

Last Installment on Tax Is Due on Jan. 15

Portland - The deadline for paying the last installment on estimated federal income tax returns for 1959 is Friday, Jan. 15. A. G. Erickson, director of internal revenue in Oregon, has reminded taxpayers.

Taxpayers who filed an estimated return and have a payment due Jan. 15 should have received a notice, he added.

An amended declaration should be filed Jan. 15 if the taxpayer who previously filed an estimated return had experienced events in the last quarter of 1959 to indicate that the income will be substantially more or less than the original estimate, Erickson said.

If the taxpayer finds it necessary to file an amended declaration Jan. 15, or if he becomes liable for filing a declaration for the first time Jan. 15, the taxpayer need not file or pay on that date if he files his final return for 1959 and pays it in full on or before Feb. 1, he said.

Farmers Exception

Another exception to the provision relates to farmers, who have until Jan. 15 to file their estimated federal income tax return unless they plan to file their final return on or before Feb. 15.

Erickson pointed out that farmers who file an estimated return Jan. 15 and pay the tax have until April 15 to file a final return and pay the balance. Otherwise, the farmer has to file his final return and pay the full amount by Feb. 15.

Additional information concerning income taxes may be obtained from the internal revenue service office in the area, Erickson said. In Medford the office is located in the federal building at 33 North Riverside ave.

Portland Guild Members Answer Charges by Local

Portland - UPP - Eighteen members of the Portland newspaper strike have replied to charges raised by the Portland local.

Members who returned to work were told last week that charges had been brought against them alleging "violations of a specific article of the American Newspaper Guild's constitution."

The returning Guildsmen said that the Guild local in voting to observe picket lines of the Stereotypers Union "and by subsequent actions in supporting the strike when the Guild had no dispute with management, violated its contract and put in jeopardy the gains made in... the past 20 years."

Letter Written

They said in a letter to the Portland Newspaper Guild Trial board that guildsmen who returned to work felt they could not in good faith "continue a dishonest action even though it was led by the Guild's officers and supported by a majority of the membership."

Robert Shults, president of the Portland Newspaper Guild, said the specific charge was "failing to honor a majority decision of the fellow

Lewis To Quit Post Thursday

Washington - UPP - John L. Lewis will step down next Thursday as United Mine Workers president.

Lewis announced last month that he would end his turbulent career as head of the miners' union by resigning early this year. Thomas Kennedy, UMW vice president, will succeed him.

Lewis' intentions became known when it was learned he had called members of the union's executive board to meet next Thursday. Lewis normally would offer his resignation to this group.
