

Tentative Angling Rules Released by Commission

Portland, Ore. — (UPI) — Several sweeping changes for anglers will be in effect if the tentative 1960 angling regulations are adopted by the Oregon State Game commission Jan. 22. The tentative regulations were released Saturday night after an all-day hearing Friday.

The general trout season opener was scheduled April 23 extending through October 31 except in zones 1, 3 and 4 which take in all coastal streams, the Rogue and Umpqua rivers.

The high lakes within National forest boundaries in the Cascade range were scheduled from May 21 with closing date set at Oct. 9.

In the Rogue and Umpqua drainages, the early trout opening in the headwaters was eliminated and opening date set for both systems to coincide with the general coastal stream opening on May 28. On the Umpqua the general trout season would run through Oct. 31, except in that section of the north Umpqua between Steamboat Falls and Soda Springs dam where the season would close on Sept. 5.

However, the commission moved the 8 inch limit on trout downstream from the forks to the confluence of Elk creek, opening up a considerable portion of the river where six inch trout would be legal.

On the Rogue river the general trout season would extend from May 28 through Oct. 2 with open waters and length restrictions unchanged from last year. Winter regulations would begin on Oct. 3 for trout not less than 12 inches in length.

All salmon on the Rogue would be regulated the same with the season above Mule creek scheduled from March 26 through June 30 and below Mule creek from March 26 through Nov. 30. Fish lake in the Rogue drainage was scheduled to open April 23 and close on Oct. 9.

In some other changes the Game commission extended the winter steelhead season on all coast streams in zone 1 through the entire month of March. Also night angling for warm water game fish will be permitted except in the main stem of the Rogue river.

Added protection also was given to spring and summer runs of salmon and steelhead in the Rogue and Umpqua drainages and Big Cultus lake would be opened to early trout angling along with Wickiup, Odell, Suttle and others to give anglers a chance at taking Kokanee and lake trout during the early season.

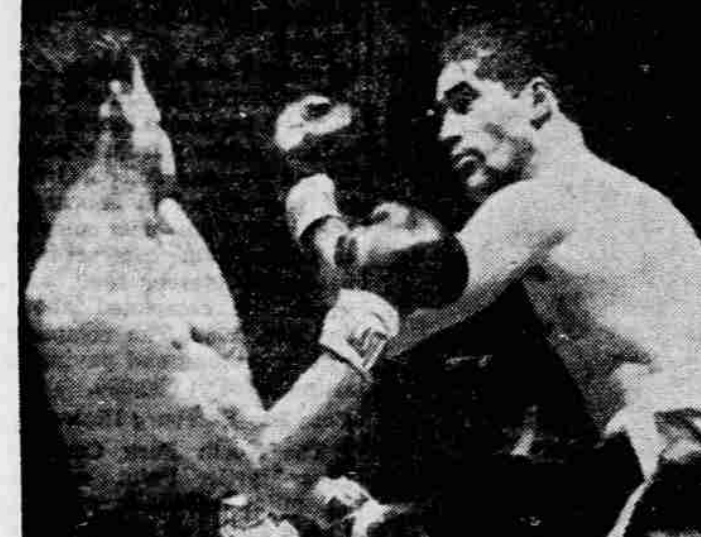

The commission opened Coos Bay to year around salmon angling, along with Tillamook Bay and other bays where spring run salmon warranted an opening.

Portland — (UPI) — Sportsmen's groups from various parts of Oregon crowded into the offices of the state game commission here Friday for a hearing on 1960 sports fishing regulations.

HILDEBRAND NAMED
Winston Salem, N.C. — (UPI) — Billy Hildebrand, a three-year contract as head football coach at Wake Forest tucked neatly away, said he is optimistic about prospects for the 1960 season and anxious to get started in his new job. "I have been preparing for this all along," Hildebrand said after the board of trustees of the Baptist school approved him as coach Paul Amen's replacement. Amen resigned earlier this week to take a job with a local bank.

MEETING POSTPONED
Meeting of the Siskiyou Sports Car club, which had been planned for today, has been postponed. The club will meet later this month or early in February. Club officials said that films expected had not arrived.

Red Raiders 62-59 Winners Over EOC

La Grande — Gordon Carrigan recorded six points in the last minute of play here Friday night to enable the Southern Oregon college basketball team to nose Eastern Oregon 62 to 59 in an Oregon Collegiate conference 1960 start.

A Carrigan field basket with 54 seconds left gave SOC a 58 to 57 edge. He added four more markers on free shots before time ran out.

Eastern Oregon wiped away a 38 to 26 Raider halftime lead to turn the game into a nip and tuck hassle. Pasco Arritola hit from the field with six minutes to play to tie the tussle at 47-47 and he followed with another for 49 to 47 Mountaineer margin.

Dick Smith tied up the scramble for the Red Raiders but Bob Olinger's bucket made it 41 to 49 for EOC. John Payne of SOC and Arritola of the Mounties traded goals and Tom Bernert of the Ashlanders brought the game to 53-47 with three minutes to play.

Lead Switches
A free shot by Carrigan gave SOC a 54 to 53 lead but a Frank Chase fielder put Eastern ahead 55 to 54. Smith's tip-in when Carrigan missed a free throw took the score to 56 to 55 for the Raiders. Chase tallied again for 57 to 56 for the home team. Carrigan followed with his counters and Arritola got a final bucket for the Mountaineers.

John Payne with 16 points and Carrigan with 15 were high score men for SOC. Arritola had 16 and Chase 15 for the Mounties. Payne with 11 rebounds and Don Varnice and Carrigan with nine each led the Raiders in the 47 to 26 rebounding domination of the short EOC club.

Payne made six of his first seven field goal tries and had 14 points in the first 14 minutes of the first half.

SOC took its first half lead after coming from behind to tie up the mix at 17-11.

ERMER ROBINSON
Excels With Push Shot

Globetrotters' Ace Receives 'Old Pro' Tag by Teammates

The "Old Pro" of the Harlem Globetrotters basketball team will be here against the San Francisco All-Nations court quintet on Jan. 21 at Hedrick Junior High school.

He's Ermer Robinson, a great all-around player and said to be one of the best shots basketball has ever known. The six foot, two inch forward is in his 14th season with the Trotters and already is established as an all-time, all-star Globetrotter.

The one-hand push shot artist started his career as a prep star in San Diego, Calif., and gained national recognition with Fort Warren's basketball team while in the service during World War II. During that time he set a national tournament scoring record at Denver.

After military service Robinson immediately became a Globetrotter and recently was elevated to assistant coach by Owner-Coach Abe Saperstein.

Since he's at his best when the pressure is on, his teammates have dubbed him the "Old Pro." Not only is Robinson a sharp player but he excels in comedy roles which have made the Trotters famous around the world.

Tickets for the program, which also features a five-act variety show by professional entertainers at halftime, are on sale at Lamport's Sporting Goods store in Medford.

Are you staking your safety on "WASHBOARD BRAKES?"

"Washboard Brakes" can rob you of 40% of your stopping power... cause you to kill or be killed in every driver. This dangerous condition is caused by normal uneven wear and deep scoring on brake drum surface which prevents 100% contact between lining and drum.

For your own safety and economy, let us check your brakes every 5000 miles. We can resurface "washboard" finish brake drums with our Amco SAFE-TURN Brake Drum Lathe. You'll get 100% contact between brake lining and brake drum, for safer, smoother stops... more miles from your lining. Come in today for a safety brake check-up!
