Two Sentenced in District Court First Twenty Years of Social Security Ends

Two Medford men were sentenced in district court Thursday to six months in the county jail for petty larceny. A 16-year-old boy who was involved in petty larceny charges was turned over to Jackson county juvenile authorities. The trio admitted to authorities they took five gallons of gasoline from a vehicle at the 401 orchard. Sentenced were Morris Lee Gunn, 20, of 115 Oak dr., and Donald Dee Campbell, 19, of 5113 Table Rock rd. Four Rogue River youths were fined $25 each in district court Friday after pleading guilty to illegal possession of liquor. All are 18 years old. Fined were Neil Ray Wagner, Paul Harry Ross, Harry DeWitt McCabe, and Arthur Edgar Johanson. The youths were arrested in Gold Hill by sheriff's officers and lodged in the county jail.

Judge Clarifies Ashland Ordinance

Ashland - An ordinance passed Dec. 1 by the Ashland city council actually prohibits persons under 18 years of age from smoking anywhere but in private homes, according to Municipal Judge Richard Cottle. Cottle dismissed charges of smoking in public against two youths Friday, he said, because it seemed the law was not thoroughly understood by persons concerned or their parents. Copies of the ordinance will be posted at Ashland senior and junior high schools, he said, and school officials have agreed to broadcast an announcement to clarify the ordinance.

Jury Finds Man Guilty of Charge

Ashland - An Ashland municipal court jury last week found 36-year-old Lester W. Alwine guilty of driving while under the influence of intoxicating beverages. Alwine, 136 North Second st., was fined $200 plus $5 court costs and drew a 30-day suspended jail sentence. Alwine was arrested Sept. 20 by Ashland police after his auto struck a parked car, causing it to strike a second parked vehicle.
