

Adult Education Classes to Start In City This Week

Winter term classes sponsored by the adult education department of the Medford school system will start next week. Lindsay Vinsel, director, reminded valley residents Saturday.

Classes with insufficient enrollment at the first meeting will be cancelled, he pointed out. Registration will be at the first session. Most courses are scheduled for 10 weeks.

Among the classes are landscape design, oil painting, basic mosaic, figure and still life drawing, photography, small boat seamanship, beginning judo, mining and prospecting, flower arrangement and blueprint and mechanical drawing in the hobby and craft division.

General Courses

General courses offered include business law, public speaking, business letter writing, world culture, publicity techniques, ancient history, beginning Spanish, and radio workshop.

Homemaking classes scheduled include tailoring, beginning clothing, Bishop clothing, millinery, cake decoration, international foods, and upholstery.

Commercial classes are a briefhand, beginning typing, intermediate typing, beginning shorthand, intermediate shorthand, beginning bookkeeping and business machines.

Three trade preparatory classes are scheduled. They are internal combustion engines, fuel system and carburetion, and automotive chassis.

Senior Training Program Set by CAP

A senior training program sponsored by the Medford composite squadron of the Civil Air Patrol will start the second Tuesday each month, the local CAP unit has announced.

CAP is the civilian auxiliary of the Air Force. Included in the program are photography, radio networks, cadet training, link trainer facilities, and search and rescue procedure.

Senior Training Officer John Hall invited all interested residents to participate in the program.

The adult education office at Medford High school, telephone SP 3-5341.
