Church Rites Wed Couple

Jacksonville — Miss Shirley Mae Dunlap became the bride of William Franklin Madden in a ceremony held December 11 at First Presbyterian church, Medford, Dr. D. Kirkland West officiated at the eight o'clock evening rites attended by 200 relatives and friends.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marion E. Dunlap, route 1, box 58A, Jacksonville. Mr. Madden is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Earnest Madden, 1902 Houston road, Medford.

Baskets of chrysanthemums decorated the church and lighted candles were at the altar. Mrs. H. E. Marsh played the organ wedding music for the double ring ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a ballerina length gown of white lace over satin. The full skirt had alternating rows of nylon tulle and lace in the back and her fingertip length veil was held by a lace headband. She carried a cascade bouquet of white chrysanthemums encircling a white orchid.

Mrs. Anthony Mikshe served as matron of honor, and other attendants were Miss Emma Jean Smith and Miss Marilyn Jo Koch, both Ashland. They wore frocks of pink taffeta with back bows and carried white and pink chrysanthemums. Little Teresa Madden, Phoenix, niece of the bridegroom, was flower girl and candlelighters were Mary Ann Barker, Ruch, and Sarah Madden, Phoenix, another niece of the bridegroom. They also wore pink taffeta frocks.

Roy Madden, Central Point, served as best man for his brother. Seating the guests were Floyd Darrel Binks, Medford, and Noel E. Dunlap, brother of the bride.

For her daughter's wedding and reception which followed at the church Mrs. Dunlap wore a yellow and rust flowered taffeta frock with beige accessories. Mrs. Madden chose a plum colored suit with pink accessories. Their corsages were orchids.

Mrs. Roy Madden, Central Point, sister-in-law of the bridegroom, cut and served the cake and Mrs. Vernon

Holiday Events On Calendar

A number of Medford couples are holding open house this week end, adding to the list of holiday events held in recent days.

Dr. and Mrs. Edwin R. Durno and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hensley, their son-in-law and daughters, were hosts for an open house last evening. Guests were invited to the Durno home, 2512 East Main street, between the hours of five and seven o'clock.

The Durno's younger daughter, Miss Kaye Durno, will leave for San Francisco today by plane after spending Christmas with her family.

This evening Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lewis and Mrs. John M. Lynch, are holding open house at the Lewis' home on Fair Oaks drive. About 200 friends of the two couples have been invited to call between five and seven o'clock.

relatives attended. A miscellaneous shower honored her on December 4 at the home of Mrs. Carl Behler on Sweet road. Co-hostess was Mrs. Dale Durbin. Nearly 30 friends attended.

Group Leaves For Sun Valley

A group of Rogue valley ski enthusiasts will spend this week at Sun Valley, Ida. Until the middle of last week, reports from the resort had been "no snow" but Tuesday and Wednesday several inches fell, according to news received here.

One group from Medford includes Mr. and Mrs. William Patton, Miss Mary Lou Hanke, Miss Marjorie Simonson, Wallace Iverson and Glenn Klein. They will be joined by Mrs. Patton's brother, George Douglass, Portland, a Willamette university student; Bruce Friend, Grants Pass, Larry Wetter, Klamath Falls, and Richard Hay and Gene Chesley, both of Stanford university, Palo Alto, Calif. Mr. Hay, technical director of the Oregon Shakespearean festival, Ashland, in the summer months, will fly from Wichita, Kan., where he spent Christmas with relatives. Mr. Chesley is also on the technical staff of the festival.

Dr. and Mrs. Ralph Thompson, Modoc avenue, and their three daughters, Cassie, Pat and Holly, will also spend this week at Sun Valley. They left yesterday and plan to both ski and skate.

Garry Callison Is Visitor Here

Garry Callison of Fort Nelson, B.C., is spending the Yuletide as guest of the Moore Hamiltons of 43 Rose avenue. Now a student in the law school at the University of British Columbia at Vancouver, Callison graduated from the University of Oregon last June.

With the Hamiltons, their daughter, Miss Nancy Hamilton, son, Robert, and Mr. and Mrs. J. Sanford Richardson of Table Rock, Mr. Callison was a Christmas dinner guest at the E. P. Leavitts on the Old Stage road.

Ashland Woman To Be Hostess

Travel Study club of the Oregon Federation of Women's clubs will meet Tuesday, December 29, at 1 p.m. in the home of Mrs. Carl W. Peterson, 630 Siskiyou boulevard, Ashland. Mrs. Ray Glidewell, Ashland, will assist Mrs. Peterson.

The program will be "Christmas Around the World." This will be the club's Christmas party.

Miss Judith Korbol Wed To LeRoy Richard LaPorte

Central Point—Miss Judith Annette Korbol, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred H. Korbol, 160 Haskell street, became the bride of LeRoy Richard LaPorte, son of Mrs. Hazel Draeger, Gettysburg, S.D., and LeRoy LaPorte, San Francisco, in a ceremony held December 13 in Meeker Memorial chapel of First Methodist church, Medford.

Dr. George G. Roseberry officiated at the double ring ceremony attended by 65 relatives and friends. Mrs. Jerry Sherman played the organ wedding music for the three o'clock afternoon rites and accompanied Dr. and Mrs. Milton Snow, who sang.

Baskets of red and white carnations and white candles decorated the chapel. Mr. Korbol gave his daughter in marriage.

The bride wore a floor length gown of white lace over satin. The bodice was fashioned with long sleeves and seed pearls accented the neckline. Her fingertip length veil was held by a tiara of pearls and she carried a white orchid on a white Bible.

Mrs. Don Lacey served as matron of honor and bridesmaid was Miss Dorothy Hall, Renton, Wash., cousin of the bride. They wore red velvet and taffeta dresses with chiffon cummerbunds and carried nosegay bouquets of white carnations tied with red ribbon. Little Pamela Durbin, Medford, served as flower girl.

Don Lacey served as best man and groomsmen were Cecil Lacey. Seating the guests were Jerry Korbol, brother of the bride, and William D. Lacey, Wayne Allen, Jacksonville, was ring bearer.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Korbol chose a grey-blue silk shirtwaist dress with white carnation corsage. Mrs. Cecil Lacey, who represented the bridegroom's mother, wore a grey and black tulle dress with red and white variegated carnation corsage.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the Girls Community club. Mrs. B. T. Austin and Mrs. George Morissette, aunt of the bride, Crescent City, cut and served the wedding cake. Mrs. C. E. Lacey and Mrs. Albert Korbol poured the punch and coffee. Mrs. Marguerite Hiatt, aunt of the bride, was at the gift table. Passing the bridegroom's cake and rice bags were Linda Snow and Carolyn Baccus. Miss Barbara Baccus was in charge of the guest book.

The newlyweds traveled to the Oregon and California coast on their wedding trip and are making their home at 917 East Pine street, Central Point. For traveling the bride wore a purple wool suit with pink blouse and black accessories. Her corsage was an orchid.

The bride attended Crater High school and is employed by KBES-TV. Mr. LaPorte attended Blaine, Wash., High school and is employed by Glen Wilkins.

Among the out of town guests attending the wedding were George Morissette, Crescent City; Mr. and Mrs. Edd Pratt, Renton, Wash., uncle and aunt of the bride, and their children; and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Korbol, Edmonds, Wash., uncle and aunt of the bride.

The evening prior to the wedding the bride's parents were hosts for a rehearsal party at their home attended by the bridal party, close friends and relatives.

Prior to her wedding, the new Mrs. LaPorte was honored at two showers. A kitchen shower was given for her by Mrs. Earl Pestka, Mrs. Don Lacey and Mrs. Cecil Lacey at the Pestka home on November 20. About 20 friends and
