Gilman-Sawyers Rites

An event of the holiday season was the wedding of Miss Sandra Dagny Sawyers to George Leland Gilman. The ceremony took place Wednesday, December 23, at St. Mark's Episcopal church with the Rev. George R. V. Bolster reading the vows at eight o'clock in the evening.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James M. Sawyers, Mt. Rogue ranch, Trail, and the bridegroom's parents are Mrs. Leila Gilman, 345 Apple street, and Lester Gilman, 482 Beall lane, Medford.

About 225 guests were present for the double-ring service. The reception which followed was in the Parish hall of the church.

For her wedding the bride wore a gown of Alencon lace with scoop neckline outlined in pearls and billowing skirt ending in a chapel length train. She carried a prayer book with a white orchid and white hyacinths in streamers, and wore a single strand of pearls. Her chapel length veil of nylon net was held by a crown with tear drop pearls.

For "something old" the bride carried a white silk embroidered handkerchief brought from China many years ago by a cousin of her maternal grandmother. The traditional sixpence was loaned by Mrs. Robert Work.

Miss Roberta Dunlap, honor attendant for the bride, wore a bouffant gown of pink nylon chiffon made with scooped neckline, large puffed sleeves and deep vee-neckline in back. Her hat was of nylon braid in petal design and she carried lavender chrysanthemums.

Bridesmaids were the Misses Lee Teske, Applegate, Phyllis Briggs, Applegate, and Gail Hannan, Barstow, Calif. Junior bridesmaid was Margaret Hanson, Trail. Their frocks of lavender nylon chiffon were designed as that worn by the honor attendant and their ribbon hats with veils matched their gowns. They carried pink chrysanthemums and each wore a double strand necklace of crystals, gifts of the bride.

The bride's mother wore a champagne peau de soie sheath with hat of bronze satin and an orchid corsage. Mrs. Gilman wore a champagne colored brocade satin gown with hat of fresh bronze chrysanthemums.

Mr. Sawyers gave his daughter in marriage, and John Foley, Gold Hill, was best man for the bridegroom. Ushers were Delbert Chausee, cousin of the bridegroom Tonapah, Nev.; Warren Straus, Central Point, Allen Kimmey, Gold Hill, and Donald Hawks, cousin of the bridegroom. The bridegroom's brother, Richard Gilman, was junior usher.

Leonard Hanson, member of the bride's church, St. Martin's Episcopal church, Shady Cove, and Douglas Kliever were acolytes.

Mrs. E. C. Conrad was organist and Miss Ruth Clark, Portland, sang.

Poinsettias decorated the altar, and traditional Christmas greenery decorated the church. Pink chrysanthemums, baskets of greenery and white candles were used for the reception decorations.

Pouring for the reception were Mrs. Ranald Axtell, Trail and Mrs. Luther Davis, Mrs. Bruce Stuart and Mrs. Frank Dolenshek, Trail, cut and served the wedding cake.

Mrs. Ernest Lind, Monterey, Calif., sister of the bridegroom, took charge of the guest book, and Miss Maureen McCurdy the gifts.

Mr. Gilman and his bride traveled to Hawaii for their honeymoon, the bride wearing for traveling a beige wool jersey dress with red shoes and hat and an orchid.

Both Mr. Gilman and his bride were born and reared in Jackson county. The bride was graduated from Eagle Point High school and is attending Southern Oregon college. Mr. Gilman was graduated from Crater High school and is attending Oregon State college.

In Medford for the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Lind, sister and brother-in-law of the bridegroom from Monterey, Calif.; and Mr. and Mrs. James Watkins, aunt and uncle of the bride from Klamath Falls.

Also among the wedding guests were the bride's maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Myklebye, Trail; the bridegroom's paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. George Gilman, and his maternal grandmother, Mrs. Hazel Rawls.

The bridegroom's mother and Mrs. Goldie Hawk were co-hostesses for a dinner for the bridal party following the wedding rehearsal Tuesday, December 22. The event was held at Mrs. Hawk's home on South Stage road, and decorations were in the Hawaiian theme.
