

Study Tour Slated For European Cities

A seven-week study tour of eight European countries will start next June 22 and end Aug. 9, it was announced by the Danish international student committee and the general extension division of the Oregon state system of higher education, sponsors of the tour.

The tour will be limited to 30 persons and applications will be accepted in order of receipt. Total cost to each tour member will be $1,320, according to the announcement.

The tour will include Copenhagen, Oslo, Stockholm, Helsinki, Leningrad, Moscow, Warsaw, East and West Berlin and Amsterdam, with termination in London. Members will study social services and observe living conditions in the metropolitan centers visited.

Detailed information and reservation information can be obtained from Mrs. Jennelle Moorhead, general extension division, 1250 Emerald st., Eugene.

Government May Enter Touhy Case

Chicago—UP—The federal government may be asked to enter the search for the ambush killers of prohibition era gangster Roger Touhy.

Walter Miller, 57, the ex-police sergeant who was Touhy's bodyguard and was wounded in the Dec. 16 attack, said Thursday he is sure one of the two gunmen carried a sawed-off shotgun.

Miller's statement could open the search to federal investigators, since federal law bans ownership of any shotgun with a barrel shorter than 18 inches.

Explosion Wrecks Wisconsin Plant

Colby, Wis.—UP—Firemen pried through charred timbers and mangled machinery Friday in search of two men believed killed in the fire and explosion which wrecked the Colby Milling Co.

Arnold Elpert, 42, of Abbotford, and Jess Degner, 55, of rural Colby, were missing and thought buried in the wreckage of the shattered mill.

TWO AIRMEN KILLED

Reykjavik, Iceland—UP—Two U.S. airmen were killed Thursday when their F-89 jet fighter plane crashed near Reykjavik. Names were withheld pending notification of next of kin.
