

Chapel Rites Wed Couple

Mrs. Mary Frances Buteau, formerly of Medford, became the bride of Primo Dalporto, Sacramento, Calif., in a ceremony held December 22 in Meeker Memorial chapel of First Methodist church. Dr. George G. Roseberry officiated at the seven o'clock evening rites attended by a group of relatives and close friends.

The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Fannie Brooks, Grifton, N.C., and made her home in Medford until a year ago when she moved to West Sacramento, Calif.

White chrysanthemums and stock decorated the chapel for the double ring wedding.

The bride wore a light blue silk brocade dress with matching accessories and white orchid corsage.

Mrs. Elmer Gene Warner was matron of honor for her mother. She wore a winter white brocade sheath dress with matching accessories and a corsage of red baby roses. Mr. Warner was best man.

Following the ceremony the newlyweds were honored at a dinner reception at the Rogue Valley Country club given by Mr. and Mrs. Victor Milnes.

Mr. and Mrs. Roger Gary Black

Miss Carol Mae Ballard Wed to Roger Gary Black

Miss Carol Mae Ballard became the bride of Roger Gary Black in a ceremony held December 19 at First Methodist church. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. V. Clark Ballard, 819 Brookdale road, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Black Sr., Coquille, Ore.

Dr. George G. Roseberry read the double-ring service at 8 o'clock in the evening, and Mr. Ballard gave his daughter in marriage.

For her wedding the bride wore a sheath gown of white lace over white satin, with long-sleeved jacket. Her shoulder length veil was held by a lace headress and satin bow. She carried a nosegay of small pink roses encircled with white carnations and bouvardia.

Mrs. Kent Ballard, sister-in-law of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a sheath frock of aquamarine lace over satin with matching satin headress and carried a cascade of white chrysanthemums.

Frank E. Black Jr., College Place, Wash., was best man for his brother and ushers were Kent Ballard, brother of the bride, and Darryl Binks.

Mrs. Lester Boardman was organist, and Earl Rohlf Jr., brother-in-law of the bridegroom, sang.

The reception which followed was in the church parlor. Mrs. Everett S. Ballard and Mrs. G. G. Stagg, aunts of the bride, cut and served the cake. Mrs. Richard Swinney served punch and Miss Vicki Tweedy, Jacksonville, poured coffee. Mrs. Ted Tenney, Grants Pass, took charge of the guest book.

For the wedding and reception the bride's mother wore a blue crepe dress with black accessories and white carnation corsage. The bridegroom's mother wore a navy blue and white print with white accessories and white carnation corsage.

Mr. Black and his bride traveled to southern California on their wedding trip, the bride wearing a black and white wool tweed suit with corsage of white hyacinths. They are living at 532 Pennsylvania avenue. The bride, a graduate of Medford High school, has completed work for her bachelor degree at Southern Oregon college and will be graduated with the 1960 class in June. Mr. Black is a graduate of Laurelwood academy, Gaston, Ore., and attended Walla Walla college, College Place, Wash. He is employed by Hoskins and Morrison.

Medford's Finest Jewelers and Silversmiths

Dear Customers and Friends

As we enter into a new year, we feel it fitting to pause a moment and look back on the twelve months just ended.

They have been good months for Brophy's Jewelers. Not merely in a business sense, but in the gratifying level of personal relationship we have continued to maintain with our many friends.

We believe that in spite of the tumult that exists in the normal pursuit of business, we must at the same time, concern ourselves with people—you, our customers and friends.

We believe that only by maintaining our rigid standards of quality, business ethics, and service, can we constantly be deserving of your continued patronage and cooperation.

We believe that your trust and faith in Brophy's record of success, plays a vital role in our never ending planning for new and better ways to serve you. It is with this trust and faith that we shall continue our policy of honesty, quality, and at a fair price.

Thus we are confident that we face the prospect of a mutually successful year together. We would like to extend our best personal wishes for a healthy and happy New Year for you and your families, and at the same time, express our gratitude for the association that Brophy's has enjoyed with you in the past.
