Casanova Cal Coach?

Berkeley, Calif. — (UPI) — A new entrant was reported in the California coaching derby Saturday when an authoritative source said Oregon coach Len Casanova was under serious consideration for the post.

The post has been vacant since Pete Elliott resigned to go to the University of Illinois last week.

Many names have been tossed about as possible successors, including former Navy coach Eddie Erdelatz, former University of Washington assistant Bert Clark, Cal line coach Dee Andros and now Casanova, who was a former athletic star at Santa Clara.

Colts, Giants Set for Thriller

Baltimore — (UPI) — The Baltimore Colts and New York Giants are ready for the game National Football league fans have been waiting for since last December — a rematch of their unprecedented overtime championship thriller.

Baltimore won the 1958 NFL title, 23-17, after eight minutes, 15 seconds of a "sudden death" extra period at Yankee stadium.

Coach Weeb Ewbank's Colts, 3½ point favorites to retain the crown, ended preparations Saturday with a light drill at Memorial stadium.

Coach Jim Lee Howell's underdogs, described recently by a Cleveland Browns coach as "those cocky Giants" arrived by train Saturday after a brief Yankee stadium workout.

Finals Set For Tennis

Ashland — Ellis Williamson, Eugene, and Earl Brooks, Klamath Falls, took the quarter finals Saturday in the men's singles matches on the Southern Oregon college gym floor during the first day of the Rogue Valley Tennis club's indoor tournament.

Williamson beat Alex Peterson, Ashland 6-4 and 6-2. Brooks, Klamath Falls, beat Don Auxier, Medford, 4-6, 6-4 and 6-3. Dick Joy, Ashland, beat Bruce Merrill, SOC, 6-3 and 6-4. Jerry Joy, Ashland, beat Joe Corroy, Gold Hill, 6-2 and 6-0.

In first round doubles, George Hunt and Mike Moore, both of Eugene, beat John Root and Bruce Merrill, 6-2, 5-7 and 6-3.

Last Race For Johnnie

Los Angeles — (UPI) — Johnnie Parsons' 20-year auto racing career comes to an end today when he competes in the 100-lap United States Auto club (USAC) midget race at Saugus stadium.

The 1950 Indianapolis 500 winner has announced he will retire to enter private business. He will be honored as part of the afternoon racing program at the San Fernando Valley track.

Parsons, 41, was the national big car driving champion in 1949, the year he finished second in his debut at Indianapolis.

Others entered in the mid-level events include Roger Ward, 1959 Indianapolis winner, Los Angeles; Johnny Boyd, Fresno, Calif.; Ray Crawford, Pasadena, Calif.; Duane Carter, Speedway, Ind.; Bill Chubb, Tucson, Ariz.; and A. J. Foyt, Houston, Tex.

Highlights of the program will be the battle for the Pacific Coast midget championship between Earl Motter, Fresno, current leader with 205.25 points; Bill Cantrell, Anaheim, Calif., 197; Danny Oakes, Beverly Hills, Calif., 191.5; and Jimmy Davis, Pacoima, Calif. A victory today is worth 50 points.

All-Stars Win In Copper Bowl

Tempe, Ariz. — (UPI) — All-America Bill Burrell set up one touchdown with a pass interception and engineered a tight defense Saturday to lead the National All-Stars to a 21-6 victory over the Southwest in the Copper Bowl football game.

The great Illinois guard picked off a pass by Arizona State's Fran Urban on the National 28, and with broken-field agility raced to the Southwest 37 late in the first period. From that point, the Nationals rolled to the game's first score, with USC's Angelo Coia getting the touchdown on a wide end run from the 7.

The Nationals' other All-America star, Penn State quarterback Richie Lucas, got into offensive action in the fourth period and directed a 47-yard scoring drive. He scored himself from the 8.

Lucas, suffering a hip injury, still showed the form that made him an All-American in directing the sustained march, mixing up his plays well.

Roger Leclerc, Trinity college's fine all-around center, kicked a 28-yard field goal late in the second period that gave the Nationals a 9-0 half-time lead.

Michigan State quarterback Larry Bielst also came on in the final period and moved the Nationals on a 53-yard march with Bielst getting the touchdown run on a 4-yard spring around his right end.

The Southwest squad, whose main ignominy was failure of its passing game, finally cashed in when Arizona's Jim Geist hurled a 41-yard aerial to Arizona State university end Bill Spanko for a touchdown with 3 minutes, 40 seconds left in the game.

Geist unleashed a beautiful 50-yard shot to Baylor back Austin Gonsoulin, who dropped the ball on the 2 with 47 seconds to go.

It was Burrell and the hard-charging National line that spelled the difference between the two clubs. The Southwest team got four key breaks in the game, but couldn't capitalize on any of them.

Two of them came on a fumbled punt and a poor kick by the Nationals in the first half. And in the second half the Southwest failed to score after blocking a punt on the National 22, and recovering a fumble inside the National 40.

STATISTICS: Nationals — 0 8 0 12-21; Southwest — 0 0 0 6-6. Scoring: Nat—Coia USC 7 run (kick failed); Nat—Le Clerc Trinity FG 28; Nat—Lucas Penn State 8 run (kick failed); SW—Spanko ASU 41 pass from Jim Geist Arizona (kick failed); Nat—Bielst Michigan State 4 run (kick failed).

Shoulders Leading Bullriding
Dallas, Tex. — (UPI) — Jim Shoulders, the Henryetta, Okla., veteran cowboy, jumped into the lead among the nation's bull-riding specialists Saturday in the first of 10 rounds in the $57,500 National Finals rodeo.

Shoulders didn't win his event, but the world's number one cowboy gave the opening day crowd of around 4,500 a thrill as he earned 182 points to tie for third and won $130. That was enough to move him into first place ahead of Bob Wegner of Ponca City, Okla., who earned only 172 points and was out of the money.

Shoulders' seasonal winnings mounted to $14,716 compared with $14,628 for Wegner.

Shoulders failed to earn money in his other specialty bareback bronc-riding where he ranked third for the season behind Jack Buschhorn of Casville, Ia., and John Hawkins of Twin Hart, Calif. Buschhorn won this event with 185 points to add $375 to his total.

Win $16,089
Buschhorn now has won $16,089 as compared to $15,698 for Hawkins and $14,842 for Shoulders.

Buschhorn was the only number one rated cowboy to win his specialty in the first go-round. In fact, the only other leader to finish in the money was calf roper Jim Bob Altizer of Del Rio, Tex., who picked up $87 for a fourth-place finish.

Harry Charters, the steer wrestling leader from Melba, Ida., made a fast throw of his animal, but let the steer's horns slip out of his grasp and by the time he remounted and made an official toss his time skidded to 45.2 seconds.

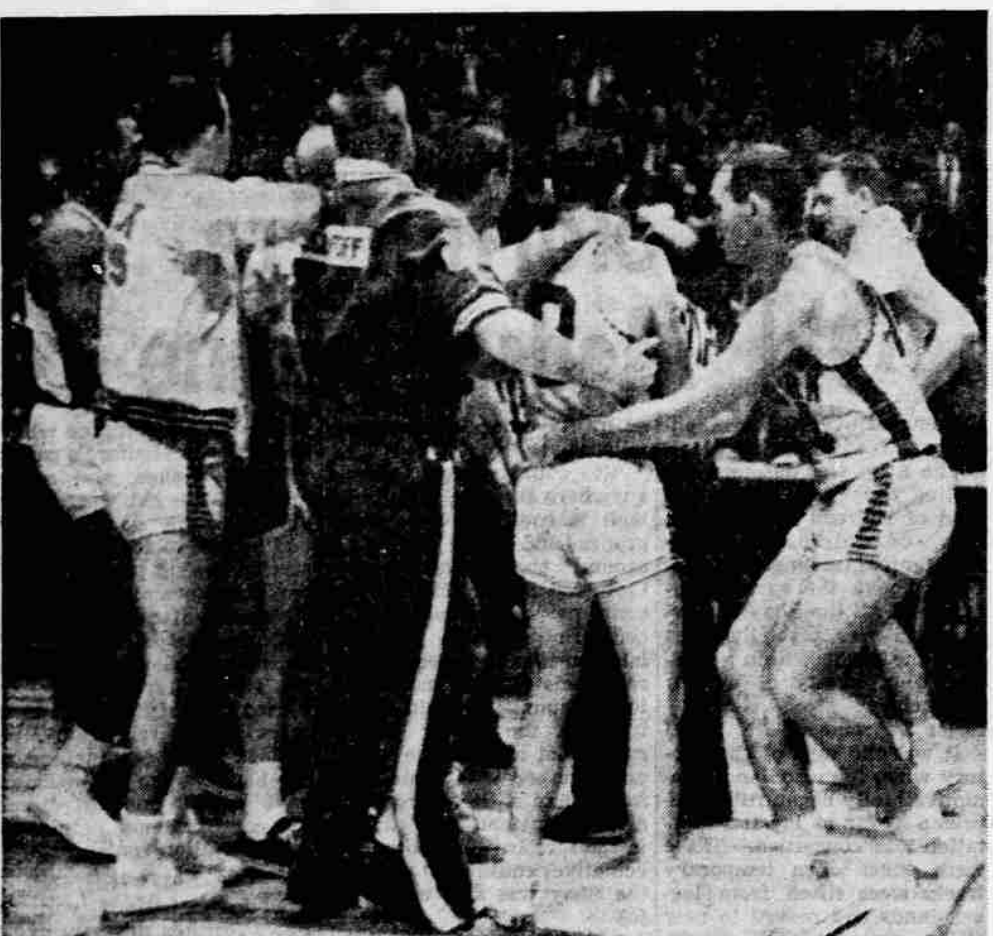

That was far off the winning time of 7.6 seconds posted by Harley May, the one-time Sul Ross, (Tex.) State college-trained cowboy who now lives in Oakdale, Calif.

Wayne Lewis, of Dell City, Tex., who tied with Shoulders in the bull riding, turned the trick on an animal named Singshot which had never been ridden in 35 previous outings.

That event was won by Duane Howard of Minnewhukan, N.M. The other first-round winners were Jake Bogard of Bula, Tex., in calf roping, and Marty Wood of Bowness, Alberta, Canada, in saddle bronc riding.

SOVIET STAR NAMED
Moscow — (UPI) — Decathlon champion Vasily Kuznetsov was chosen Thursday as the Soviet Sportsman of the Year by Russian sportswriters. Kuznetsov won a Decathlon victory during the Russian-U.S. meet in Philadelphia earlier this year with a total of 8,350 points.

BRAWL PREVENTED — Boston Celtics' Jim Loscutoff (wearing training suit) joins the crowd as Knickerbockers-Celtics National Basketball association game in New York almost develops into a brawl game Friday at Madison Square Garden. Fireworks were touched off by Richie Guarin of Knicks and Boston's K. C. Jones while scrambling for free ball late in fourth period. Quick action by special police prevented the fight from getting out of hand. Boston beat New York, 123 to 119. (UPI Telephoto)

Cincinnati Field General Leads Blues to 20-8 Win

Montgomery, Ala. — (UPI) — The Blue, led by a field general named Lee, stung the Gray with passes, and deceptive runs Saturday to win the 22nd annual Blue-Gray football game 20-8 before 22,000 fans.

Quarterback Jack Lee of Cincinnati gave the underdog Blue squad an air advantage and another Yankee quarterback, Ross Fichtner of Purdue, engineered the running game with slick handoffs and fakery.

Iowa State's Dwight Nichols, another passing star, threw a 16-yard scoring pass, Maryland fullback Jim Joyce — a standout runner all afternoon — cracked three yards for another touchdown and halfback Leonard Wilson of Purdue piled over for the third on a three-yard burst.

The favored Grays averted a shutout late in the third period when Clemson quarterback Harvey White hurled a 23-yard scoring pass to Vanderbilt halfback Tom Moore.

Moore took a short toss and bucked for two points but it was too late then for a south comeback. The Blues bunched their scores and built a 20-0 lead in the middle stanzas.

The gallant Blues took the second-half kickoff 53 yards in a dazzling eight-play series to their third touchdown. Fichtner started the march with a 21 yard pass to Wilson and Joyce, who did most of his ground gaining over guard, moved it to scoring position inside the 10.

Wilson carried over for the score.
First Score on Drive
The first Blue score came on an 11-play drive that went 85 yards — the capper being Nichols' floating 16 yard pass to Northwestern end Doug Asadi. Lee kicked the first of two extra points.

Moments later, the Blues took a punt on their 22 and Lee directed a 78 yard drive that took 12 plays. The key play was a 21-yard Lee pass completion for a first down on the Gray 24.

Joyce then barreled to the nine and two plays later ramed across from three yards out.

The south's strike by White, hero of last week's Bluebonnet Bowl game, went to All-Southeastern conference halfback Moore down the middle. Moore slashed over, dragging Blue-clad tacklers with him. Texas A & M quarterback Charlie Miltstead faked a placement and threw to Moore on the goal line for the two-point.

The Blue line, studded with stars from the Big 10, held the Grays to a frustrating yardage total and a mere 11 first downs while Blue backs piled up 26.

In the first period, the Grays muffed a chance when a low pass from center forced Oklahoma end Wahoo Jones to run instead of punt on fourth down and the Grays got possession on the Blue 21.

Moore and Clemson halfback Bill Mathis moved it to the Blue one-yard line, but the Blue line held there and a Miltstead pass overshoot intended receiver Carroll Dale of Virginia Tech in the end zone.

Michigan State guard Don Wright and teammate tackle Paul Rochester were thorns in the southern backfield all afternoon. The two Big 10 stars made more than 50 per cent of the tackles.

Alabama guard Don Cochran was a defensive stalwart for the outplayed southerners.

STATISTICS: Blue — 0 14 6 20; Gray — 0 0 0 8-8. Scoring: Blue—Asadi 16 pass from Nichols (Lee kick); Blue—Joyce 3 run (Lee kick); Blue—Wilson 3 run (kick failed); Gray—Moore 23 pass from White (Moore pass from Miltstead). First downs — Blue 11; Gray 6. Rushing yardage — Blue 268; Gray 107. Passing yardage — Blue 107; Gray 8-20. Passes intercepted by — Blue 2; Gray 2. Punt — 2-36; 4-40. Fumbles lost — 1; 1. Three Tournaments Set For Cage Action Monday

United Press International
West Coast college basketball fans, eyeing a possible rematch between last season's NCAA finalists, West Virginia and California, have a generous helping of holiday action in store for them.

No less than four holiday cage tournaments were slated for the coming week, with the first annual West Coast Athletic Conference affair scheduled Saturday in San Francisco.

Three other tournaments begin Monday, with national attention focused on the Los Angeles Holiday Classic in the new Sports Arena. Unbeaten defending NCAA champ California (6-0), Illinois (5-0) and last season's NCAA runner-up, West Virginia (8-0) spice the loaded eight-team field.

Plenty of Competition
Other entries are USC, UCLA, Northwestern, Michigan and Stanford.

The sixth annual Far Western Conference tournament gets away Monday at Chico State, and in the northwest, the Far West Classic will draw top regional teams to Oregon State's gym.

Oregon State (3-2), Oregon (6-1), Portland (4-2), New Mexico State (6-2), Denver (3-3), Washington State (5-4), Idaho (3-6) and touring Hawaii will vie for the Far West Classic title.

Willamette and Whittier join the six league teams in the Far Western Conference tournament at Chico. San Francisco State (1-5) opens with Sacramento State (1-5) followed by Whittier vs. Nevada (2-5); Cal Aggies (0-7) vs. Chico State (3-5) and Willamette-Humboldt (3-5).

Detroit Player Named As League's Top Slugger
Chicago — (UPI) — Outfielder Al Kaline of the Detroit Tigers turned in one of the year's neatest tricks when he won the American league "slugging championship" by hitting more singles than his closest rivals.

Kaline was disclosed Saturday as the surprise winner of the "slugging title" with a .530 percentage, according to figures compiled by the Howe News bureau. Harmon Killebrew of the Washington Senators was second at .516, Mickey Mantle of the New York Yankees was third at .514, Rocky Colavito of the Cleveland Indians was fourth at .512 and Jim Lemon of the Senators was fifth at .510.

Kaline hit fewer home runs than all four of his closest rivals, topped only Colavito in triples and had fewer doubles than Killebrew, Mantle and Colavito. But his 119

Tough Drills On For UW

Pasadena, Calif. — (UPI) — The holiday was over for both the Washington and Wisconsin Rose Bowl football team Saturday.

Both squads faced what coaches planned as their most intensive practice sessions since arriving here a week ago.

Coach Jim Owens, stymied by the rain Thursday, rescheduled a scrimmage at Long Beach Veterans Stadium today for the Huskies. He still believes the Pacific champions are behind Wisconsin in conditioning because of bad weather and other factors.

Milt Bruhn, who gradually has expanded workouts for the Wisconsin crew, also indicated he may scrimmage the Badgers today.

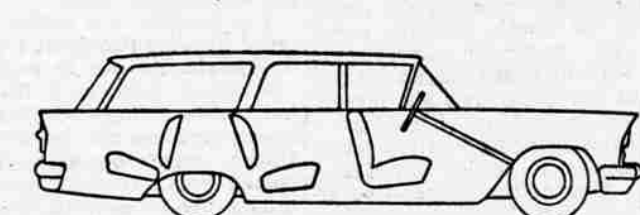

Neither team did any work on the gridiron Friday. In fact, the most serious decision involved a choice of jersey colors for the New Year's Day classic, Wisconsin, this year's "home" team under the Rose Bowl pact, picked its red jersey, Washington will be garbed in white.

CUBA DETAINS PLAYERS
Miami Beach, Fla. — (UPI) — The director of the Orange Bowl junior tennis tournament has asked Cuban Premier Fidel Castro to permit Jack Connill and Adolph Minozo to compete here beginning Dec. 30.

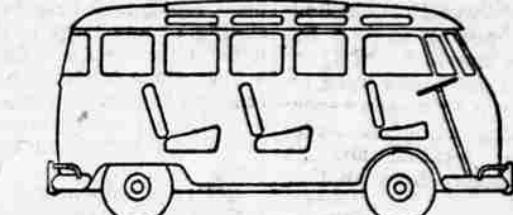

The teen-age players are being detained in Cuba despite their selection to participate in the tournament by Cuban Tennis Assn.
