

Miss Reilly Is Bride of James Benson

Eagle Point — Miss Sheila Ann Reilly became the bride of James Darrell Benson in a double ring ceremony New Year's eve at the St. Theresa Catholic church, Palm Springs, Calif. The Rev. Michael O'Donohue officiated.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Neil Reilly, Rialto, Calif. Mr. Benson is a son of Mr. and Mrs. John Benson, Mountain View ranch, Eagle Point.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a short white gown with lace top and chiffon skirt, with blue satin slippers. She wore pearls and her elbow length veil was held by a pearl crown. She carried a bouquet of gardenias and white carnations with blue streamers.

Miss Lynn Gerhart was maid of honor. She wore a blue taffeta frock with blue satin headband which held her veil and she carried a bouquet of white carnations with blue ribbon streamers. James Phillips served as best man.

A reception following the wedding was held at the home of Mrs. George Micklos.

The newlyweds are making their home in Palm Springs following their return from a wedding trip to Las Vegas, Nevada.

The couple was honored by the bride's parents at a reception January 24 in Redlands, Calif.

The bride is a graduate of Palm Springs High school where she was a member of Sigma Phi Omicron honor society. Mr. Benson was graduated from Medford High school and attended Southern Oregon college where he was active in vocal music groups and was affiliated with Tau Kappa.

Leap Year Event Set

Plans for a Leap Year dinner dance will be announced at a meeting of Bethel 14, International Order of Job's Daughters, Wednesday, February 3, at 7:30 p.m., in the Masonic temple, Medford, with Queen Marion Parsons presiding. Officers of the Junior Bethel will assist the queen.

Clarence Smith, guardian of music, has called a choir practice for Monday, February 1, from 6:30 to 7:30 p.m. in the Masonic temple. All choir members are to attend. Queen Marion presided over her first session at the meeting of the Bethel on January 20.

The Bethel, in cooperation with Bethel 55, will hold the dance in the Rogue Valley Country club on Friday, February 19. Dinner at 8 p.m. will be followed by dancing until midnight. This event will honor the junior past queens and the present queens for both Bethels.

Projects for the coming term were announced. The queen's project will be a food sale scheduled for Saturday, February 13. Junior princess Barbara Morton will be in charge of a rummage sale on Saturday, March 5, in the Fehl building. A project to be handled by the senior princess, Miss Carla Borough, will be the mother's tea and style show which is set for Sunday, April 3.

Columbian Squire Circle To Be Instituted Today

A charter class of 17 Columbia Squires will be initiated at 11:30 a.m. today in ceremonies at the Red Cross building.

Ritualistic presentations will be by the Columbian Squires, Mount Hood Circle No. 666, Gresham, Oregon, under the direction of Eugene C. Schwerzer, director of the Knights of Columbus state youth program.

Preceding the institution of the local circle of Squires, the candidates and all Cub and Boy Scouts of Troop 1, along with members of Rogue River council, Knights of Columbus, and their guests will assist at Mass and receive communion corporately in Sacred Heart church.

In attendance at the Mass will be an honor guard composed of local fourth degree members of the Knights of Columbus. Hymns will be sung by seventh and eighth grade girls of St. Mary's school.

Judge to Speak — Judge Edward C. Kelley will deliver the main address at the charter breakfast to be held at the Rogue Valley Country club following the Mass. Also on the program will be greetings by Mayor John W. Snider, Thomas W. Dugan, grand knight of Rogue River council; John L. Hochstatter, district deputy for this area; and Mr. Schwerzer.

The invocation will be offered by the Rev. John A. Ilg, father prior for the new circle. Lowell A. Dupray, chief counselor for the circle, will be master of ceremonies.

Although the Columbian squires program is still in its infancy in Oregon, the youth movement has been sponsored by the Knights of Columbus in other areas since 1925. Open to Catholic boys from 13 to 18 years of age, the organization has the two-fold objective of assisting these young men through the years of adolescence and of developing leadership among older boys by affording them frequent opportunities to assume responsibility, demonstrate initiative and direct their own affairs.

In order to carry out the general aims of this program, the Squires are organized into a unit called a circle, sponsored by a council of Knights of Columbus, and featuring a four-fold program of spiritual, civic-cultural, social and physical activities which supplement the teachings of the church, home and school.

A staff of counsellors from the sponsoring council assists the Squires in carrying out the program which the circle adopts. Besides Father Prior Ilg and Chief Counselor Dupray, counsellors for the local circle include Thomas L. Fell, John E. Hochstatter, Hal W. Krueger, Robert Messer, Leonard D. Meeker and Perry V. Rayburn.

Members of the charter class are Paul Adams, Walton Albert, Ronald Becker, Dennis Bergstrom, Stephen Corliss, Timothy Darland, Thomas Darland, Donald Davy, James Dupray, Michael Ford, Robert Gonzales, Donald Macpherson, Larry Martin, Gerald Spielbusch, Ronnie Spielbusch, Michael Thompson and Patrick Thompson.

The circle has not yet been assigned an official number and the name will be decided upon at a later date.

Following the initiation and institution ceremonies, the candidates, degree team and guests will be served a luncheon by wives of the members of the sponsoring council.
