GOLD HILL
Students Donate Dimes

By MRS. CLYDE KELL
Gold Hill-Pupils of Hanby and Patrick elementary schools of District 6C gave $30.90 to the New March of Dimes drive last week.
Mrs. Wilmer Bailey, local campaign chairman, reported.

She said donations in response to letters mailed to residents of the community outside the city are coming in slowly. Letters were not mailed to persons residing within the city limits, but they will be contacted during the Mothers' March Thursday, Jan. 28 between 7 and 8 p.m.
Volunteer workers are needed to help with the Mothers' March here. Mrs. Bailey requests that volunteers telephone her at UL 5-1226 as soon as possible.

Sponsoring group for the New March of Dimes drive in this area is the Gold Hill Health unit. Co-chairman is Mrs. Clarence Parsley. The local campaign is set up in conjunction with a county-wide drive during January to raise funds to aid the fight against polio, arthritis and birth defects in cooperation with efforts of the National Foundation.

Mrs. Albert Gascon, president of the Past Noble Grands club of Amethyst Rebekah Lodge, announced that the meeting date has been changed to Wednesday, Jan. 27 at 8 p.m., instead of Thursday, Jan. 28, so that members of the organization may assist with the local Mothers' March.

Mrs. Ralph Bell will be hostess for the club.

A student directory containing names, telephone numbers and addresses of all high school pupils of district 6 is being prepared by the Crater FFA department as one of its projects. These will be sold at 75 cents per copy through Crater High school.

Another project of the school's agriculture department is a news bulletin that consists of condensed articles taken from farm magazines and college bulletins.

Delmar Smith reported that the mailing list includes 200 farmers in the county and those who have taken vocational training courses at Crater.

The Mothers' Singers of District 6C will meet at the home of Mrs. Clifford Ayres, 45 North Ninth, Central Point, Tuesday, Jan. 26 at 9:30 a.m.
Mrs. Derwin Mapel, publicity chairman, reported. Child care will be available at the home of Mrs. Aubrey Stith at 4818 North Pacific highway, Central Point. Her telephone number is NO 4-1256.

All women in Gold Hill, Sams Valley and Central Point are invited to attend these singing sessions - held just for the fun of singing - each Tuesday morning.

Sherman Kiger, eighth grade student at Hanby Elementary school, was surprised recently when he received a message from Gamal Abdel Nasser, president of the United Arab Republic. The communication was in the form of a card similar to our "Season's Greetings," etc., except that it opened just the opposite. Inside was printed,

"The President Gamal Abdel Nasser extends his best wishes for the New Year." Above this message was one that Serman believes is the same only written in Nasser's language.

Sherman wrote to Nasser relative to his social studies last year and received a letter in reply last May.

Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Christensen visited at the new home of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. D. E.
Chapman, Medford. The Chap-mans recently announced the arrival of a daughter, Leslie Lynn. She joins a sister, Linda, and a brother, Dennis.
The Chapman youngsters were cared for by Mr. and Mrs. Sam Jones while their mother was in the hospital.
Mrs. Chapman, the former Dagmar Christensen, is a former resident of Gold Hill.

Charges Against Newspapers Refused

Seattle (AP) - Thomas Graham Jr., regional director of the National Labor Relations board, said Wednesday he had refused to issue an unfair labor practice charge against the Oregon Journal and Oregonian as requested by Portland local 17 of the Web Pressmen's Union.

visited at the home of her nephew and niece, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Piening, and her sister, Mrs. Florence Piening.

Mr. and Mrs. David Parker and infant daughter, Laurie Jo, left for Kentucky last week and will make their home at Fort Knox where David will be on duty with the U.S. Army. He arrived here Jan. 13 for a short visit at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Parker, and sister, Miss Linda Parker, and his wife's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Davis, Medford.

Try and Stop Me

By BENNETT CERF

THE HEAD OF a mental hospital patted one old inmate on the shoulder and said, "Joe, I've got fine news for you.
You can go home to your wife tomorrow."

"Go home to my wife?"
echoed the inmate bitterly. "So you think I'm still crazy, hey?"

A big shipbuilder, writes Fred Gooch, was about to award a fat contract to a Swedish engineer when his secretary told him there was another man in the anteroom who claimed to have a substantially lower bid. The shipbuilder decided,
"Better send them both in.
I might as well have the bidder with the Swede."

Old Navy men should appreciate J. R. Sertchek's story of the ensign who demanded a house with washrooms on every floor. "I put my faith squarely in that old proverb," he explained: "Two heads are better than one!"
