

Auxiliary Cancels Camp White Dance

Ladies' auxiliary to the Veterans of Foreign Wars announces that the dance planned for Monday at Camp White has been canceled. January 18 a "hard times" dance will be given at the camp, with prizes for the best costumes.

Harmony Club Plans Meeting Wednesday

Plans for the coming months will be discussed at a meeting of the Townsend Harmony club auxiliary Wednesday, January 6. Mrs. Mae Olin was honored with a birthday cake at last week's meeting. A penny march and readings from the group adjourned the meeting. Dancing followed.

Two Relatives In Recent News

Two relatives of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Stevie, 2570 Victory lane, a daughter and granddaughter, were in the news recently in two widely separated parts of the United States.

A granddaughter of the Medford couple, Miss Anne Waldron, daughter of Sgt. and Mrs. Ralph E. Waldron, Vandenberg Air Force base, Calif., was named Civil Air Patrol cadet of the month for October.

The Stevie's daughter, Mrs. Thayer C. (Pauline) Kessler, recently joined the staff of Northwest Orient Airlines at the office in Anchorage, Alaska.

Miss Waldron, also a niece of Mrs. A. E. Brockway, 2325 Stewart avenue, is active in the Vandenberg Squadron 101 of the California Wing of the CAP and the Senior Girl Scouts at Vandenberg.

For her selection as cadet of the month Miss Waldron was presented a trophy. Recently members of the Senior Girl Scouts were guests of the SAC Aero club and the First Missile division for a tour of the base operation and a ride in one of the club's aircraft.

Mrs. Kessler is a graduate of Medford High school and worked for the Civil Aeronautics administration in Alaska since 1943. Mr. Kessler is employed by the Federal Aviation agency (successor to the CAA). One of the couple's two daughters is married and lives in Alaska, the other is taking nurse's training at Sacred Heart hospital, Eugene.

Prees Leave

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Pree have left for Tucson, Ariz., where they will spend the winter months. The Prees made the trip south with their house trailer and they will live near Mr. and Mrs. Clair Rifenberick, Mrs. Pree's brother and sister-in-law. They plan to be away about three months.

Kaye Frances Christian Wed to Lynn Carl Reitman

Miss Kaye Frances Christian, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Christian, 340 Mae street, became the bride of Lynn Carl Reitman, son of Dr. and Mrs. Max Reitman, Eugene, in a ceremony held December 29 at First Presbyterian church.

Dr. D. Kirkland West and the Rev. John O. Reynolds officiated at the double ring ceremony attended by 60 relatives and friends. White chrysanthemums and candelabra decorated the church for the 8 o'clock evening rites. Otis Swisher was soloist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a ballerina length frock fashioned with fitted white lace bodice and bouffant nylon tulle skirt. The scoop neckline was trimmed with seed pearls and her waist length veil was held by a lace cap. She carried a bouquet of cream colored rosebuds encircling a white orchid.

Miss Sherril Christian was honor attendant for her sister and bridesmaids were Miss Carol Dyke and Miss Sandra Laing. They wore emerald green velvet sheath dresses with matching headbands and carried white fur muffs trimmed with holly.

Clarence Neville, Prospect, served as best man and seating the guests were Robert McNutt, Eugene, and Robert Gewiss.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Christian chose a blue print silk frock with blue and black accessories and a corsage of pink rosebuds. Mrs. Reitman wore a brown silk print with green accessories and her corsage was of yellow roses.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the church. Mrs. Michael Chambers and Miss Billie Woods cut and served the wedding cake. Miss Denise Bruning and Mrs. Floyd Norton presided at the punch bowls. Miss Deanne Reitman, sister of the bridegroom, was in charge of the guest book.

The couple traveled to San Francisco on their wedding trip. For traveling the bride wore a teal blue suit with brown accessories and a white orchid corsage. They are making their home at Corvallis.

The bride attended Medford High school and Southern Oregon college and was employed as a clerk for J. C. Penney company. Mr. Reitman attended South Eugene High school and Southern Oregon college. He will be a student at Oregon State college.

Superintendent To Be Speaker

Dr. Leonard Mayfield, superintendent of Medford Public schools, will report on his trip to Russia at a meeting of Griffin Creek Parent-Teacher association Thursday, January 7, at 8 p.m. in the school cafeteria.

A choral number by a group of students will be presented.

Mothers of Mrs. Judy Hucks' room will serve refreshments. Mrs. Don Bryan and Mrs. Marjorie Martin are in charge.

The PTA rummage sale was reported to have been a big success and those in charge have expressed their thanks for the help of members.

Member to Bake Scones for Club

President Keith Witt of Rogue Valley Coin club announces that the club will meet Monday, January 4, at 8 p.m. at Girls Community club.

As a special treat, R. E. McElhose will bake scones which will be served "hot from the oven" for the membership.

Visitors are welcome to attend.

Woods-Neff Ceremony Held In Girls Community Club

Miss Shirley Neff, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James A. Neff, 2172 West Main street, became the bride of John Woods, son of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Woods, Dexter, Ore., in a ceremony held December 19, at the Girls Community club.

The Rev. Clarence Jackson of the Central Point Pilgrim Holiness church officiated at the seven o'clock evening rites. Baskets of white chrysanthemums and pink carnations decorated the room for the wedding. Miss Juda Carver played the piano and Mrs. Ray Robinson, sister of the bride, was soloist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white satin gown and her fingertip length veil was held by a rhinestone crown. She carried four white and pink cymbidium orchids on a white Bible with streamers knotted with lily of the valley.

Miss Janice Robinson was maid of honor and bridesmaids were Miss Sharon Easton and Miss Lynda Carver. Flower girls were Beckie Carver and Beckie Millard, Roseburg, niece of the bride. They wore pastel taffeta frocks and carried bouquets of pink baby roses and white carnations.

Candelighters were Miss Nancy Robinson and Dennis Robinson.

David McFadden, San Francisco, served as best man and groomsmen were Charles Woods, Dexter, brother of the bridegroom, and Raymond Neff, brother of the bride. Ushers were Kenneth Moulton, Paul Roby and Don Roby.

Master Point Play Announced

The monthly master point play session of the Riverside Duplicate Bridge club will be held Wednesday, January 6, at the Girls Community club.

Mrs. Fred Burich and Mrs. W. W. Stevenson, scoring 95½ points in the north-south position, and Mrs. William Knope and Mrs. Sam Richardson with 101½ points in the east-west position, were first in last Wednesday's play.

Other high scores in the north-south position were won by Mrs. John Dougherty and Mrs. Sam Van Dyke, second, 95; and Mrs. Yvonne Dalen and Mrs. John Hesdorfer, third, 94.

Top scores in the east-west position were won by Berg Marten and E. K. Ricker, second, 93½; and Mrs. Hugh Collins and Mrs. Richer, third, 85.

Mrs. Frank Little To Be Club Hostess

Reames Past Matrons' club will meet at the home of Mrs. Frank Little, 1602 East Jackson boulevard at 12:30 p.m. Monday, January 4.

Luncheon will be served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Helen Conbrook, Mrs. Jack Ward and Mrs. John Smith.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the club. Miss Susan Hurt and Miss Carolyn Breazeale cut and served the wedding cake and Miss Kathy Moulton and Miss Dana Brown presided at the punch bowls. Pouring coffee were Mrs. Earnest Hurt and Miss Kay Frohreich. Miss Claudia Owens was in charge of the guest book.

The couple traveled to Seattle on their wedding trip where they will make their home. For traveling the bride wore a white suit with brown accessories. The bridegroom is serving with the U.S. Navy.

Among the out of town guests were Rodney Millard, Roseburg, brother-in-law of the bride, and Mr. and Mrs. Peter Perkins, Hood River.

which girl has glasses?

BOTH — one wears CONTACTS!

Actually, both pictures are of Dr. Noles' 13-year-old daughter who has worn contact lenses 16 hours a day for the past two years. And... she wears dark green tinted contact lenses for swimming and skiing.

A dramatic illustration of the cosmetic and psychological benefits to be derived from wearing contact lenses.
