

Local and Personal

Returns - L. Keith Walker, 4720 South Pacific highway, Medford, recently returned from Billings, Mont., where he attended the Western College of Auctioneering, division of Rocky Mountain college. He was graduated with the December class, receiving a certificate of auctioneering in livestock, furniture, antiques, objects of art, farm equipment and real estate.

Arrested - Philip Charles Stevens, 18, of 98 Freeman rd., Central Point, was arrested by city police at 1:30 a.m. Saturday, on a charge of illegal possession of alcoholic beverages. The youth was released to his father on $35 bail.

Robbed - Willard Nelson Inlow, 2811 North Pacific highway, told city police that he was robbed of about $8 during a fight Thursday night with two men in a rest room at the Medford Bowling Lanes, 821 North Riverside Ave.

Burglaries - Two burglaries were reported to city police, both occurring Friday night or Saturday morning. Burglars broke into a garage at the Wilson-McCabe Distributing Co., 301 North Fir st., but police said they apparently did not take anything. The second burglary was at the Merchants Wholesale Supply Co., 300 North Fir st., where the burglars entered the building through a window, according to police. They apparently took only 75c in change from a coin box in the building, police said. The two burglaries may have been committed by the same persons, according to police.

HORN BROOK Man Hurt in Wreck

By KATHERINE CHAPMAN
Hornbrook - John Griffin, 69, received a black eye and a cut on his head requiring six stitches in a jeep-auto accident last Sunday on the Copco road opposite Kenneth Houston's place.

Griffin was a passenger in a jeep driven by Lawrence Breceda, 62, when it was struck in the front end by a pickup truck driven by Joe F. Leoni, 39. According to California Highway patrolmen investigating the accident, Breceda had stopped his jeep while going east on the Copco road to permit the oncoming truck to pass on a sloping curve.

Leoni apparently applied his brakes on the snow-packed road, locking his wheels and skidding into the jeep. Both vehicles received moderate damage.

Griffin was the only one injured. He also suffered the loss of his hearing aid glasses. All three men are from Hornbrook and all are good friends.

Two youngsters in the community were taken suddenly ill during the holidays. Gary Rue of Seiad valley was stricken Dec. 29 while here visiting his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Gosney. He was taken to Siskiyou General hospital in Yreka, and later transferred to Sacred Heart hospital in Medford. His condition had improved enough for him to be returned home Jan. 5.

Also in Sacred Heart hospital in Medford is Jeannie Cardoza, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cardoza. She, too, was taken to Siskiyou General hospital, and when she failed to respond satisfactorily to treatment after a week was moved to Medford.

Word has been received here that Mrs. Mary Shinar, 87, is a patient in Ashland General hospital. She has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Emma Kinney, at Oleno, Ore.

Mrs. Emory Parshall is recovering at Siskiyou General hospital after undergoing surgery Dec. 27 for a broken hip received in a fall at her home Dec. 23. She expects to be in the hospital about two more weeks. The Parshalls' son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Parshall, arrived recently from Hermiston, Ore., to help out at home while his mother is convalescing.

Overnight New Year's Eve visitors at the Frank Bear home were Mrs. Bear's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. William Klontz, of Abotsford, B. C., Canada. The Klontzes, with their house-trailer, were on their annual trip to Palm Springs where they spend their winters.

Mr. and Mrs. Harley Baker and daughter Karen moved last week end to the ranch on Ditch creek formerly owned by Mr. and Mrs. Allen Jersperson. The Jerspersons left in December to make their home in Bakersfield, Calif. Their ranch was sold to Robert Larson, Palo Alto, Calif. Larson, a United Airlines pilot, and his wife and son plan to take possession of the ranch when he retires from the airline in two years.

Returning home Jan. 3 after a 4-day visit with Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Madison and son Larry were Mr. and Mrs. Ted Stark and twin sons Dick and Bob, Richmond, Calif., and Mrs. Bea Young, Fremont, Calif. Mrs. Stark and Mrs. Madison are sisters.

Overnight visitors Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Reese and sons George and Gene were Reese's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Carrey from Los Angeles. Calling Monday on the Reeses were his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Reese, of Dorris. Other recent visitors at the Reese home were Mrs. Reese's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Jesus Chairez Jr. and daughter La Risa of Alton, Calif.

Mrs. Mollie Cole returned last week from San Carlos, Calif., where she spent several days with her daughters, Mrs. Marshall Seagraves and Mrs. Helen Clark.

Val Bradley was a recent overnight guest at the home of his grandmother, Mrs. Berna Bradley. He was en route from his home in Tacoma, Wash., to Napa, Calif., to visit

Elks Lodge Will Sponsor Circus Appearance Here

The Medford Elks lodge will sponsor two performances of Ken Jensen's 20-act circus at Hedrick Junior High school March 28, William E. Ruck, exalted ruler, has announced.

Ruck said an advance ticket sale campaign is under way in the area, and added that this year, the Elks will make "every effort to see that all underprivileged children from the county will get to see the show."

Children are being contacted through the county welfare department, the Junior Service League's kindergarten for hope of hearing, the City of Hope pilot school here and through the county health department.

Two Shows Listed
They will attend the 4 p.m. show March 28, Ruck said. The second performance is scheduled to start at 8 p.m. that day.

Included in the circus is one of the comparatively new acts in the circus world - that of Uncle Heavy and the Pork Chop Revue, in which five pigs with an average weight of 200 pounds will perform.

Other acts include Erik Adam's chimpanzees, the Escalanti troupe on the aerial bars which formerly was featured in Ringling Brothers, and Tonya, the baby elephant.

Ruck said that underprivileged children who are not under the supervision of one of the public agencies may contact the Elks club for tickets to the circus.

Obituaries

CLELL MCCREDIE
Clell H. McCredie, former Medford resident, died in Los Angeles, Calif., Jan. 6.

He was born in Medford, a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. William McCredie. He attended Medford public schools and the University of California. His wife, Ann, preceded him in death. Survivors include a son, William McCredie, Albany, Ore.; three grandchildren; one brother, Clatous McCredie, Medford; two sisters, Mrs. Veris Ender, Ashland, and Mrs. Velma Lull, Medford, all of whom are in Los Angeles for funeral services.

Services will be held at Forest Lawn in the Wee Kirk of the Heather chapel at 2:30 p.m. Tuesday, Jan. 12.

SUSIE A. THOMPSON
Ashland - Mrs. Susie A. (Fleming) Thompson, 84, resident of Ashland from 1935 to 1958, died Jan. 8 in Prineville, Ore. She was born Dec. 26, 1875, in Oshkosh, Wis.

Mrs. Thompson was the widow of Frank Emerson Thompson, who died several years ago in Ashland. She is survived by three daughters, Mrs. Lucile Edwards, Prineville; Mrs. Alice Wilson, Anchorage, Alaska; Mrs. Mae Doescher, LaGrande, Ore.; one son, Frank C. Thompson, Ashland; seven grandchildren and two great grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held Monday, Jan. 11, at 10:30 a.m. in Litwiller's Mountain View chapel with the Alpha chapter, Order of Eastern Star and the Rev. B. J. Holland of the First Presbyterian church, conducting the service. Cremation will follow.

Friends may contribute to the ESTARL fund of the Order of Eastern Star.

MRS. JEAN COOK
Mrs. Jean Cook, longtime Shady Cove and Medford resident, died Jan. 6 in Mesa, Ariz., of a heart attack. Funeral services were scheduled

GETS TICKETS—Four-year-old Janice Larson, a pupil at the Junior Service League's kindergarten, receives a ticket to the Ken Jensen circus from William Ruck, exalted ruler of the Medford Elks temple. The circus, which is being sponsored here by the Elks, will be presented at Hedrick Junior High school in March. The Elks lodge is providing tickets for children in organizations such as the Junior Service League kindergarten.

Council on Aging To Meet Thursday

The Rogue Valley Council on Aging will meet at 3 p.m. Thursday, Jan. 14, in the auditorium of the Red Cross building, 60 Hawthorne ave., instead of the regular meeting date this month, Frank Glonning, chairman, has announced.

A nominating committee consisting of Mrs. Chester Guch, Robert Haworth, William Hoxie, Edward Jacobson and Col. C. L. Williams will report on a slate of officers and directors for the new year. Officers will be elected at the annual meeting in February.

Receive Invitations
The Rogue Valley Council has received invitations to send delegates to the district conference in Eugene Jan. 21 and to a regional conference in San Francisco sponsored by the American Medical Association and the state medical societies of Oregon, California and Washington.

Activities at the Senior Activity Center will resume tomorrow with the arm chair travel group meeting at 1 p.m. Dr. Jouett Bray will show slides of Japan. Travel film showings will be scheduled each Monday. Dr. Frank Roberts, who is in charge of the films, has announced.

The painting class will resume Tuesday, Jan. 19, and the woodcarving class will continue meeting each Wednesday at 1 p.m. Starting Thursday, Jan. 14, the Spanish class will meet at 10 a.m. instead of 9 a.m. and will meet until noon.

The orchestra will meet Thursday afternoons at 1 p.m. instead of during the morning. The noon hour can be used for reading, games, music or visiting. A hostess is on duty each day at the Center.

Newcomers to the area are invited to participate in activities at the center, council officials said. The center is closed Friday because of the regular meeting date of the 50 Plus club of Medford in the Episcopal Guild hall on North Oakdale ave. between 12:30 and 4 p.m.
