

Annual AAUW Art Show To Open Here Friday

The ninth annual art show sponsored by American Association of University Women will open to the public at 7:30 p.m. Friday, January 29.

The show, in the Crater room of the Medford hotel, may also be seen Saturday from 10 a.m. to 9:30 p.m., and Sunday from 12 noon to 2:30 p.m. The show is being held over to Sunday so that more families will be able to view the art work.

Additional entry blanks for the art show may be obtained at the Medford hotel lobby and at Walt Young's Stationery store. All artists of Southern Oregon are invited to contribute. Pictures must be framed or matted for hanging, and sculptures should have suitable bases or supports.

There will be a public poll for the most popular works in the adult division, and a separate poll for the student division. There will be no judging or prizes.

Art Committee
The committee for the art show includes Miss Catherine Fonken, chairman, Mrs. Fred E. Rankin, and Mrs. Edwin W. Gebhard. Other AAUW members helping with arrangements include Mrs. Thomas McCamant, Mrs. A. J. Johanson, Mrs. Hans Hess, Mrs. R. Renwick Taylor, Mrs. Calvin L. Smith, Mrs. Emerson T. Anderson, Mrs. Nils A. Edin, Mrs. Robert F. Wilcox and Mrs. Roy Elmgren.

Several members of Southern Oregon Society of Artists will also assist.

"Sleeping Beauty" is the play to be sponsored by Medford branch, American Association of University Women

MARSHALL'S Carpet Cleaning Aids

CARE BETWEEN CLEANINGS
Go over your carpet with a sweeper or vacuum daily. Vacuum thoroughly at least once a week. A vacuum with beater brush action (such as a Kirby upright) is best—especially for high pile carpets. Be sure to ask for—and get—a soil retarder put back in your carpet when you have it cleaned. We will be glad to show you the difference at no obligation.

Newlyweds Make Home In Brookings

Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Wayne Mayfield are making their home in Brookings following their wedding January 2 at First Presbyterian church, Phoenix. The Rev. William A. Saladin officiated at the 7:30 o'clock evening ceremony.

The bride is the former Sharon Ray Larimer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Larimer, 915 Dakota avenue. Mr. Mayfield's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Mayfield, Willow Springs road, Central Point.

More than 50 relatives and friends attended the double ring rites. White chrysanthemums and pink carnations decorated the church. Mrs. A. V. Thompson, aunt of the bride, played the wedding music.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white lace over taffeta frock in formal length. Ruffled net formed the back of the skirt and her fingertip length veil was held by a half crown of sequins. She carried a bouquet of white carnations encircling a white orchid.

Miss Linda Larimer attended her sister. She wore a pink taffeta frock with matching bandeau and short veil. Her flowers were pink and white carnations on a white fan.

Candlelight was Miss Ruth Hunter.

Edgar Head served as best man and seating the guests were Lee Lyon, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, and Robert Lake, cousin of the bride.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the church. Caesar Muzzioli played accordion background music. Mrs. Lake cut the wedding cake served by Miss Janice Larimer. Miss Kathleen Larimer presided at the punch bowl and Miss Bonnie Thompson poured the coffee. They are all cousins of the bride.

Miss Betty Arnold was in charge of the guest book and Mrs. Lee Lyon, sister of the bridegroom, was at the gift table.

For traveling to Brookings the bride wore a black wool sheath dress with plaid jacket and the orchid corsage from her bridal bouquet. Her accessories were black.

The bride attended Medford High school. Mr. Mayfield attended Crater High school and is employed by the Commercial Finance company in Brookings.

Fine arts is the theme for the event. A display of local art will be arranged by Mr. Bennett.

Being welcomed into the group are Mrs. Robert Harworth, Mrs. Bob G. Norris, Mrs. William J. Thompson, Mrs. James Wells, Mrs. William K. Jensen, Mrs. William Clegg Jr., Mrs. Robert Vincent, Mrs. John J. Owens, Miss Mary Lou Hanke, Mrs. Wayne Allen, Mrs. Virgil Morton, and Mrs. Richard L. O'Dell.

Mrs. F. D. Nelson is in charge of arrangements for the event.

Catholic Ceremony Weds Pair

Central Point—Miss Diana Lee Cooper, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Bennett, Route 1, Box 406, became the bride of Lanny Edward Zwan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Emil Zwan, 2240 Camp Baker road, Medford, in a ceremony held January 9 at Sacred Heart Catholic church.

The Rev. John Ilg officiated at the double ring rites attended by 30 relatives and friends. The wedding, held at two o'clock in the afternoon, was on the bride's birthday.

The bride wore a ballerina length frock of white lace over nylon. Her veil was held by white flowers and lace and she carried a bouquet of white carnations and gardenias. Mr. Bennett escorted his daughter to the altar.

Miss Wanda Huffman attended the bride. She wore a light blue lace dress over matching satin and a gardenia corsage.

Stanley M. Zwan served as best man for his brother.

White chrysanthemums decorated the church for the ceremony.

Following the wedding a reception was held at the Zwan home. The couple are making their home at 4035 South Pacific highway, Medford.

The bride attended Crater High school. Mr. Zwan attended St. Mary's High school and Portland university. He was recently discharged after serving with the U.S. Army. He is currently employed by Virgil Anderson.

Superintendent Talks for PTA

Dr. Leonard Mayfield, superintendent of Medford school district, spoke and showed colored slides of his trip to the Soviet last fall at the recent meeting of the Lincoln Parent-Teacher association.

Dr. Mayfield reviewed many aspects of life in the Soviet Union including the schools, family, transportation, shopping, some aspects of government controls.

The speaker mentioned Boy Scout Troop members present that a flag is seldom seen in the Soviet. Homage is paid to pictures of Lenin.

Following the program mothers of the fourth grade students served cake and coffee in the cafeteria.

Methodist Choir Member Recognized for Service

Mrs. Howard Bush, member of the First Methodist church chancel choir for 20 years, was honored during a program recently at a "Pudding party" given for members of the chancel choir and the church music committee by Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Adamson.

The program was based on "This Is Your Life." Mr. Bush and the two Bush children, Bruce and Diane, were introduced. Two couples, Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Morse and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Blaas, friends of the Bushes in Chicago before moving to Medford, were also present.

Mrs. Morse was the matron of honor for the Bushes at their wedding and Mrs. Bush was soloist at the Morse wedding. The Blaas and Mrs. Bush had sung together in the Chicago Lawn Methodist church for a number of years.

Mrs. Fred Strang, choir director when Mrs. Bush arrived in Medford, and Robert Wright, soloist, both spoke.

Mrs. Harry Meyers, choir member, modelled a white cotta of the type formerly worn by the choir and reminisced about former choir members.

Mrs. Adamson, director of the church choir since 1949, mentioned the many times Mrs. Bush has sung for the church during regular services and concerts, and listed the many organizations in which she is active.

Dr. George G. Roseberry, minister, thanked Mrs. Bush on behalf of the congregation.

Clyde Wheaton was master of ceremonies and the choir members presented Mrs. Bush with long playing record of great choral works of the church. About 65 guests attended the event.
