs Planned

By MRS. CLYDE KELL
Gold Hill—Pupils of the Hanby and Patrick schools of district 6C will present their Christmas program at the Hanby school gymnasium at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday.

Santa will distribute treats to the youngsters following the program. The project is sponsored by the Gold Hill PTA. Those working on the committee this year include Mr. and Mrs. Joe Estremado, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Foley and Mr. and Mrs. Rolan Rosecrans. Mrs. Leonard McMahon, vice president of the unit, will assist the group.

The community Christmas program, sponsored each year by the Amethyst Rebekah and Odd Fellows lodges here will be held Wednesday at 8 p.m. in the IOOF hall on Fourth ave.

All youngsters in the area are invited to participate in the program, which is unhearsd. Mrs. Alva A. Walker is chairman. Children who wish to take part in the program are requested to telephone her UL 5-1125 prior to Wednesday evening if possible.

Youngsters will have an opportunity to visit with and receive treats from Santa after the program.

Residents within the city limits of Gold Hill have been urged to participate in the lighting contest, sponsored by the local Lions club to promote the Christmas spirit as well as to beautify the community during the holiday season.

Cash prizes will be awarded winners of the contest. Complete details will be announced later.

Delmar Smith, Crater High Future Farmers of America reporter said that Denny Samples, FFA radio chairman, has arranged several radio programs in which students of Crater High school will participate.

School Groups Have Boundary Authority

Salem—Attorney General Robert Y. Thornton said Friday that school reorganization committees of counties have authority over school district boundary boards where boundary changes are in doubt.

Thomas J. Reeder, district attorney for Jackson county, asked for the attorney general's opinion.

Thornton said the county reorganization committee's consent must be obtained by a school district boundary board before boundary changes legally can be made. School district boundary boards are composed of county school superintendents and county courts.

participate. Tape recordings were made at radio station KMED last Friday.

The second in the series of five programs will be presented over KMED Sunday, Dec. 20 at 7:30 p.m. This will cover the work that Miss Leslie Meister is doing as secretary for Edward Griggs, in the sixth period at Crater High. Jim Frink also will be interviewed on state farmer applications and his project.

The previous Sunday, Denny Samples interviewed Miss Connie McDonough, Crater FFA chapter sweetheart, during the first of the 5-minute programs.

The third program, scheduled for Sunday, Dec. 27 at 7:30 p.m., will consist of a discussion of the Rogue Ramblers with Denny Samples and Leon Sherman participating.

The fourth program, set for the first Sunday in January at 7:30 p.m., will be on the topic of parliamentary procedure with Donald Deming, Pete Melsted and Delmar Smith taking part in the discussion. The fifth, on public speaking, will be presented by Donald Deming and Pete Melsted, Sunday, Jan. 10 at 7:30 p.m.

Several servicemen were reunited with former schoolmates when all arrived home to visit relatives prior to the Christmas holidays.

Arriving home to spend 14-day leaves with their parents were Curtis J. Payne, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Payne, and James McKibbin, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. N. McKibbin. These young men recently completed Navy recruit training at the naval base in San Diego.

Another Navyman, Donald Kell is spending a 30-day leave with his father, Howard Kell, and other relatives here and in Medford. He recently returned to the U.S. from Midway where he had been on duty several months. While on Midway, Donald received from the state department of education a certificate which is equivalent to a high school diploma.

A member of the Air Force, Glen Taylor, son of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Taylor, has been a guest of his parents while spending a 30-day leave in Gold Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Rellock and granddaughter, Pamela Barlow, Medford, were dinner guests at the home of Mrs. Whitlock's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Quinn, recently.

Calling later in the day were Mr. and Mrs. William Barlow and son Michael. William Barlow recently returned to Medford after nearly two years on duty with the Army in Ludwigsberg, Germany.

Charles Bruce returned home recently after a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Carl Norman in Santa Rosa, Calif.

Mrs. Lee Malone was hostess for a layette shower honoring Mrs. Richard Genaw. Co-hostesses were Mrs. Leon Guss, Medford and Mrs. John Genaw, Gold Hill.

Guests were Mrs. Stanley Newnam, Mrs. Bob Gray, Mrs. Iva Lentz, Mrs. Hank Robertson, Gold Hill, and Mrs. Ronald Guss and Miss Rhonda and Miss Geneine Guss, all of Medford. Gifts were sent by Mrs. Harry White and Mrs. Odelle Stallee.

GRAND CHAMP—"Black Jewel." 1036-pound grand champion steer, brought $22,356 in auction at the International Livestock show in Chicago, Ill. The steer was purchased by Howard Johnson Jr., president of Howard Johnson Restaurants. Holding steer is Ray Maass, 21, who raised "Black Jewel." For those interested, the price of the steer figures out to $21.60 per pound.

Natural Resources Group Sets Meets
Salem—The Legislative Interim committee on Natural Resources announced Saturday that it would hold a series of meetings in southern Oregon late next month.

Sen. Andrew J. Naterlin (D-Newport), chairman, said the sessions would be in Eugene Jan. 21; Grants Pass Jan. 22; Gold Beach Jan. 23 and Coquille Jan. 23 in the evening.

He said the meetings were to give a chance for presentation of views on the organizational structure of state agencies and the use of local resources—water, forests, soil, minerals and wildlife.
