

Although Heart Sunday is a whole month away, the chairmen are already drafting their plans. Mrs. Ronald Ricketts, county chairman for the project, met last week with three of her main co-chairmen. Pictured at her home, 143 South Keene Way, are (left to right) Mrs. Arlon Skinner, Mrs. Ricketts, William Driscoll, vice-chairman, and Mrs. James J. Mullaney. Mrs. R. Ren Taylor is also assisting Mrs. Ricketts. The month-long heart fund campaign opens February 1.

Couple Planning Trip to Europe

Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. (Red) Cullen of Medford and Palm Springs, Calif., plan to leave in February from Palm Springs for New York City where they will embark on March 15 for a trip to Europe. They will be accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Ed Brown of Los Angeles and the two couples will drive with house trailers to the east coast.

In Europe they will visit France, Germany, Italy, Switzerland and England. They expect to be there for about two months.

On their return to this country the four will tour the east coast and Canada.

Mr. Cullen was the owner of the former Cullen Equipment company, and Mr. Brown is sales manager for the Air Stream Trailer company in Los Angeles.

Jackson County Civic Music association members will hear a concert Monday, February 1, given by the National Artists Sinfonietta with William Haaker as musical director and Amparo Iturbi as piano soloist. The program will begin at 8 p.m. at Medford High school auditorium.

Concert Numbers Are Announced

Compositions by Jeremiah Clark, Richard Wagner, Franz Joseph Haydn, Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart and Franz Liszt will be played Monday evening by the National Artists Sinfonietta here. The second concert in the current series of the Jackson County Civic Music association will be held at the Medford High school at 8 p.m. The program includes "Trumpet Voluntary," "Siegfried Idyll," "Concerto in D Major," "Symphony in G Minor, No. 40, K.550," and "Hungarian Fantasia for Piano and Orchestra." Piano soloist will be Miss Amparo Iturbi.

Fifty Attend Meeting Of Sojourners

Fifty women attended a meeting of Medford Sojourners held Thursday at the Girls Community Club.

A new member, Mrs. Asa Lemon, was welcomed into the club. Newcomers attending for the first time were Mrs. John Hoogerheide, Mrs. Fenton L. Hall and Mrs. Leo Radke.

The dessert table was centered with an Italian hand painted china horn of plenty which was overflowing with fresh fruits. A blue candle on each side completed the centerpiece.

Hostesses were Mrs. Gene Chamberlain, Mrs. Virgil Morton and Mrs. F. D. Nelson.

Following a short business meeting cards were played. Prizes for bridge went to Mrs. A. B. Davis and Mrs. Charles Swenson; pinochle, Mrs. Everett Robinson and Mrs. Evelyn Hendricks; canasta, Mrs. Frank Stratton and Mrs. A. L. McClure. Mrs. Anna Carnell received a special award.

The next meeting of the club will be held February 11 at the Girls Community Club. Newcomers who have lived in Medford and vicinity not more than two years are invited to attend and become members.

Chapter Pledges Miss Linda Smith

Miss Linda Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Niles B. Smith, 8 Richmond avenue, has been pledged by the Oregon State college chapter of Pi Beta Phi sorority.

Miss Smith is enrolled in liberal arts. Her sister, Mrs. Stephen Foster of Anaheim, Calif., was also a Pi Beta Phi at OSC.

Tickets To Go On Sale For Annual AAUW Play

Tickets for "The Sleeping Beauty" will be sold in Medford schools Friday, February 5. This play, produced by Southern Oregon college players and sponsored by American Association of University Women, will be seen in Medford Tuesday, February 9, at the Craterian theater.

Magical effects, special lighting, and colorful costumes will be used for this annual children's theater production. Dr. Dorothy Stolp is director, and William Oylar is technical director.

Proceeds from the two performances, at 2:30 and 4:15 p.m., go to the AAUW fund for fellowships and grants. They are given to outstanding women who are working toward doctorate degrees here or abroad.

Persons wanting tickets to "The Sleeping Beauty" for preschool children may call either of the co-chairmen for Medford arrangements, Mrs. John Stong, SPring 3-5867, or Mrs. A. J. Johansson, SPring 2-2618.

Final plans for the play, and for the art show which closes at the Medford hotel Crater room this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, were made at an AAUW board meeting Thursday 27, at Ping's Garden. Mrs. Roland M. Mayer was hostess to the group at her home, 29 Richmond avenue, with Mrs. Alan S. Markee assisting.

The next branch meeting will be the annual fellowships luncheon Saturday, February 27, at Ping's Garden. Sister Mary Ann from Mount Angel, a former AAUW grantee, will be the speaker.

Mrs. Meilicke Becomes Bride Of John Bratton

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Bratton returned to the valley recently after a two week wedding trip to Carlsbad Caverns in New Mexico. The couple were married January 2 in an evening ceremony at the home of Elder and Mrs. John Trude, 1130 West Eighth street.

The bride is the former Burnadine M. Meilicke, Route 4, Box 316, Medford. Mr. Bratton is formerly of Sutherlin, Ore. Elder Harry Sharp of the Woodland, Wash., Seventh-day Adventist church officiated at the 8 o'clock ceremony.

The bride wore a grape colored suit with grape and pink accessories. Her corsage was a white orchid.

Mrs. Leonard Yost attended her sister. She wore a light blue knit suit with brown and white accessories and white gardenia corsage.

Clifford Fellows, Portland, served as best man.

Candlelighters were Terry Bratton and Danny Meilicke. White chrysanthemums and pink stock decorated the home for the ceremony.

Mrs. Harry Sharp sang, and accompanied Alvy Bowman another soloist.

Following the ceremony a reception was held. Assisting with the serving were Mrs. Bowman, Mrs. Trude, Miss Teri Lynn Meilicke and Miss Sharie Yost. During the reception Mr. Bowman and Mr. Yost sang.

Church Rites In Ashland Wed Couple

Talent-Miss Sharleen Kaye Barnhart became the bride of Jon Wayne Cooper at an 8 o'clock evening ceremony January 23 at the Ashland Presbyterian church. About 50 persons attended the rites.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Barnhart of Aurora, Oregon, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Elden Cooper of 5681 South Pacific highway.

The Rev. H. B. Holland read the ceremony.

Miss Nylia Cooper, a sister of the bridegroom, was the honor attendant, and Mrs. Frank Root, Ashland, was bridesmatron.

Serving as best man was Robert L. Burgess, Phoenix. Ushers were Sherwin Cooper and Frank Root.

The bride was escorted by her father. Her white gown was styled with a lace jacket trimmed with satin and skirt of tiered chiffon over taffeta. Her heart shaped bouquet was of carnations, roses and forget-me-nots.

The attendants' gowns were pink and they carried bouquets of white carnations and pink net.

The church was decorated with white and pink chrysanthemums and carnations.

Mrs. Alma Bohnet, aunt of the bride gave a reception for the couple in the Pioneer room in the Jackson hotel. Mrs. Robert Burgess cut the wedding cake, while Mrs. Bohnet poured punch and Mrs. Millie Ritchson served the coffee.

The bride is employed as a waitress at the Medford Bowling lanes and the bridegroom is employed at Mike's Seat Cover and Upholstery firm. They are living at 728 1/2 East Jackson street. Both attended Talent High school and the bride also attended North Marion High school at Aurora.
