Reports show that the Daniels' car was westbound on Fifth st. when it struck the bumper of the Angle car which was parked as Daniels made a left turn onto Central ave. No citations were issued.

Unemployment Claims Increase

Salem—UPI—Some 20,166 persons claimed unemployment insurance benefits in Oregon last week, 653 more than the previous week. The State Employment Department said this compares with 28,616 one year ago. The department said chief reason for the lower level of claims this year is more employment in trade, lumber, service, and electrical machinery manufacturing industries. Over-all claims totals, however, continue their week to week rise mainly because of weather-related seasonal cutbacks in logging, lumber and construction industries.

Funeral Services Set for Ben Todd Thursday Morning

Funeral services for Ben H. Todd, 63, prominent local architect who died at his home in the Plaza apartments Monday, will be held at 11 a.m. Thursday in Chapel Mortuary. The Rev. Thomas McCamant, pastor of the Congregational church, will officiate. Committal services in Siskiyou Memorial park will be private.

Mr. Todd, the son of John W. and Florence Varley Todd, was born in Peoria, Ill., Aug. 9, 1896. He was a veteran of World War I, having served with the heavy artillery division of the U. S. Army. On Oct. 8, 1920, he was married in Red Oak, Iowa, to Josephine E. Woodard, who survives.

The couple came from Bakersfield, Calif., to Medford about 10 years ago. Mr. Todd is known here particularly for his work as architect for the courthouse annex, the Christian Science church, the Jacksonville grade school, Weeks and Oppenheimer store, Weisfeld's jewelers, and a number of other new and remodeled business and professional buildings.

He was a member of the Congregational church at Bakersfield, the Masonic lodge in Sidney, Iowa, and the Medford Elk's lodge.

Besides his wife, he is survived by one son, John E. Todd, Portland; one daughter, Mrs. JoAnne Burnett Portland; his mother, Mrs. Florence Todd, Liberty, Mo.; two brothers, John W. Todd, Wichita, Kans., and Paul Todd, Liberty, Mo.; three sisters, Mrs. Ross Cook, El Cajon, Calif., Mrs. James Glass, Miami, Fla., and Mrs. Wayne Taylor, Des Moines, Ia.; and seven grandchildren.

PGE Said Using Too Much Water

Salem—UPI—The Oregon Hydroelectric commission Tuesday voted unanimously to advise Portland General Electric Company that in the commission's opinion PGE is using more water than it has filed claim to at its River Mill dam on the Clackamas river. The commission said a letter would be directed to PGE requesting the firm to file an application for a license to operate a fifth generator and turbine at the Estacada project. The plant was expanded in 1952, according to the commission, and a claim for the additional usage must be filed as required by state law.

In other action, the commission: Approved a six-month extension of time for PGE to file an initial statement of cost in respect to its North Fork and Faraday power projects, both operating now on the Clackamas river. Okayed 1960 fish flows for the California-Oregon Power Company Big Bend project in Klamath county. The flows will be the same as for 1959.

Brigitte Bardot May Have Twins

Paris—UPI—Paris buzzed today with speculation that Brigitte Bardot may be expecting twins. The speculation was touched off by the delivery Tuesday of two cradles to Miss Bardot's home.

Miss Bardot's physicians refused to comment on the subject. One, Dr. T. Laennec, however, disclosed that Miss Bardot would become a mother sooner than had been expected.

Earlier reports had predicted the birth in February, or even later. The indications now were that it would come in mid-January.

Migratory Labor Needs Discussed

Salem—UPI—The governor's inter-agency committee on migratory labor Tuesday discussed the prospect of increased farm mechanization and its subsequent effect on migratory labor needs. The meeting also heard a resolution adopted by the western governor's conference which extended support and encouragement to a regional conference on migratory labor, to be organized with the cooperation of the Council of State Governments and the American Public Health Association.

Brazilian Plane Crash Fatal To 42

Rio De Janeiro—UPI—Firemen combining the charred wreckage of suburban homes here said today at least 42 persons were killed and 10 others injured in Tuesday's double air crash. A Brazilian domestic airliner, which locked wings over Rio, crashed in suburban Ramos, setting four homes on fire. All of the 32 persons aboard the airliner and at least 10 residents of the crash area were killed.

Air Cadet Eduardo Silva Perez, pilot of the trainer, parachuted to safety.

Blaze Destroys Building at Burns

Burns—UPI—Fire early today engulfed a one-story building housing a restaurant, cocktail lounge and grocery store here.

The blaze was still burning several hours later although it had been confined to the one building. Firemen said cause of the blaze was unknown although it may have started by an overheated compressor in the bar's refrigeration system. The fire broke out about 5:45 a.m.

Try and Stop Me

By BENNETT CERF

A PARIS CORRESPONDENT wrote up a swanky reception attended by numerous princes, counts, dukes and their ladies. One guest who was new in those parts sought the bar. "Looking for something?" asked an elderly gentleman courteously. "Yes," said the stranger. "A bourbon." The elderly gentleman bowed and asked, "Would a Hapsburg do?"

The committee to clean up the town posted notices in prominent places demanding: 'Did you make our city dirty today?' Some miscreant pencilled at the bottom of one of those notices, 'On the contrary: our city made me dirty today!'

A confirmed jackass who would drive his racing car while drunk, begged for, and received, one last jigger of whiskey. "Okay, now," nodded the cynical bartender, "you've had one for the road. Would you like one more for the ditch?"

"Why?" inquired a boy's mother, are you so set against having an alarm clock next to your bed, so you can get to school on time mornings?" "It's because," said sonny, "I simply hate that sort of ding."

Crab Boats Tied Up In Dispute on Prices

Astoria—UPI—Crab boats here, Newport and Grays Harbor were tied up Tuesday in a dispute over crab prices. Fishermen asked 14 cents a pound and buyers offered 12 cents.

A few crabs were being sold to the local fresh market at an unannounced price. The dispute affected about 30 boats in the Astoria-Warrenton area.

Portland Laborers Seek Pay Increase

Portland—UPI—Representatives of public employee organizations Tuesday appeared before the city council and requested a mid-year pay increase for laborers employed by the city.

The case for laborers has been put before the council several times since the council failed to give this class a pay increase in the 1959-60 budget.

John Howard, business representative for Municipal Employees, local 483, said the Dock Commission pays its workers up to 18 per cent more than the city and that city laborers have a smaller per cent of increase than any other group.

Salem Recreation Director Succumbs

Salem—UPI—The director of health, physical education and recreation for the city of Salem, W. Vernon Gilmore, 52, died Tuesday in a doctor's office here, apparent victim of a heart attack. The physician said that although Gilmore had no past record of heart trouble, he had complained of chest pains that began Monday.

Gilmore graduated from Oregon State college in 1930 and the Salem health program had been under his direction for the past two years. He had worked in the Salem school system since graduation from college.

Ike Presented Variety of Gifts

Washington—UPI—Two gazelles, an egg inscribed "We Like Ike," the skin of the largest tiger ever shot in India's Uttar Pradesh province, a jewel-encrusted rifle, a geding-hursted, a priceless in-laid writing desk . . .

And on and on and on. These are just a few of the gifts President Eisenhower's hosts showered on him during his 11-nation good will tour. Special cargo planes were needed to bring back the presents.

In return, the President gave his hosts polaroid cameras, desk pen sets, Steuben glass, transistor radios and silver-framed, autographed photographs of himself.

Among the gifts Eisenhower collected were an honorary membership in the Spanish Baseball federation, an 18th Century portrait of Washington and Lafayette, a gold-embossed stamp album, a musk deer gland (used for perfume), a sari and lace mantillas for his wife, and still more . . .

Holdup Man Takes Jewels in S.F.

San Francisco—UPI—A bandit robbed a swank downtown jewelry store of $300,000 in gems Tuesday night, then vanished into the surging crowd of Christmas shoppers. The robber, armed with a pistol in one hand and what he said was a vial of explosives in the other, forced an employe of the store to go with him. But the employe, Ralph Ruthe, escaped when the man tried to force him into a church on the next block.

Graham Browne, manager of the Paul DeVries-Louis and Co. jewelry store, described the bandit as a professional.
