Heavy Hearts, Tears Turning Into Smiles Mark Approaching Christmas

By DOC QUIGG
 New York — (UPI) — Christmas is a magic word to children. But in countless homes there are heavy hearts. In others, fate contrives to turn young tears into smiles.
 Across an often heedless nation bent on festive holiday and the gentle blessing of holy things, the sad homes bear their burden, the glad ones smile.
 It was just 35 days before Christmas when two automobiles met head-on at midnight in Mount Kisco, N. Y., in a sickening rip of metal that deprived six homes and 26 children of mothers. The six, in one station wagon, were returning from a church mother's guild meeting.
 A youth fleeing police in a car, smashed into them. Two, mothers of six, died. The other four, torn but now off the critical list, will spend a painful Christmas in the hospital.
 Their 16 children range in age from 2 to 13. Guild members are preparing presents for the children and husbands.
Pays on Tree
 In Angwin, Calif., Evelyn Hicks, 12, will take a closer look at Santa and the holly and tinsel this year. This may be the last time she sees them.
 She knows that, Evelyn is dying of cancer and has known it for several months.
 A bright twist came in Enid, Okla., when a boy, about eight, told A. M. Taylor, a Christmas tree vendor, that he had to get a tree for his grandmother and bought one on the installment plan. Taylor said the boy picked one out, was told it would be 50 cents, and plunked down two cents. He said he'd make equal payments for the rest.
 Another customer contributed a quarter, and Taylor shook hands on a done deal with the youngster, who warned: "Don't you send me no bill. We get enough of them."
 In Kansas City, Kan., life itself was a Christmas present for Patty McLinden, 12.
 Born a blue baby, worsening until six months ago, she could hardly walk. She was given little chance to survive much longer. This month, a surgeon team used a heart-lung machine and body cooling and repaired Patty's heart.
 The world's first seaside amusement pier was built at Brighton, England, in 1822.

LANDSCAPE GIFT—Mrs. Eisenhower filled in for the President Monday at the annual Christmas party for White House personnel and presented each with a reproduction (shown) of an Eisenhower landscape showing Mt. Eisenhower, a peak between Lake Louise and Banff, in Alberta, Canada.

The Army is experimenting with sandbags made of knitted paper. They have survived 60 day tests in severe weather.
 Foods can be kept hot or cold in a new hostess cart.
 Because it operates on batteries it may be used indoors or outdoors.

A BOY AND SNOW—Eric Seibel, 5, has a snow ball in the Greenwich Village section of New York. He indulges in a little art work on a snow-covered car before going off to find a hill for a trip on his "flying saucer". The metropolitan area got its first real taste of winter when seven inches of snow fell.
