Coffee Klatch Slated

By BETTE HOSKINS

Jacksonville – The second of the March of Dimes Coffee Klatches, which are sponsored annually by the Jacksonville Royal Neighbor lodge, will be held at 10 a.m. this Friday at the home of Mrs. Bud Reinking on East California st.

Everyone is welcome to drop in. The first Coffee Klatch this season was held Dec. 14 at the home of Mrs. Earnest Rasmussen.

Jacksonville's new councilmen, John Caird, John Crabb and Don Wendt, were sworn in at last Tuesday's council meeting. City officials also announced that absolutely no more wood cutting will be allowed in the burn area at the reservoir and Jacksonville water shed. Anyone cutting wood of any kind in this area will be arrested and fined, they said.

This month's PTA meeting was held Jan. 12. Demonstrations were given by Mrs. Barbara Robinson and Mrs. Blomquist on "Reading Readiness" and "Reading In The First Grade." Plans were discussed for the annual smorgasbord to be held this spring and reminders were issued to all "good cooks" to start planning to prepare their particular specialties for the event. Following the meeting, second grade room mothers served refreshments.

Guests last weekend at the Warren Hazen home were Mr. and Mrs. Horace Thomas, Spokane, Wash.

The Mack Griffin family, who were living in the old Edens home which burned here last week, are badly in need of a 3-bedroom home in the Jacksonville area. Anyone who could rent them one is asked to call Jacksonville Assembly of God church at TW 9-1015.

Cub Scouts Den 4 recently held a farewell party for Patrick Swanson, who has moved with his family to Cleveland, Ohio. The party was held at the Glenn Logan home on Sterling rd. Cubs present were Henry James, Bill Snow, Billy Ray King, Bill Hinkle, Bob Glather, Danny Davis, Randy Smith and Charles Logan, the host. Boys of the den presented Patrick with a Cub Scout ring and pictures of various events in which he had participated while living here. The boys played snow games during the afternoon.

A Cub Scout pack meeting was held Jan. 6 with the flag salute led by the Webelos Den. A community sing was held, with accompaniment on the piano by Mrs. Harold White. Don Stoner and Warren Davis, fathers of Danny Stoner and Danny Davis, were presented Indian head dresses by their sons. The two fathers are new members of the Cub Scouts parents committee.

The Bobcat ceremony was held for two new cubs, Randy Smith and Gale Allen. Ted Rundle, institutional representative, thanked the parents for the 100 per cent subscription rate to Boys Life magazine.

Rundle and Cub-master Ed Hinkle explained new awards to be given for celebration of the 50th year of Scouting and plans for local activities for these awards.

Wolf badges were presented to Bill White and Gary Warden. Joe Davis and Mike Iverson and their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Davis and Mr. and Mrs. Art Iverson, were honored and congratulated on the boys' becoming Boy Scouts. Blue and Gold corsages were presented to the mothers by the boys. Scoutmaster Don Wendt made a welcoming speech as Joe and Mike made the advancement from Cub scouts to Boy Scouts, and the Den Chiefs of each Den led the two new members in the Boy Scout oath.

Thanks was extended to Art Iverson for his faithful work in Cub Scouting. Advancement of the two boys left Iverson without a Den.

The meeting was closed with a prayer by the Rev. King Jones of the Jacksonville Presbyterian church. Refreshments were served by Webelo Den and Den 3. A short committee meeting was held Jan. 13 and dates and plans were made for the Blue and Gold dinner, which will be held Feb. 13 in the multipurpose room at the school on Hueners lane. The next pack meeting will be Feb. 3.

School News

Eagle Point School

Patricia Harris is a new pupil in Mrs. Elsie Turner's second grade class.

Terry Childers, a student in Mrs. Jeanne Martin's third grade class, had a tonsillectomy recently.

The boys are playing volleyball in their physical education classes and, according to their instructor, Rick Wolgamott, they also will complete the Oregon fitness test, which includes the "jump reach." They already have taken the push-up and beanbag tests.

Fifth and sixth graders are playing sacket in their physical education classes, while the seventh and eighth grade girls have elected captains for their basketball teams. Instructor Maxine Berryman said the girls will start a tournament as soon as they have had more practice.

Basketball began recently when the boys played a team from Rogue River.

Volleyball intramurals for girls also have started and the schedule, when completed, will have lasted six weeks.

Virginia Smith, Craig Ferrell and Glennus Harris, all students in Mrs. Eva McKee's fourth grade class, moved during the recent vacation period.

Sheep Meeting Set All Day Thursday

A sheep management meeting will be held from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. Thursday, Jan. 21, at the Jackson county courthouse and the county fairgrounds south of Medford, Earle Jossy, county extension agent, has announced.

From 10 a.m. to noon, John Landers, Oregon State college livestock specialist, will talk on sheep management, feeding and care, blue tongue and other disease problems.

From 1 to 3 p.m., demonstrations will be given at the Jackson county fairgrounds on docking, castrating, tagging, care of new born lambs, and foot trimming.

Those planning to attend are asked to wear work clothes and to dress warmly since the fair buildings are not heated.

Mont Tremblant, highest peak in the Laurentians at 3,150 feet, is 80 miles north of Montreal.
