

Program On Russia Set For Center

Mrs. Mabel Hundley, retired teacher, will show colored slides of Russia at the Monday afternoon session of the Arm Chair Travel group at the Senior Activity Center. Mrs. Hundley will also describe her experiences traveling through the country.

The showing will start at 1 p.m. and newcomers to the valley over 50 years of age are invited to meet with this group as well as participate in other activities at the Center, 601 East Jackson street.

The center is open four afternoons a week, Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday and Thursday morning when a Spanish class is held from 10 to 12 noon. Other morning classes are planned when volunteer teachers can be obtained.

Tuesday, January 19, the painting class will start meeting again from 1 to 3 p.m. weekly. This class will be a co-operative workshop with different teachers of art giving instruction and demonstrations of different techniques each week.

Mrs. Nettie Williams, former teacher of the group, will start the series and be in charge of the class Tuesday. Members are asked to take their own materials.

New members or any one interested in joining the workshop are invited to attend. Some equipment and oils are available for free use of beginners. There are no charges as all activities at the center are free to all men and women over 50 years of age.

All classes at the center are kept informal and new members are welcome any time. The woodcarving group, which meets each Wednesday under the direction of Glenn Van Winkle, is now working on totem poles.

The orchestra, directed by Edward Root, meets Thursday afternoons at 1 p.m. New musicians are welcome and more string instruments are needed, it was reported.

Medford Group To Attend Frolic

A group of Medford members of Alpha Lambda chapter, Epalton Sigma Alpha society will join the Grants Pass Alpha Iota chapter Monday, January 18, for their January fun frolic.

At a recent meeting of the chapter at the home of Mrs. Scott Young, 2620 Crater Lake avenue, Mrs. Chester Peterson was nominated for the office of state treasurer and Mrs. Lyman Smith for state second vice president.

Mrs. B. H. Gilbert, president, gave a report on the Christmas project "Have Santa-Will Travel." She thanked the members for their participation and it was decided to continue the project yearly. A record player was donated by the chapter to the School of Hope for mentally retarded children and a Christmas basket of food was delivered to a needy family. It was noted that the chapter also donates annually to the Children's Hospital school in Eugene.

The next meeting will be an educational session at the home of Mrs. Wylie Macpherson, 441 Highland drive.

Hostesses for the last meeting were Mrs. W. H. Fischer and Mrs. Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. Merle George Governor

Our Lady of Fatima Church Scene of Wedding Service

Trail - Miss Jean Ann Morgan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Fred Morgan, Trail, became the bride of Merle George Governor, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Governor, Prospect, in a ceremony held December 26 at Our Lady of Fatima Catholic church, Shady Cove.

The Rev. William McLeod of Sacred Heart Catholic church officiated at the 10 o'clock morning nuptial mass attended by 100 relatives and friends.

Poinsettias and white and red carnations decorated the church.

The bride, escorted to the altar by her father, wore a white lace over taffeta gown and carried white carnations and red roses.

Mrs. Louis Stevenson was matron of honor and bridesmaids were Miss Marian Governor, both Prospect, sisters of the bridegroom; and Miss Delberta Spain, Shady Cove. Little Terry Lynn Goodman, Eagle Point, was flower girl for her aunt. Mrs. Stevenson wore a light blue lace frock over taffeta with white gardenias. Miss Governor's frock was pink chiffon and Miss Spain wore turquoise chiffon over matching taffeta. They carried white baby chrysanthemums.

The flower girl wore a yellow nylon frock and carried a basket of white chrysanthemums and yellow daisies.

Warren Governor, Klamath Falls, served as best man for his brother and seating the guests were Don Andresen and Vern Struck, cousin of the bridegroom. Both are from Prospect.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the parish hall of the church. Mrs. Walter Cross, Shady Cove, cut and served the wedding cake and Mrs. Pearl Adair, Shady Cove, poured the punch. Miss Kathi Meyer, Shady Cove, was in charge of the guest book, and Miss Janet Karjala and Miss Lois Governor were at the gift tables.

For her daughter's wedding and reception Mrs. Morgan wore a turquoise knit suit with gardenia corsage. Mrs. Governor was unable to attend due to illness.

The couple traveled to points in California and Nevada and are now making their home in Trail. For traveling the bride wore a white and green ensemble and a red rose and white carnation corsage.

The bride attended Elk-

Couple Wed In Ceremony Held Here

Miss Kristin E. Christenson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl J. Christenson, Canoga Park, Calif., became the bride of Richard I. Hall, son of Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Hall, 255 Debarre avenue, in a ceremony December 24 in Medford Friends church.

The Rev. John O. Reynolds of Westminster Presbyterian church performed the double-ring ceremony at 7 o'clock Christmas eve. Baskets of white stock, red carnations and poinsettias decorated the church. Mrs. Opal Findley was at the organ.

The bride wore a ballerina-length dress of white Chantilly lace over satin, designed with three-quarter length sleeves and a scoop neckline. Her veil was shoulder-length. She also wore a pearl necklace and matching earrings, gifts from the bridegroom, and carried white rosebuds centered with baby red rosebuds.

The ivory cuff links worn by the bridegroom had belonged to the bride's grandfather and were over 80 years old.

Mrs. Harvey Tonn, McMinnville, was matron of honor. She wore a dress of pink chiffon over taffeta with matching veil and shoes. She carried white rosebuds with a red baby rosebud center.

The bridegroom's mother chose a green figured suit for the wedding.

James B. Crumley served as best man.

A reception for the newlyweds was given at the home of the bridegroom's parents following the ceremony. The 100 wedding guests attended.

Mrs. Don Allen, sister of the bridegroom, cut the wedding cake. Miss Jerry Wick was at the punch bowl and Miss Penny Martin poured coffee.

The bridegroom's aunt, Mrs. Walter Carr, had charge of the guest book.

The young couple traveled to northern Washington on their wedding trip, the bride wearing for travelling a lavender and grey plaid suit. While north they visited Mrs. G. Watkinson, grandmother of the bride, and Woodrow Watkinson, uncle of the bride, at Burlington, Wash., and Mr. and Mrs. John Hoines, brother-in-law and sister of the bride, East Stanwood, Wash.

The bride was graduated from Medford High school in 1958. The bridegroom was graduated from Crater High school in 1957 and is employed by Fir-Ply, Inc. They are making their home at 10 Laurel street.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard I. Hall

Sojourner Ceremony Held Thursday at Girls' Club

Mrs. Dwight C. Crosier, installed newly elected officers of Sojourners during a meeting Thursday at the Girls Community club.

Installed were Mrs. Dee Wood, president; Mrs. Elmer Ness, first vice-president; Mrs. Evelyn Hendricks, second vice-president; Mrs. Charles Swenson, secretary and Mrs. H. F. Griffiths, treasurer.

Mrs. Wood appointed as chairmen Mrs. M. L. Nelson, publicity; Mrs. Fred Beyer, hospitality and Mrs. John Poage, remembrance.

Purple orchid corsages were presented to Mrs. Wood and the retiring president, Mrs. Walter Marquess.

The luncheon table was centered with winter greenery flanked by glass candelabra holding six green candles.

Hostesses for the meeting were Mrs. Ronald Hale, Mrs. Henry Miller and Mrs. Theodore O. Thompson.

Prospective members attending for the first time were Mrs. Fred Gross, Mrs. Marvin Slavens, Mrs. James Hagerty, Mrs. Raymond Vaughan and Mrs. Roland Howard.

All interested women are invited to attend.

During the afternoon cards were played and prizes were given to Mrs. Crosier and Mrs. Swenson for bridge; Mrs. Edwin Carnell and Mrs. Earl Nauretz, pinochle, Mrs. Ralph C. Jones and Mrs. John Mansfield, canasta, Mrs. Berrill Morey received a special award.

The next meeting of the club will be held at the Girls Community club January 28 at 12:30. An invitation is extended to all women who have lived in Medford and vicinity less than two years.

WCTU Worker To Speak Here

Mrs. Robert Bridge, worker in Women's Christian Temperance Union in several states, will speak on the legislative program as viewed from national, state and local levels at the Thursday, January 21, meeting of the WCTU at the Girls Community club.

Mrs. Cecil Hiser will give the devotions and the Rev. G. Robert Jacks of the First Presbyterian church will sing two selections. Hostesses for the tea hour will be Mrs. Geneva Schwann, Mrs. Eva Lowe and Mrs. A. Nansen.

All interested women are invited to attend.

They are making their home at 10 Laurel street.

Club Plans Contests For Students

Central Point-The Central Point Garden club will sponsor an essay and poster contest on conservation it was decided at the last meeting of the group at the home of Mrs. E. E. Reames.

Contestants will include Central Point students from the fifth through eighth grades as well as students from Crater High school.

Mrs. C. W. Anhorn, who is in charge of the contest, will announce further details.

At the last meeting it was announced that Mrs. L. G. Gentner will teach a class in flower arranging through auspices of the Medford public schools adult education program.

The classes will be held Tuesday from 9:30 until 11:30 a.m. or Wednesday, 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. at Mrs. Gentner's home, 22 South Groveland avenue. Tuition for either session of the course is $10. The winter term will begin the first week in February. For further information telephone the adult education office of the Medford high school, SPRing 5-5341.

Mrs. Ivan Skyрман gave a progress report of the Central Point Garden club library center and Mrs. R. D. Kay reported on new seeds and plants being introduced this year by commercial nurseries. Club members who worked on the Christmas decorations at the Camp White domiciliary were Mrs. E. E. Reames, Mrs. Roy Stanley and Mrs. M. Madsen.

Roll call was answered with individual reports on personal progress in new garden projects. Guests for the meeting were Mrs. Emma Cooley and Mrs. Morris M. Brown. Assisting Mrs. Reames were Mrs. Glen Ward and Mrs. C. L. Morehouse.

The February meeting will be held February 3 at the home of Mrs. Leo Ghelardi, Old Stage road, at 1:30 p.m.

Electa Club Plans Anniversary Party

The annual anniversary party of Electa Social club will be held at 1 p.m. Friday, January 22 at Girls Community club. Charter members also will be honored.

Mrs. J. J. Brown is chairman of the committee in charge. She is assisted by Mrs. Esther Coleman, Mrs. Maude Duffy and Mrs. Margaret Janssen.

Ceremony Weds Medford Couple

Miss Barbara Ann Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Miller, 511 Boardman avenue, became the bride of Ronald Kent Anderson, 1187 Morrow road, in a ceremony December 29 at the Miller home.

The Rev. Fred Hatchell, Molalla, Ore., uncle of the bride, officiated at the double ring ceremony. Mr. Hatchell is pastor of the First Christian church.

Mrs. Keith Bross, Provo, Utah, attended her sister, Gerald K. Anderson served as best man for his twin brother.

The bride is a senior at Medford High school and is employed by J. C. Penney's company. Mr. Anderson attended Medford schools and is stationed at Ft. Lewis with the U. S. Army.

Mrs. Ronald Anderson

Beautiful Eyeglasses Yours in 5 Minutes

Your present lenses mounted in new, beautiful frames . . . "while you wait" . . . and at very little cost, too! Captivating eyeframes from the largest collection ever offered in this area. Newest colors and shapes from European and Domestic designers and craftsmen. Skilled, fashion-wise dispensers to help you. Visit the office nearest you.

- No Appointment Needed
- Convenient Credit
- We give 25% Green Stamps

our 55th year
COLUMBIAN OPTICAL CO.
MEDFORD SHOPPING CENTER
Phone SP 2-9990
casual shopping with convenient parking
* Drs. Omar J. Noles and William T. Hodson

LaPointe's
IT'S A WONDERFUL STORE

the JACKET DRESS

15<sup>95</sup> & 19<sup>95</sup>

Very important fashion! The jacket costume that promises to make this your smartest Spring ever. The dress by itself can be more casual by day or evening . . . anytime, it's incomparably fashionable, delightfully Spring! Maximum fashion . . . minimum money.

Shop Mondays & Fridays 12 Noon till 9

LaPointe's
IT'S A WONDERFUL STORE

It's worth a trip to shop LaPointe's

IN THE MEDFORD SHOPPING CENTER

DRAPERY FABRIC SALE!

50¢ to $1.50 yd.
Values to $4.00

Winter clean-up of drapery materials. Good choice of patterns and colors. Some short lengths—others with considerable yardage. Come in and see our selection—save dollars!

Also Ready-Made Drapes (Odds and Ends) at Closeout Prices!

VALLEY SHADE CO.
307 No. Bartlett Phone SP 3-4620