The Medical Roundup

by Walter Alvarez

Emeritus Consultant in Medicine, Mayo Clinic
Emeritus Professor of Medicine, Mayo Clinic

England Improving Care of Mentally Disturbed

Very cheering is the news that in England the Royal Commission for Mental Health has recommended to Parliament a bill for the saner handling of mentally disturbed persons. First, there probably will be better regulations for the detention of persons for periods of time over 72 hours. Any patient who thinks he is sane may apply for relief to a special Commission that will review his case. With the new plans, the emphasis will be, not on just locking queer people up, or entirely "curing" them, but on teaching them to take a place out in the community again.

DR. ALVAREZ

One idea is to have a factory within a hospital where the patients who work will be paid for what they can do. Another plan is to organize clubs for those many shy, retiring, asocial persons who tend to live as hermits. In the clubs these people will help each other to become more social and less afraid of living. In some places, provisions will be made for utilizing the services of men and women who have shown themselves to be too "difficult," or "ornery," bad-tempered, demanding, inefficient, or sickly to hold a job out in the world. They need to work in a "protected shop" where, occasionally, they can get help from a psychiatrist, and where their idiosyncrasies will be understood, tolerated, and forgiven.

Place To Get Bed

The idea now will be to teach many queer persons how to keep out of a mental hospital. Another very important idea is to provide places where the harmless "queer bird" can get a bed each night, and perhaps his breakfast and supper. During the day he can be out, looking for a job, or working after he has found one.

Very important is the new idea in England of doing away with the huge old-fashioned "insane asylum" and to build in its place many small institutions which will not be called mental hospitals. This will help to remove the great stigma that now attaches to thousands of our people who ounce were declared insane and incompetent, and now are back at work. When asked by an employment manager what he has been doing, an ex-patient may be able to say truthfully that he has been living in a "Night Hostel" and working in a "Factory." He does not have to elaborate on the fact that these places are connected with a hospital that cares for mentally disturbed persons. Naturally, there will have to be some places designed to take care of violent persons, or persons who cannot be used in any way in the community.

Disaster Survivors Were Still Lucky

Yonkers, N.Y.–Rinaldo Sciacca, a Yonkers barber, specializes in close shaves.

Recently, he was involved in a head-on collision with another car and came out unscratched.

Sciacca, 32, came through it all calmly. He and his wife were survivors of the Andre Doria - Stockholm maritime disaster.

Little Boy Was Just Eating Out

Alfred, N. Y. – Six-year-old Wayne Pitman of Alfred is "The Man Who Came to Dinner." His parents Mr. and Mrs. Craig Pitman reported him missing.

Later Mrs. Charles Noeth of nearby Almond called police saying a boy had showed up in her yard, had eaten lunch with her children and appeared content to stay on and on. Wayne was whisked home in a hurry.

Cab Driver Has Woman Trouble

Verona, Mont. – Richard Laren will turn a deaf ear on future back seat scraps between passengers in his taxicab. He learned his lesson from two women.

When the women started fighting, Laren attempted to intervene. They quickly forgot their own differences and attacked Laren.

Shortly thereafter, the cabbie turned up at a hospital with teethmarks in his right ear.

He Couldn't Make His Driving Test

Miami Beach – When examiners for the Department of Motor Vehicles asked 81-year-old George Leverly to show up for a driving test, they didn't imagine he'd drive right up on their lawn.

He had been asked to take an examination for renewal of his license.

Police said he struck three cars before his auto smashed into a fence near a branch office of the department during part of the extm.

Examiners said Beverly didn't come back to finish the test.

CRASH INJURES 22

Argyle, Wis. –(UPI)– A school bus collided with a milk truck on a slippery road near here Tuesday injuring 21 children and the bus driver. The driver and two children were hospitalized with serious injuries.

Robert S. Conlon Associates of Kansas City, Missouri, have become a standard of the radio survey industry for the past 20 years. During December of 1959, they took a survey in the Medford Area. The results of that survey showed that K-DOV has more listeners than any other radio station in this area. The results of that survey are as follows:

Station	Percentage of listeners
K-DOV	32.2
Station "A"	26.6
Station "B"	17.3
Station "C"	9.1
Station "D"	5.7
Others outside the area	8.9

In fact K-DOV has more listeners than 3 of the other stations combined.
