

Your Independent
Insurance Agent...

WHY IS HE IMPORTANT TO YOU?

The insurance business is complicated and technical, and merits the full time attention of dedicated, professional men. These men must be attuned to the local community and be able to serve the needs of local clients in all matters relating to insurance coverages.

The men who proudly display the Big "I," the Independent Insurance Agents' emblem pictured below, are just such men! They are independent professional men who typify our American free enterprise system. They are the small-business men that economists have looked to over the years to provide the vitality needed in our dynamic economy.

More than this — your Independent Insurance Agent is your personal representative in dealing with the large insurance companies to take care of all your insurance requirements.

He serves you first, last and in all ways! Your Independent Insurance Agent owes allegiance only to YOU, his client, in dealing with the insurance companies. It is this type of LOCAL insurance counseling that merits your continued support.

We know you'll like doing business with your local Independent Insurance Agent
