Church Rites Wed Pair

One of the larger weddings of the holiday season was an event of Sunday, December 27 when Miss Judith Ann McGraw became the bride of Dennis Lee Barr. The double-ring, candlelight ceremony was held at three o'clock in the afternoon at First Presbyterian church with the Rev. John O. Reynolds of the Westminster Presbyterian church officiating. Approximately 300 guests attended.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. McGraw, 3288 Hollywood avenue, and Mr. Barr's parents are Mr. and Mrs. George C. Barr, 539 Fairmount street.

Baskets of large white chrysanthemums and evergreen boughs with white satin bows and red cluster ornaments decorated the church. Spiral candelabra held lighted white tapers and white satin bows with holly and red clusters decorated the pews.

The bride wore a gown of white Chantilly lace designed with satin banded bodice, long sleeves and back skirt detail of ruffles cascading to a chapel length train. Her fingertip illusion veil fell from a sequin trimmed shell crown. She carried a bouquet of white rose buds and holly and wore a diamond and pearl drop necklace and earrings, gifts from the bridegroom. Mr. McGraw escorted his daughter to the altar and gave her in marriage.

Wear Holiday Red
Mrs. George DeCloedt (nee Sue Kelley) was matron of honor and bridesmaids were Miss Marsha O'Sullivan, Miss Nancy Wilson and Miss Kathie McCay, cousin of the bride. They wore identical princess style frocks of holiday red with bell skirts and portrait collar necklines. Their head-dresses were satin bandeaux and veils of holiday red and they wore white gloves. Their satin slippers were also holiday red in color. The attendants carried star colonial bouquets of white carnations and holly accented with silver glitter and wore pearl cluster earrings, gifts of the bride.

Robert Pond served as best man and ushers were George Ice, Gerry Lyons, all of Medford, and Gary Huneycutt, Grants Pass. Junior usher was Thomas McGraw, brother of the bride.

Flower girl was Debra Barr, 7-year-old sister of the bridegroom and Lee Sparks, 6-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Sparks and cousin of the bride, was ring bearer. Candelights were Charlotte and Christine Elmgren, 8-year-old twin daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Elmgren. The flower girl and candelights wore holiday red dresses with satin bandeaux in their hair, and short white gloves. The flower girl carried a small star colonial bouquet of white carnations and holly.

Miss Baker Sings
Miss Susan Baker was soloist for the ceremony and Mrs. Robert Sheldon was at the organ.

For the event the bride's mother wore an emerald silk faille sheath dress designed with butterfly sleeves. Her accessories were emerald green and champagne beige, and she wore a corsage of bronze cymbidium orchids.

The mother of the bridegroom was attired in an ice blue lace gown worn with white and black accessories. Her corsage was of ivory cymbidium orchids.

Special guests at the rites were Mrs. T. E. McGraw and Mrs. Alice Hood, grandmothers of the bride, and Mrs. Edward Collum, grandmother of the bridegroom. Their corsages were of pink rose buds.

Following the ceremony, a reception was given by the bride's parents in the Crater room at the Hotel Medford. The bride's table was arranged with lighted white tapers and red and white carnations; holly encircled the colonnaded wedding cake. The centerpiece for the coffee and punch table was an arrangement of red and white carnations, holly, evergreen boughs and white chrysanthemums and evergreen bough with red accents decorated the room.

Miss Jacqueline Walker, cousin of the bride, decorated the reception tables and assisted with arrangements for the wedding and reception.
Mrs. B. F. Sparks, aunt of the bride, and Miss Walker cut and served the wedding cake. Mrs. Earl Newman, sister of the bridegroom, and Mrs. Charles Tennant, aunt of the bridegroom, served the coffee. Serving the punch were Mrs. Kenneth E. Hood and Mrs. Merle McGraw, aunts of the bride and Miss Lana McGraw, cousin of the bride, was in charge of the guest book.

Miss Jacklyn Creager and Miss Susan Baker were at the gift table and Charlotte and Christine Elmgren passed red net and satin packets of rice. Mrs. Thelma Howard served as hostess.

Mr. Barr and his bride traveled to San Francisco for their wedding trip, the bride wearing a royal blue and black tweed suit with blue accessories and a white rose bud corsage.

Mr. and Mrs. Barr are graduates of Medford Senior High school. Mr. Barr was active in sports while in high school and was president of the choir. The bride was a member of the rally squad for two years. They are presently attending the University of Oregon. After January 5th they will be home at No. 14 Selma Apartments, Fourteenth street, Eugene.

Out-of-town guests attending the rites were Mr. and Mrs. Earl Newman and family, Boise, Idaho; Miss Janice Williams, Grants Pass; Mr. and Mrs. Edward Davis and family, Del Rio, Texas; and Mr. and Mrs. Victor Cornutt, Myrtle Creek, Ore.

A rehearsal dinner party was given by the bride's parents for members of the wedding party on Saturday evening, December 26, in the Crater room at the Rogue Valley Country club.

Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Lee Barr (Judith Ann McGraw) received friends and relatives at a reception held in the Crater room of the Hotel Medford following their wedding December 27 in First Presbyterian church. About 300 guests attended the ceremony and reception. (Landis photo)
