

Bears Rate Close Second In UPI Basketball Poll

San Francisco (UPI) — California rates a close second in this week's United Press International basketball poll, but some observers hereabouts thought that was one place too low.

No Money Keeps NBA From Coast

San Francisco (UPI) — A little matter of league rules—involving money—is keeping the National Basketball Association from expanding to the West coast.

Fred Scolari, one-time coach and star player in the NBA, says that both Los Angeles and San Francisco are ready to go into the league.

right now, he'd beat them by 13 points.

Newell admitted that his team in general and guard Earl Shultz in particular played a "perfect" game against Washington Saturday.

USF Coach Ross Guidice sent this message to Bear Coach Pete Newell: "Tell Newell that if he played Cincinnati the number one team nine attempts and you can't beat that. On defense he looked like twins. He seemed to sense where the ball was going and was there every time."

"He looks so good to me right now that I think I'll quit coaching him and let him go on his own way. I might lose him up."

Meanwhile, coach Jim Weaver of St. Mary's revealed that his star player against College of Pacific, Al Claiborne, had asked to be hypnotized before the game.

"I refused and told him he had to make it on his own, and he came through in fine fashion," Weaver said.

Coach Van Sweet of COP complained that the Gael rooters came equipped with 500 horns. "They played them from the start of the game until the finish. My players couldn't hear a thing I said."

Basketball action is cut down this week as most students gird for finals. One contest Monday night found Humboldt State edging the San Francisco Presidio, 62-59.

John Krochieski had 19 for the losers and Charlie Franklin, former Oregon University ace, had 18. Bill Caver scored 14 for Humboldt.

Games tonight pit Washington State against Gonzaga, and San Jose State against Fresno State.

Church Teams Play

First Presbyterian, First Christian and St. Marks teams took victories in the Church Basketball league play last night.

First Christian led by George Lindemann trounced First Baptist 40 to 26 last night at the Medford YMCA.

Lindemann had 13 points as high point man for his team. Dean Goddard was high for the game and his First Baptist team with 18 points.

This gave the First Christians one win and one loss and blemished the First Baptist record with a total tally of two wins and one loss.

First Presbyterian trounced Sacred Heart last night on the YMCA floor by 44 to 24. Mike Hood led his team with 14 points and Don MacPherson was high for his team with 10 points.

Half-time score was 21 to 12 in favor of the Presbyterians.

St. Marks crowded the YMCA team with 39 to 21 win last night at the YMCA.

Doug Kliever and Bob Hamilton shared top scoring honors for the Episcopal church team with 10 points each.

Craig Robinson followed close on their heels by scoring 9 points as top pointer for the YMCA team. Half-time score was 21 to 13 favoring the St. Marks team.

Hurley Speaker At Sport Dinner

Portland — The "Ole Deacon" of America's fight ring is heading back to Portland where he gained a measure of fame as one of the most colorful promoters in the history of the sport.

Jack Hurley, known to all boxing fans as "Deacon Jack" because of his pious expressions is signed as the featured speaker at the annual Bill Hayward "Banquet of Champions of the Oregon Sports Writers and Broadcasting Association."

Date of the banquet at the University of Portland's Commons.

Hurley is remembered in Portland mainly as the manager of Harry (Kid) Mathews of Seattle.

He also promoted ex-heavyweight champion Floyd Patterson's title defense against the former Olympic champion Pete Rademacher in Seattle.

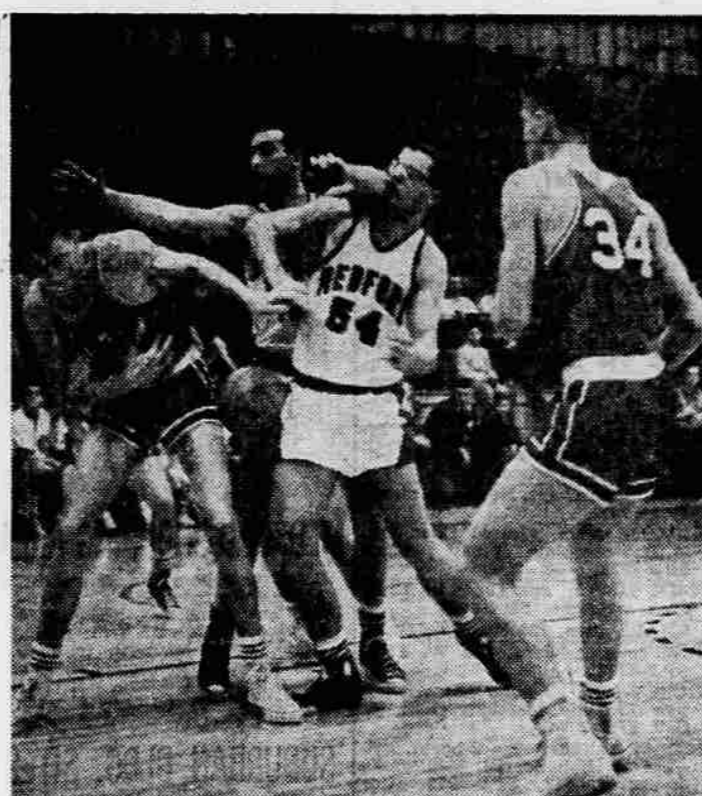

Tickets may be obtained from members of the writers and broadcasters association or by writing chairman Hal Childs at 1620 S.W. Park avenue.

The banquet honors the state's top athletes and coaches. Awarards go to the "Athlete of the Year" and "Man of the Year."

Moyer Enters Pro Ring Match
Seattle (UPI) — Fourth ranked welterweight Denny Moyer of Portland, a former amateur champion in the Seattle-Tacoma area, will make his first appearance as a professional here tonight when he opposes Pat Lowry, in a 10-round main event.

Moyer, seeking another shot at 147-pound welter king Don Jordan, will be looking for his 23rd win in 24 starts.

Lowry, a seven-year veteran with a big punch, has a 46-16-2 record with 25 knockouts. He finished out 1959 with three kayoes in his last four matches.

Medford Tightens 2nd Place Hold

United Press International Marhsfield, Medford and North Bend. That's the way the top three shaped up today in the United Press International prep coaches poll.

That's the same way they shaped up last week, also.

For the third week in a row Marhsfield's powerful Pirates polled all eight first place votes from participating coaches for a perfect 80 points.

Medford, leading the Southern conference with a 5-0 mark and 8-3 on the season strengthened its hold on second spot polling 71 votes.

North Bend, dropping its first game of the season to Willamette Saturday night, got 69 votes for third place.

There was quite a bit of shuffling around in the remaining spots, however.

South Salem Moves Up
Klamath Falls, 9-2 on the season with both losses coming at the hands of Medford, moved back into fourth after slipping to fifth last week.

Jefferson, fourth last week, dropped to seventh this week after dropping its first game of the season to Wilson.

Cleveland of Portland moved up to fifth after being in a ninth place tie last week.

Hermiston, although losing to La Grande Saturday night, remained in sixth while La Grande moved into eighth.

David Douglas is ninth this week slipping from seventh.

Only newcomer this week is South Salem which grabbed the 10th spot.

Top 10 with season's record in parentheses:

Gophers Up To Third Place Now

United Press International Johnny Kundla — a campus hero of 20 years ago — has Minnesota's Golden Gophers in the middle of the Big Ten race.

A sub .500 team at 10-12 last season, Minnesota Monday night moved into third place in the Big Ten with a 77-70 victory over Illinois at Minneapolis, Minn. It was the Gophers' third victory in four conference games and their 10th win in 12 games this season.

That means the Gophers are headed for their finest season since 1949 when they had an 18-3 mark in Ozzie Cowles' first year as coach.

Soph Leads Scorers
Ray Cronk, one of the many sophomores Kundla counted on to come through this season, tallied 25 points Monday night while Ron Johnson had 18 and Dick Erickson added 16. Minnesota led, 36-35 at halftime but spurred to a 53-40 margin after five minutes of the second half.

Kansas State scored its fifth straight Big Eight conference victory by downing Iowa State, 66-66, at Manhattan, Kan. The Wildcats never trailed although Wally Frank was a high point-getter with only 12 points. Vinnie Brewer had 17 and Henry Whitney had 15 for Iowa State.

Maryland whipped North Carolina State, 63-53, and Wake Forest downed Tennessee, 84-57, in important southern games. The victory lifted Maryland into a tie for second place in the Atlantic Coast Conference.

Paul Jelus was the high scorer for Maryland with 17 points and Bob Distefano had 14 for North Carolina State. Wake Forest pulled down 67 rebounds to set a new team record in an easy victory over Tennessee. The Deacons led, 36-29, and then drove it up to 52-33 with a big burst in the second half.

Top scorers for Hawkinson were Dave D'Olivio, 21, Dave Huges, 17, and Bill Hollingsworth with 14. Bill Irwin of Butte Falls was high point man for the night and for his team with 23 points.

Hawkinson plays Big Y Wednesday, Jan. 27, on the McLoughlin Junior high school floor here.

Medford Meets Crater, Ashland in Basketball

Medford, Crater, Ashland, Phoenix, Eagle Point and Glendale all are double duty aggregations this week in area's prep basketball activity.

Medford meets Crater at Central Point on Friday night and entertains Ashland on Saturday in the Southern Oregon conference. Crater goes to Klamath Falls for Saturday night contention. The Grizzlies of Ashland come to Medford after serving as Friday hosts to Grants Pass.

Rogue league rivalry will have Phoenix at Glendale and Eagle Point against Illinois Valley at Cave Junction on Friday. The Saturday scuffles are Glendale at Eagle Point and Phoenix at Rogue River.

In the Jackson County B league games set for Friday St. Mary's and Butte Falls clash at Medford and Prospect goes to Talent.

St. Mary's will travel to Yreka, Calif., for non-league play on Saturday.

Prospect varsity and jayvee teams are hosts tonight to

Zalazar Toys With Dupas

New York (UPI) — Either they will have to find bigger opponents for Victor Zalazar of Argentina or move him up in weight class.

The six-foot middleweight merely toyed with Tony Dupas of New Orleans Monday night in scoring a unanimous one-sided 10-round victory at the Academy of Music.

Using his height and weight to advantage, Zalazar swarmed over his small opponent to register his ninth victory in 12 professional bouts.

HONOR TIGER PLAYER

Philadelphia (UPI) — Pete Campbell of Hohokus, N.J., the leading scorer on Princeton's basketball team, was selected today as Ivy league player of the week. Campbell has a total of 114 points per game average.

Cincinnati Almost Loses Top Rating

New York (UPI) — Cincinnati, which lost its perfect basketball record last Saturday night at Bradley, almost lost its No. 1 spot to California today in United Press International's major college ratings.

Hawkinson Tops Record

Hawkinson Tire set a new single game scoring record in the Independent Basketball league last night when it rambled away with a 103 to 66 victory over Butte Falls on the home floor.

Last night's high game score broke a record Grants Pass set in Independent league play last year when it scored 100 points against Butte Falls.

Hawkinson played a run and score game all the way and never faced a serious threat. Hawkinson sent the ball swishing through the bucket from all angles and tried all defenses by moving easily from man to man to zone and tightening up at times with a full court press.

The Tire company team scored quite a few shots on the fast break and most of them inside 12 feet from the basket where overall team height gave them the advantage over the shorter Butte Falls players. Hawkinson's board statistics figured Hawkinson players sank 20 of 29 free throws, also.

Top scorers for Hawkinson were Dave D'Olivio, 21, Dave Huges, 17, and Bill Hollingsworth with 14. Bill Irwin of Butte Falls was high point man for the night and for his team with 23 points.

Hawkinson plays Big Y Wednesday, Jan. 27, on the McLoughlin Junior high school floor here.

White Sox Player First Big Holdout

Maracaibo, Venezuela (UPI) — Shortstop Luis Aparicio of the American league champion Chicago White Sox may be the first serious holdout of the 1960 season.

Aparicio, whose brilliant fielding played a major role in the White Sox first pennant victory since 1919, revealed Monday night that he has rejected the first offer.

"The new contract included a raise," said 25-year-old Luis. "But I think I earned a better one."

FOAM RUBBER PITS

New York (UPI) — Promoters of the major indoor track and field meets at Madison Square Garden this winter announced Monday that foam rubber will be used in the pole vault and high jump landing pits. U.S. Olympic coach George Eastman of Manhattan said the innovation will be "a psychological as well as physical aid."

CARDS SIGN END

Chicago (UPI) — The Chicago Cardinals today announced the signing of Jack Dean Atchason, 215-pound offensive end from Western Illinois University. Atchason, 6-4, is a resident of Springfield, Ill.

Ed Machen Outpointed

San Francisco (UPI) — Wake up, fans! Zora Folley definitely outpointed Eddie Machen Monday night in a 12-round waltz which was nearly as dull as the draw they fought here two years ago.

And for all his pains, Folley is scheduled to enter the hospital on Thursday to have his tonsils removed while Machen's men claim that Eddie is scheduled to fight Billy Hunter in Madison Square Garden Feb. 19.

Bill Swift, Folley's manager, said he had made a verbal agreement for Zora to fight Hunter in the Garden if he won Monday night's contest. But those plans have been shelved now that Folley has to be hospitalized.

A disappointed crowd of 5,477 turned out for the rematch. The bout grossed only $27,959.97, compared with a gross of $95,755 when the pair first met in April, 1958.

Machen, weighing a hefty 199 pounds to Folley's 194, suffered what was only his second loss in 34 professional fights. But there was no doubt about who won. Folley did virtually all of the leading, kept a persistent left jab in Machen's smiling face and shook him up twice with solid right hands to the head.

Dodgers' Moon Gets Pay Boost

Los Angeles (UPI) — Wally Moon, who jumped from a .238 hitter in 1958 to .302 last season, today was rewarded for helping the Los Angeles Dodgers win the National League pennant and world's championship with a big pay raise.

The wiry, soft-spoken Moon was believed to have signed for 1960 for around 30 thousand dollars, an increase of between 8 and 10 thousand dollars over last season. If the estimate is correct, Moon joins Duke Snider and Gil Hodges as the highest paid members of the club.

Moon came to the Dodgers last year from the St. Louis Cardinals in a trade for Gino Cimoli. Known as a "streak" hitter with the Cards, Moon not only got his streak-hitting safely in 1959 straight games in June, but he had never known a slump for the entire season.

For his big season, Moon was tabbed as the comeback player of 1959 and he helped the Dodgers become the comeback club of the year, jumping from seventh the previous season to the top.
