Quips and Quotes

The woman motorist was driving along an isolated country road when she noticed several repairmen climbing a telephone pole.
 "You men make me mad," she shouted at her startled husband. "I know my driving isn't that bad!"

—A. W. Stinson

Simple Recipe for Utopia

Take wages of today and mix
 1932 prices and then
 Dividends of 1926
 And taxes of 1910.

—Shirley Jo Bennett

Out But Not Down

Give me a frozen mountainside,
 A place where sleds will really slide!
 Give me a day that's bleak and chill,
 Throw in a snowstorm, if you will;
 Give me all this and tell you what,
 Abandoning my fireside rut,
 I'll take the kids out in the snow—
 And pick them up in an hour or so!

—Dick Emmons

"How do you like this one, dear?" the husband asked as he tried on a new suit in the men's wear department.

His wife eyed the fit at the waist and shook her head. "Better get a smaller size," she advised.

"But a smaller size would be too tight," he protested.

"Oh, no," she explained. "I'm going on a diet next week."

—Ken Kraft

It would speed things up if the census takers put all the presidential hopefuls in one corner and just counted the few of us left.

—John Shotwell

"Sir, I have invested part of my salary in company stock every week for the past 23 years, and I now own controlling interest, KNUCKLEHEAD!"
