

Newlyweds Now Home From Coast

Mr. and Mrs. Bobbie L. Bills have returned after a month's stay in Crescent City, Calif., and Gold Beach, Ore. Their wedding was an event of December 29 at 7 o'clock in the evening at the Medford First Methodist church.

Dr. George Roseberry assisted by Dr. J. P. Bray read the double ring ceremony attended by about 125 persons. The bride, the former Jill Ann Filatreau, is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred F. Filatreau, formerly of Medford and now of Moscow, Ida. They were here for the wedding. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Bills of Medford.

Both the bride and bridegroom attended Medford High school and Southern Oregon college and the bridegroom also attended Oregon State college. He is a station agent for United Air lines.

Mr. Filatreau gave his daughter in marriage.

Miss Sue Donna Doolen, a student at Rice institute in Texas, was the organist, and Miss Rosemary Doolen, a student from Willamette university, Salem, was soloist.

The bride's street-length dress was of white lace over taffeta in princess design. She wore a white velvet hat with veil and her bouquet was of white orchids with miniature white hyacinths. Miss Pat Foulon, who attended the bride, wore a street-length dress of mint green brocaded taffeta, also in princess design. She carried small yellow chrysanthemums.

Jim Selby of Yreka, Calif., was best man.

Seating the guests and lighting the candles were Sandra and Susan Filatreau, twin sisters of the bride.

The church was decorated with baskets of shasta daisies, and these flowers also decorated the reception rooms of the church. The punch table was decorated with an arrangement of pink carnations.

Mrs. Jennie Creager cut the cake. Miss Peggy Harney served the coffee and Miss Carol McVay, the punch. Presiding at the guest book were the bride's twin sisters.

The newly married couple are living at 531 1/2 Fairmount street.

A Tribute to the Masons!

All over the world, from Singapore to Savannah, Masons, Shriners and Knights Templar are one noble clan. The pages of American history are illumined with the deeds and leadership of memorable Masons. Indeed, many of our Presidents, from George Washington down to present times, have worn the insignia that proclaims them of this age-old fraternal organization. It has been said that a Mason is invariably a fine man. With sincerest conviction we believe every word of that. We number them among our closest friends and business associates. We salute the integrity and sincerity of the Masonic order!

Far East To Be Topic

Robert Heffernan will show colored slides of the Far East at the Senior Activity Center, Monday, February 1, at 1 p.m. for the Arm Chair Travel group's weekly meeting.

Last week's meeting was cancelled due to the illness of Dr. Jouett Bray who had been scheduled to show pictures of Japan.

Dr. Frank Roberts, leader of the group announces that arrangements have been made for pictures each Monday in February.

Clifford Platz, well known local artist and teacher, will meet with the painting class on Tuesday, February 2 at 1 p.m. He will teach each week during February. The art class is now being conducted as a workshop with different artists volunteering teaching time during the year.

Mrs. Nettie Williams started the series of varied instruction and demonstration of techniques in January, and reports an added interest and enlargement of the class. Several recently retired men and women who have just moved to Medford having joined the group which has been meeting since October, 1958, when Miss Margaret Ossenbruge started the class at the center.

Other teachers and artists who have volunteered to help with the class are Mrs. Ruby Twedell, Mrs. Ena Renker, and Mrs. Tom Staley.

Anyone wishing information on the Senior Center program and activities is invited to visit the building which is now open Monday, Wednesday and Thursday from 1 to 3 p.m. and Thursday from 10 a.m. until 12 noon. The telephone is SPring 2-4163.
