

Guards Set Up to Curb Vandalism at Jewish Synagogues

Frankfurt, Germany — (UPI) — Neo-Nazis early today painted swastikas and anti-Jewish slogans on four West Berlin buildings and police set up guards around Jewish centers in the city to guard against further vandalism.

The new reports came as Chancellor Konrad Adenauer prepared to meet with his cabinet on Wednesday to discuss the growing wave of anti-Semitism in West Germany. There also were reports the West German Parliament may debate the outbreak soon.

Cuba Postpones Trials of 200 in 'Invasion Plot'

Havana, Cuba — (UPI) — The trials of nearly 200 men in connection with last August's "invasion plot" were postponed without explanation today.

The trials had been scheduled to start this morning in Havana's La Cabana Fortress prison.

But a spokesman for the revolutionary tribunals said they would be delayed. He said the exact dates for their start has not yet been fixed, but probably will be set this week.

Death Demanded

The prosecution had demanded the death penalty for about 20 defendants who landed an airplane in Trinidad, Cuba, and fired on Cuban troops lying in wait for them. The state wants others among the 190 defendants sentenced to prison for 20, 25, or 30 years.

Maj. William Morgan, former Toledo, Ohio, resident who lost his U.S. citizenship last year, was expected to be a key witness for the prosecution.

Double Agent

Morgan acted as a double agent in the invasion, posing as one of its leaders while he kept Premier Fidel Castro's government informed of its progress. Some of the defendants on trial today were arrested in Morgan's home.

The ex-American has charged that Dominican strong man Rafael Trujillo was "directly behind the plot." Cuban broke off relations with the Dominican Republic last year.

TELEVISION BLUES

New York — (UPI) — Every housewife knows how to eliminate the gray look from her laundry. She just adds bluing to the rinse water.

Now, an appliance manufacturer has taken a tip from the homemaker. General Electric added a dash of bluing to the phosphor which coats the inside face of television tubes. It claims the slight blue tint results in a clearer white in the TV picture.

Defaced During Night

Berlin dispatches said the anti-Semitic vandalism took place in downtown West Berlin in the borough of Charlottenburg in the British sector. Buildings were defaced during the night and the "out with the Jews" slogans discovered this morning.

Police paid particular attention to the acts in Berlin because 25 nationalists tried Sunday to rally around a swastika-decorated flag in a park here. Nine were arrested and the rest fled. Today police posted guards around three synagogues, two schools and other similar centers.

The rally was organized by a group calling itself the "National Youth of Germany" and police said many participants were members of the extreme right-wing "German Reich party." Two members of the party touched off the wave of anti-Semitism by daubing a Cologne church on Christmas eve.

There are 7,500 Jews in West Berlin. Before the Nazis came to power there were 180,000.

Daubings Spread

The anti-Semitic campaign, marked by the daubings of swastikas and anti-Jewish slogans on synagogues throughout Germany, also has spread to other West European countries and similar incidents were reported in England, Scotland, Austria, Belgium, Norway, France, Sweden and the United States.

The outbreak was of special concern to West Germany, trying to live down the days of Adolf Hitler when millions of Jews were persecuted, and the government issued a statement Saturday night saying the swastika paintings appeared to be "part of a planned action to defame the federal republic in the eyes of the world."

There was a growing belief the Communist East Germans might be behind the move to defame the Adenauer government. Authorities noted that Paul Schoenen, one of two young men arrested in the Christmas eve desecration of a Cologne church, wore an East German Communist party emblem.

LOST CHILDREN

Washington — (UPI) — Fatal accidents take a yearly toll of about 4,700 children who are past their infancy but not yet of school age, reports the National Office of Vital Statistics.

BLUE TO YELLOW TO WHITE

New York — (UPI) — Bluing is a "cosmetic" which makes yellowed fabrics look white. It does not clean the clothes. This can be done with soap or detergent.

SYNAGOGUE WALL SMEARED — Patrolman Raymond Bonelli uses a chemical in attempt to remove a swastika sign which was found smeared on a wall of Temple Emanu-El Synagogue in New York Sunday. Neo-Nazis today painted swastikas and anti-Jewish slogans on three West Berlin buildings. Similar incidents were reported in England, Scotland, Austria, Norway, Belgium, France and Sweden. —(UPI Telephoto)

Police Check Two Accidents

Ione Frances Bessonette, 14, of 2607 Hillcrest st., received minor injuries as the result of a traffic accident reported to city police Saturday. Two persons were cited for traffic violations as the result of another week end accident, according to police.

Miss Bessonette was a passenger in a vehicle operated by Monica Ann Anderson, 19, of 2607 Eastover dr., which struck a power pole at the intersection of Main st. and Willamette ave., at 9:11 p.m. Saturday.

Mrs. Anderson told city police that she swerved to avoid a dog and lost control of the car on the icy street, striking the pole. Miss Bessonette was taken to the Sacred Heart hospital by the Medford Ambulance service, where she was treated for cuts, according to police.

Both drivers were cited after a two-car collision at the intersection of Lyman ave. and Hillcrest rd. Sunday at 12:45 p.m. Robert Leroy Custance, 16, of 1310 West Main st., was cited for disobeying a stop sign, and Louis Marville Nelson, 53, of 333 Hillhouse ave., was cited for an improper left turn.

Rail Merger Forces Dog to Change Habit

Victoria, Va. — (UPI) — Merging the Norfolk and Western and Virginia Railways has forced a pet dog to change a habit of 12 years.

The dog, a pet of Virginian workers, used to lie between the rails just ahead of the stopping point for locomotives pulling in here to change crews.

But somebody forgot to tell the pooch that trains wouldn't be stopping there any more. The day after the two lines combined an angry worker called N&W General Superintendent W. S. Clement to tell him:

"You've got to do something about our dog. This morning one of your fast freights came through here at 50 miles an hour and nearly killed him."

The pet was tied up after that.

Sniper Slaying Suspect Warily Enters Guilty Plea

Painesville, Ohio — (UPI) — Floyd E. Hargrove, 35, warily pleaded guilty to first degree murder at his arraignment today in the Christmas Eve sniper slaying of scoutmaster Charles Clark, his lover's husband.

The father of five children had to be virtually carried up the stairs to the second floor courtroom in city hall to be arraigned before Municipal Judge Albert Hayer.

Had To Repeat

The laundry truck driver spoke so softly he had to repeat "guilty" three times.

While he was being arraigned, the county prosecutor was asking the grand jury to indict him for first degree murder. The crime carries a penalty of death unless mercy is recommended, automatically imposing a life sentence.

Hargrove appeared crushed, physically and spiritually.

A mental examination is likely for Hargrove, who is accused of standing outside the Clark home in nearby Mentor Christmas Eve and firing through a window, killing Clark as he helped his wife prepare dinner for their four children.

Cleared First Time

Hargrove, who had an eight-month romance with Clark's wife, Lois, a former Miami model, twice confessed to the bizarre murder but was cleared the first time by authorities who gave him a lie detector test.

But he was picked up again at his mother's home in Toledo after police received an anonymous telephone call informing them that Hargrove purchased a .22-caliber rifle the day before the murder.

He confessed again. This plus the fact that a handwriting expert identified Hargrove's handwriting on the sales slip for the rifle and the matching of two bullets led to the murder charge.

Deer and Autos Battle To Draw

Chicago — (UPI) — About 80,000 deer battle it out with the modern automobile every year — to pretty much of a draw.

The monthly magazine Traffic Safety said deer cause an estimated annual property loss of $12 million or more in collisions with cars. Many motorists are injured or killed in the accidents.

On the other hand, last year Pennsylvania reported 12,000 deer killed in collisions, New Jersey and New York more than 5,000, Michigan more than 4,000 and Wisconsin 2,470.

Some tips to save the lives of deer and cut down on auto accidents:

Heed "Danger-Deer Crossing" highway signs.

Remember that a deer's eyes glow like the eyes of dogs, cats and raccoons.

Hit the brakes if a deer dashes into the road in front of you. Others often follow the lead deer.

Switch to low beam and blow the car horn if you spot a deer in the road ahead. Deer are blinded by bright lights. Lowering the headlights will let the animal see which way it wants to go.

OKAYS 'CIVILIZED' SPATS

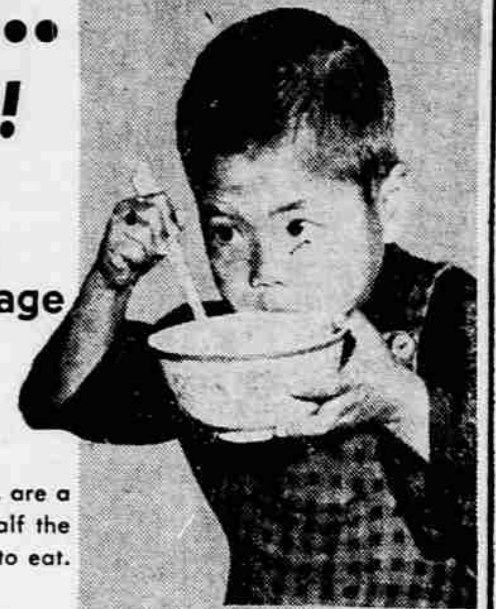

Edinburg, Scotland — (UPI) — It is not a bad thing for children to see their parents quarrel in a civilized way and make up, Dr. D. Stafford-Clark, of London, reported at a meeting of the British Medical association.

"If inoculated with small doses of parental disharmony," he said, "children become immunized and realize that this kind of thing can happen in marriage."

The United States produces more than three-fourths of the cow hides required each year by the domestic leather industry and also the related leather trade industries.
