Mrs. Mabel Hundley of Sams Valley will show color slides taken last summer in Russia at a meeting Monday, February 1 at 7:30 p.m., of the Westminster guild of First Presbyterian church in the fireplace room in the church.

The Rev. G. Robert Jack will sing several numbers during the evening and Mrs. Eloise Winklebleck will have charge of devotions. Hostesses will be Mrs. Edna Mole, Mrs. Olive Adams and Mrs. W. W. Coleman.

Synthetic Fabrics, Fibers Top for Extension Units

"Synthetic Fabrics and Fibers" will be the study for all Jackson county home extension units in February.

With the many man-made fabrics on the market today the homemaker needs to know more about them, the extension service believes. The lesson will tell of the properties of the different fabrics and fibers, and the percentage of a certain fiber in a blend of material which is necessary to give the desired quality will be learned. This lesson is designed to help with the buying of clothing and all household furnishings.

Miss Norma Hague, county 4-H extension agent gave the training lesson to the unit project leaders.

Butte Falls

Mrs. Charles Ferguson will be hostess in her home Thursday, February 4 at 10:30 a.m. for the Butte Falls unit, when Mrs. William Hunter and Mrs. Harry Dalton will be the leaders.

Mrs. Ted Fredenburg will give a report on program planning from a recent meeting of the county-wide committee. All women in the vicinity who are interested are invited.

Agate Unit

The Agate unit will have Mrs. D. A. Bever, Gebhard road, as their hostess on Wednesday, February 3 when they will convene at 10 a.m. Mrs. Bever and Mrs. John Small will give the lesson. All interested visitors are invited.

Reese Creek

A white elephant sale will be conducted during the Reese Creek unit meeting scheduled for February 2 at the home of Mrs. Ralph Humphrey, West Eighth street in Eagle Point. Mrs. Humphrey and Mrs. Kenneth Dufour will be the leaders.

Upper Applegate

The Upper Applegate unit and the Lower Applegate unit will convene jointly for their study on February 23 at the Grange hall. The Upper Applegate unit will not meet for their regular meeting on the first Wednesday of the month because of the joint meeting. Further announcements are to be made in regard to the joint meeting.

Lake Creek

Mrs. Charles Ganzel, program planning chairman, will present the program for the Lake Creek unit when they meet Wednesday, February 4 at 10:30 a.m., at the home of Mrs. Carl Webb. The leaders will be Mrs. Willard Welch and Mrs. Leland M. Charley. Any woman in the community who is interested is invited. Information regarding the luncheon menu may be had by calling Mrs. Nora Bradshaw and Mrs. Henry Meyer.

The topic will be presented by Mrs. Lloyd Turner and Mrs. Gary Shaffer.

All women interested in attending are asked to contact Mrs. David Shaffer, telephone Spring 4-274.

Pastor Conducts Installation of Club's Officers

Dr. D. Kirkland West installed new officers of Cruisers' club of First Presbyterian church at the first meeting of the year for the group, held January 25 at the church.

The new officers are Mr. and Mrs. Robert Stokes, skipper; Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Lobdell, first mates; Mr. and Mrs. Veldon Diment, second mates; Mr. and Mrs. Ward Lampkin, pursers; Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wilson, logkeepers; Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Carter, and Mr. and Mrs. Myron Gaston, look-outs; Mr. and Mrs. Jack Sides, chaplains.

The speaker was Mrs. Jack Sanborn, who talked on the early history of the Rogue valley. She told of the Applegate brothers settling in Oregon and of other pioneer families. The Saks family of Saks Fifth Avenue, New York, made their start as merchants in Jacksonville, Mrs. Sanborn said.

She stated that just 109 years ago there were only 27 residents in the Rogue River valley and all of them males.

The first church in Jacksonville was erected in 1854 and used alternately by different religious denominations.

The First Presbyterian church was built in 1881, and the stained glass windows for it came around Cape Horn and were freighted to the valley. They cost $4,000 at that time, Mrs. Sanborn said.

Mrs. Sanborn's great-grandfather served as a banker and sheriff in early day Jacksonville, and she has done considerable research on early days in that town.

At the February meeting, the guest speaker will be Dr. Donald Barnhouse and his wife. He is a world traveler and convention speaker.

Executive Council Announces Meeting

Central Point-A meeting of the executive council of the Women's association of the Central Point Presbyterian church is set for Tuesday, Feb. 2 at 9:30 a.m.

January 21 the Women's Christian Service circle met at the home of Mrs. Homer Jeffries. Mrs. J. Goodin was cohostess.

Devotions were conducted on lessons from the Psalms which will be continued at future meetings.

Mrs. Ben Gardner Gives Benefit Party

Eagle Point—Mrs. Ben Gardner was hostess for a March of Dimes koffeeklatsch at her home on Crater Lake highway Tuesday afternoon. Seventeen women attended the party and $12.65 will be turned over to the March of Dimes from the Reese Creek Home Extension unit.

Nomads Announce Coming Practice

Idella Rogue santia, Nomads Avrudakka will meet Sunday, February 14 for practice for installation of officers which will be conducted on February 20, Edward Bostwick, imperial deputy, has announced.

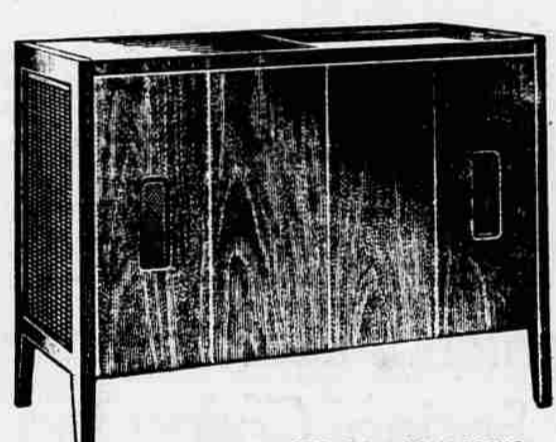

At a recent meeting of the santia, a revelation party of secret Damona pals was held. Mrs. Don Anderson was in charge of refreshments, assisted by Mrs. Polly Offutt, Mrs. Harry Bryant, Mrs. LeRoy Cline and Mrs. Alice Smith.
