

Feast of Lights At St. Mark's Sunday Evening

The traditional Epiphany pageant, the "Feast of Lights" will be presented at St. Mark's Episcopal church Sunday at 7:30 p.m.

The production will be directed by Mrs. Scott Hamilton, assisted by Mrs. Walter Jensen, Mrs. C. E. Chamberlain, Scott Hamilton, and the church school staff.

Children of the church school will make up the cast for the production, which will be narrated by Douglas Kliewer. Accompanying music will be provided by St. Mark's Choristers, directed by Mrs. Ann Wirkkula. Miss Julie Yoakley will serve as organist.

The pageant will relate in symbolism the prophecies which foretold the coming of the Messiah of God, and will go on to unfold the story of the Nativity, and the visit of the Magi, concluding with the spread of the gospel and the Light of the World.

Candles lighted from the altar will be distributed to worshippers as they leave the church, symbolic of the obligation of the Christians to spread the "light" to the ends of the earth.

The service is open to all who care to attend. Members of the junior high youth group at the First Christian church will be guests at the production.

Epiphany Theme At St. Peter's

The Epiphany theme will be observed at St. Peter's Lutheran church Sunday at 11 a.m. with the Rev. John E. Simon, pastor, preaching the sermon.

The church is located at East Main and Vancouver sts. The Sunday school will begin at 9:30 a.m. The Lord's Supper will be observed in the service and the newly-elected officers of the voting body of the church will be installed.

Classes that have recessed during the holiday season will be resumed after Sunday. The teacher-training class meets Monday evening, the week day Bible class, Tuesday at 10:30 a.m., membership class, Tuesday, 7:30 p.m., Bible hour Wednesday at 7:30 p.m., and the confirmation classes on Saturday morning.

Christian Fellowship will meet Friday, Jan. 8, in the church basement. Topic for discussion will be "How Can Christians Advise Non-Christians on Marriage, Divorce and Separation?"

Members are asked to take cupcakes or cookies.

All interested persons are invited to attend.

Lord's Supper Set For Church Sunday

The Lord's Supper will be celebrated on the first Sunday of the New Year at the Congregational church, near the corner of Groveland ave. and Oakwood dr.

Butte Falls Church Youths Hold Number of Events

Butte Falls—Young people of the Butte Falls Community Bible church have been active the past two weeks. They presented a short play, "Crowding Christ Out of Christmas," for the evening service on Dec. 20. Mrs. Harry Dalton was director.

Christmas Eve they were part of a large group caroling the many homes in the community. Monday night they were among other church groups invited by the Central Point Community church to a skating party at the Ashland rink.

Thursday evening the same group sponsored a watch night party at the local church.

Guest speakers in the Butte Falls church recently were the Rev. Phares Huggins of the World Missions to Children, who is on furlough from Japan; and the Rev. Donald Collins who is planning to go to Africa in March.

Word has been received from the Rev. Donald Mac Dougal that he and his family are now in Burns, Wyo., where Mr. Mac Dougal is pastor of the First Presbyterian church.

Village Light circle held their last meeting at the home of Mrs. Harry Dalton. They prepared two boxes of used clothing for orphanage children. Mrs. James Irwin lead the devotional period. Plans were made to have the next meeting at the home of Mrs. Louis Cramer on Friday, Jan. 8, from 10:30 a.m. to 3 p.m.
