

HORN BROOK Couple Tours Globe

By KATHERINE CHAPMAN
Hornbrook - Friends here have been receiving cards from Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Jacobs from the various places they are visiting on their world tour. Latest word placed them at Genoa, Italy, on New Year's day, and at Milan, Italy, the next day. In Milan they were to attend the opera at La Scala the evening of Jan. 2. They were to leave Jan. 3 for Switzerland and Germany and, after touring other European countries were to go on next to the Mediterranean area where they will visit in Jordan and Egypt. The Jacobses sailed Nov. 28 from San Francisco on the Italian motor ship Alessandro Volta which took them as far as Italy. The remainder of their 6-month trip will be made on other freighters, as well as by plane and train. Jacobs wrote his friends that both he and his wife "proved to be good sailors on their 31-day sea voyage" from San Francisco to Italy.

Mrs. Evva Gandy arrived Friday evening from Eugene and stayed the week end with her sister, Mrs. Zela Elmore. She came down at this time to attend the funeral on Monday of William Gott, 77, who passed away Jan. 7 at Clear Lake Highlands. Gott was a brother-in-law of Mrs. Gandy and Mrs. Elmore. He was born at Gottville on the Klamath river, and was the son of William N. Gott, for whom the little community was named. Funeral services for Mr. Gott were held at Girdner's funeral chapel in Yreka, with burial in the family plot in the Henley-Hornbrook cemetery. Mrs. Elmore's sons, Floyd and Ardon Burns of Hornbrook, were two of the pallbearers. Mrs. Gandy planned to return to Eugene Monday evening.

Notes have been received by friends here telling them of the marriage Dec. 31 of Mrs. Nellie Griffiths and Mr. James Nicholas Wilmarth of Yreka. Mr. and Mrs. Griffiths and children Peter and Graciella were Hornbrook residents when the children were small, living on the place now owned by Paul and Edith Greene. A few years after selling their place here and moving to Montague, Mr. Griffiths passed away. Peter is now a student at Yreka High school, and Graciella is attending Chico State college. She recently spent a year studying in Spain and living with relatives there, and both children and their mother had an extended vacation with relatives in Mexico a short while ago. The new Mr. and Mrs. Wilmarth live at 811 Oak st., Yreka.

The Contract Bridge club met for the first time this year on Jan. 5 at the home of Mrs. Bertha Bradley. Making up the two tables, following a dessert luncheon, were Mrs. Grace Quigley, Mrs. Dwain Hamner, Mrs. Lester Nye, Mrs. Fred Mills, Mrs. Ivon Howard, Mrs. Ed Smith and Mrs. Frank Ohlund of Yreka.

Mr. and Mrs. Ivon Howard gave a dinner Friday evening at their home honoring the Jan. 10 birthday of their daughter, Mrs. Loren Cummings. Also attending were the honored guest's husband and their two children, Loren Howard and Jennifer; Mr. and Mrs. Rob Cummings, and Mr. and Mrs. Henley Clawson.

Another birthday dinner, also given on Friday, was at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Shinar, who observed the birthday of their son Skip. Guests included Skip's brother Harvey; Mrs. Ida Sloan and son, Lennard; Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Elmore and children Johnny and Gerry.

Overnight guests Jan. 4 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Lockwood were Mr. and Mrs. William Bigelow, Grants Pass. The Bigelows, with their house trailer, were en route to the desert for the winter. Glen and Rex Cozzalio, Yreka, spent last week end on the ranch here with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. (Slim) Protsman. The Cozzalios moved last year from Hornbrook to Yreka, where the boy's father, Mel, is a deputy sheriff, and their mother, Jan, is a teacher in Yreka High school.

Mrs. John Rosenberg arrived in Medford by plane Jan. 6 from the Chicago area where she had gone to visit her son and daughter-in-law, Cpl. and Mrs. Willis Jones at Ft. Sheridan, Ill., and to meet her first grandchild, Phillip Ray, born Dec. 7. Mr. Rosenberg drove to Medford to meet his wife and bring her home. The baby's mother is the former Miss Donna Beau of Ashland.

Mr. and Mrs. William Wiley returned last week from a vacation in Sacramento with their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Russell and their two children. They spent New Year's in the Bay area, and also attended the East-West Shrine game in San Francisco Jan. 2.

Grandma (Mrs. Mary) Shinar, 87, returned home Thursday from Ashland General hospital where she had been a patient for several days. She was stricken at her home here and was taken to the hospital by a daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. P. G. Riess. Mrs. Emma Kinney, another daughter, is here now, caring for her mother. Mrs. Kinney lives in Olene, Ore.

Mrs. Grace Doolittle, 89, is a patient at the Siskiyou General hospital, Yreka. Her son and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. "Spiid" Doolittle, Eureka, came over Friday and finding her ill, took her into town.

Also a patient at the same hospital is Mrs. Louise Slagle, who was taken to the hospital twice last week after suffering two falls at her home in the Henley district.

Mr. and Mrs. Dudley Killingsworth were dinner guests Sunday at the home of their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. "Pat" Killingsworth and two children, in Hills. The dinner was given to honor the birthday of Mrs. Naomi Owens, Yreka, mother of Mrs. "Pat" Killingsworth. New Year's Eve, the Dudley Killingsworth's were among the 200 friends who attended the open house at the Al Sherman home in Yreka. The event was given by the Shermans to honor their two sons and daughter, who, with their families, were home for the holidays. A daughter of the Killingsworth's is married to Bill Sherman, who plays with the Los Angeles Rams professional football team. Their home is in Burbank, Calif. They have four children, David, Doug, Paul and Cindy.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Martin returned Jan. 2 from a vacation in Alhambra, Calif. with their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. William Martin and their children, Scott and Lynn. Part of the visit was spent with Mrs. Martin's sister, Mrs. Edwin Kelly in the same city, and visits to friends in Covina and San Gabriel were included in their trip. Mrs. Martin is the teacher of the first and second grades in the local grammar school.

Visitors Sunday at the "Petie" Fisher home were Mr. and Mrs. Ed Sylvia, Montague, who were dinner guests, and Mr. and Mrs. George Mott, also of Montague, who came over for the afternoon. Mott and Fisher made a 3-day business trip to Portland last week, returning Jan. 9.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Greene and granddaughters, Linda and Lydia Greene spent New Year's in Big Springs with a son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. David Mallow and children.

Recent overnight guests of Mr. and Mrs. "Ike" Dooley and sons were Mrs. Dooley's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Crouch and children Susan, Jerry and Sandra, Redding. On Saturday members of the Dooley family were dinner guests in Montague at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Hagedorn.

Den 1 of Cub Scout troop 38 met Jan. 4 at the home of Den Mother Mrs. "Ike" Dooley. The boys told what they did during their vacation. One new member, Larry Madison, was taken into the den. Larry observed his eighth birthday Jan. 2, and lost no time in becoming a Cub Scout. Several of Larry's friends helped him celebrate by attending a birthday party at his home. Present were Megan Kutzy, Shirley Wayne, Marsha Bennett, Terry King, Rusty and Jackie Smith, Mike Chadwick, Frankie Cardoza, Gary Ramos, San Jose, Calif., a guest of Frankie's, and Larry's cousins, Dick and Bob Stark, Richmond, who were visiting here.

Jeannie Cardoza, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cardoza, returned home last week after being a patient for two weeks at both the Siskiyou General hospital, Yreka, and Sacred Heart hospital, Medford. Jeannie has recovered enough that she planned to return to classes at the local grammar school Jan. 11.

Mrs. George Reese entertained the Coffee club at her home Wednesday. Because of so much illness in the community, only four members were able to be present. They were Mrs. "Ike" Dooley, Mrs. George Smith, Mrs. Andrew (Buck) Skeahan and the hostess.

Mrs. Dwain Hamner and Mrs. Tom Watt attended a luncheon meeting Jan. 9 at the Lamplighter cafe in Mt. Shasta for members of the Line Officers club of the Order of the Eastern Star. All OES chapters in the district

DEMOCRATS AT WORK
Atlanta - (UPI) - Wealthy lawyer Henry Alexander twice recently erected an 18-foot, $300 billboard at the edge of his 51-acre estate. Both times the sign that urged southerners to vote Republican was sawed in half by vandals. The exasperated lawyer said today he preferred to keep quiet about any future plans for the billboard.

were represented at the meeting. At recent installation ceremonies, Mrs. Watt took office as conductress, and Mrs. Hamner as associate conductress of Stella Chapter 39, OES, Yreka.

Mrs. Al Kutzy spent several days in Portland last week visiting her mother, Mrs. V. W. Bailey, who has been ill and recovering from surgery.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Spearin, Dunsuir, were Sunday visitors here at the home of Postmaster and Mrs. Wayne Cummins. Spearin is a brother of Mrs. Cummins.

Woman Arrested For Soliciting

A woman picked the wrong man when she tried to solicit Deputy Joseph Francis Walsh Sr., of the Jackson county sheriff's office Monday night, according to city police. City police arrested Mofadean Burehell, 33, transient, on a charge of soliciting, and a male companion, Warren Harding Freeman, 36, transient, on a charge of vagrancy after they received a call from Deputy Walsh that a woman had tried to solicit him in the Bohemian club, 101 West Main st.

Mofadean Burehell first admitted to city police that she had tried to solicit Walsh for $10, then denied it, according to police reports. Both were confined to the county jail.

Grange News

Central Point Grange
The Central Point Grange will meet Friday, Jan. 15. The lecturer's program will begin at 8 p.m. and is open to the public. Mrs. Henry Padgham, a member of the Jackson County Welfare commission, and Edward Kelly, judge of the Jackson county circuit court, will discuss "The Need for Family Counseling." This is an opportunity for Grangers and people of the community to understand the situation in Jackson county.

Grangers are urged to attend the meeting, because new officers are taking over, and the secretary reminds all members that dues are payable at this time.

Chessman Renews Bid for Freedom

San Francisco - (UPI) - Caryl Chessman, scheduled to die in the San Quentin gas chamber Feb. 19, made another bid for a stay of execution Tuesday - just 24 hours after the U. S. Supreme Court denied an appeal by the convicted author for the 14th time. Attorney George T. Davis filed the latest petition with U.S. District Judge Louis E. Goodman. Arguments will be heard Jan. 18 on the petition, which asked Goodman to declare that a five-year-old order halting the kidnap-rapist's execution was still in effect.
