Sandwich in Round Uses Beef and Crust

"Sandwich in the Round" is a hearty one of ground lean beef baked between flaky tender biscuit crust. The biscuit crust is made with a mix enriched with mayonnaise. The sandwich can be used cold in a lunch box, or served in wedges as a dinner entrée.

For Sandwich in the Round use 1 pound ground lean beef, 1 tablespoon oil or drippings, 2 tablespoons instant minced onion, 1/4 cup grated Parmesan cheese, 1/2 cup grated Swiss cheese, egg beaten, 1/2 teaspoon Tabasco sauce, 1 1/2 teaspoons salt, 2 tablespoons chopped parsley, biscuit crust made with 2 cups biscuit mix, 2/3 cup milk and 1/4 cup mayonnaise.

Cook beef in heated oil until lightly browned. Remove from heat and add all remaining ingredients except biscuit crust, mixing lightly but well. Let cool slightly while preparing crust. Roll or pat half of biscuit dough to fit bottom of greased 8-inch cake pan. Place in pan and cover with meat filling, cover meat with top crust pressing down lightly on filling. Bake in a hot oven (400 degrees F.) about 25 minutes until crust is baked and nicely browned. Cool and cut into generous wedges.

Biscuit Crust: Combine biscuit mix, milk and mayonnaise to a moderately stiff dough. Divide in half; roll or pat out each half to fit an 8-inch round cake pan. Makes 6 to 8 servings.

Calorie Counters' Delight
"Wishful shrinkers" have special reason for enjoying a refreshing drink of soup on the rocks - that now famous canned beef broth (bouillon) and ice cube beverage. A nine-ounce glass holding two ice cubes and the undiluted beef broth contains fewer than 30 calories! To preserve the bouillon's full-bodied flavor, chill the cans in the refrigerator before pouring. You'll find it a delightful pre-dinner beverage.

After-School Soup
After school when hungry, junior members of the family come homeward bound in search of more than higher education, declare a recess and make the grade with this elementary soup snack. Combine 1 can condensed tomato soup with 1 soup can water, add a dash of cloves, poultry seasoning, or cinnamon and simmer a few minutes to blend the flavors. Serve with crackers or cream cheese and chive finger sandwiches.
