SOUTHERN OREGON CONFERENCE STANDINGS:

Team	W.	L.	Pct.

Klamath Falls	6	2	.750
Grants Pass	3	5	.375
Crater	3	5	.375
Ashland	0	8	.000

Central Point-Crater high basketball team outscored Ashland in the first and third quarters and broke even with the Grizzlies in the second and fourth here Saturday night to capture a Southern Oregon conference victory by 61 to 43.

The Comets had four men in double scoring figures to Ashland's two, had sharper field shooting and had the edge in recovering the ball under the backboards in shaping their third decision in the circuit and their second win this year over the Grizzlies.

Crater with its 3-5 status in the loop gained a knot for third place in the standings with Grants Pass which dropped a 78 to 69 to verdict at Klamath Falls also on Saturday. Ashland, yet to win a conference fray, suffered its eighth loss as the clubs reached the halfway point of the loop.

The Central Point contingent was the opportunistic club in the scuffle here — more alert to take advantage of its chances, although they did not always pay off.

Earl Cooper and Dennis Edwards each had 13 points for the Comets. Chuck Turner tallied 11 and Loy Higginbotham put in 10. Steve Gray, making his 1960 starting debut, and Harley Dickerson each sank 11 counters. Turner controlled 14 rebounds and Edwards nine while Dave Sharp, Cooper, Tom White and Higginbotham each picked up six for aggressive Crater's good edge on the boards. Bob Hardy had eight retrieves and Phil Tucker eight for Ashland.

The Comets never were good after 2-11 and 3-11 ties, good after 2-11 and 3-11 ties. After an 8 to 7 count, they held the Grizzlies scoreless for 3½ minutes and gained a 17 to 7 first quarter bulge. Gap was 19 to 7 right after the second quarter began. But Ashland came up to within four points at 20 to 16. Crater got going again and each team had 13 points for the period. Halftime difference was 30 to 20.

Victory was really tucked away in the third frame when the Comets pushed through 16 markers while limiting Ashland to eight. In 5½ minutes of the period, Crater ran its margin to 18 points at 40 to 22. The Grizzlies narrowed it to 14 at 40 to 26 but by the end of the panel the bulge was 18 again at 46 to 28. The Comet spread up to 20 points at 48 to 28 second into the fourth quarter. It slipped to 15 points at 50 to 35. Then Sharp, Edwards and Turner flipped in field baskets and Cooper two free throws for Crater while Dickerson added a goal for Ashland. That made the margin its widest of the night, 21 markers, at 58 to 37.

With 22 field goals, Crater had a .393 firing average. Ashland put in 14 buckets and hit at .259.

Comet jayvees employed a zone press to advantage in beating their Ashland counterpart 47 to 27 in the preliminary. Crater had 11 to 6, 23 to 15 and 34 to 23 quarter gaps. Jim Allen led the Comets with 16 points.

Red Raiders Oppose San Francisco Club

Ashland - Revenge is on the minds of the varsity hoopmen at Southern Oregon college as they prepare to take on San Francisco State college Tuesday at 8:15 p.m. in the Raider basketball castle.

SOC's junior Raiders will host the high scoring Hawk-inson's team from Medford who set an independent league record by scoring 117 points last week. Game time for the junior affair is 6:30 p.m.

Coach Ted Schopf's Red Raiders will be fresh for the encounter after a week of rest. The visiting Gators will have played three games in the past five days. SFS tangled with the University of San Francisco Thursday and lost 70-51 before traveling to Arcata, Calif. for a two-game week end series with Humboldt State.

The battle with Humboldt was for the Far Western conference lead which the Gators held prior to the series.

SOC will go with its usual lineup of high scoring Gordy Carrigan and Brad Flanary at guards, Glen Peterson at center, and John Payne and Don Vannice at forwards.

San Francisco plans to start the Caranica twins, Jim and Nick, at guard, Bill Purcell and John Christgau at forward, and Mahlon Harmon at center.

Jim Caranica at 5-8 is the top scorer on the club with over 200 points in 16 games. Center Harmon is the leading rebounder and these two players are the main Gator threats. Caranica is a deadly driver and has a jump shot which makes up for his lack of height.

The back door play is the other threat Schopf is having to teach his club to be ready for as it was one of the main weapons that sunk the men of SOC last year in a single game in the Bay area. This is where the guard drives the corner and the offensive forward hesitates just before moving quickly for the basket to take a pass from the guard.

Following this non-conference encounter, the Raiders will play two games with Eastern Oregon college here in Ashland next Friday and Saturday.

Raider scoring for 16 games:

Player	FG	FT	TP	Ave.	REB
Carrigan	32	55	23	14.5	103
Payne	27	158	10	19.0	190

Smith	32	35	98	5.4	100

Vannice	27	18	72	4.5	66
Bernert	23	9	55	3.7	37
Phib	12	17	41	2.7	33

Skate Title Captured By Jenkins

Seattle - (UP) - Cute Carol Heiss and dynamic David Jenkins, both a pair of four-time national winners, set their sights today on an Olympic Games figure skating gold medal.

Miss Heiss, 20, of New York City, easily wrapped up her fourth title in senior ladies competition in the four-day National Figure Skating Meet.

Jenkins, a 23-year-old medical student from Colorado Springs, Colo., climaxed the tournament here Saturday with a spectacular display of free style skating.

It enabled the 5-6, 135-pound dynamo to overtake Tim Brown of Los Angeles in the senior men's division. Brown held a narrow lead over Jenkins after completion of the school figures which account for 60 per cent of a contestant's total.

Nancy and Ronald Ludington, a terrific husband-wife duo from Boston, also won an Olympic bid with a victory in senior pairs as did second place Maribel Owen and Dudley Richards, Boston, and the third place team, Ila Ray and Ray Hadley, Jr., Seattle.

St. Mary's Nudges IV Stanford

Two Jackson County B league basketball frays are set for Tuesday evening. Talent high plays St. Mary's at Medford and Butte Falls vies at Prospect.

That phrase, "the skin of its teeth," applied twice this week end to the St. Mary's high basketball team.

Roger Hout dropped in the tying and winning points on separate trips to the free line Saturday night as the Crusaders nosed out Illinois Valley 49 to 43 in a non-league game at Cave Junction. On Friday night St. Mary's had barely nicked Butte Falls 46 to 45 on a last second goal.

Hout put in his second shot of a two-shot chance with five seconds left for the winning marker at Cave Junction. IV, which had trailed 33 to 40 at the third quarter rest, went ahead of the Medford team 48 to 47 in the closing moments. Then a Hout gifter tied it at 48-48.

IV headed 15 to 10 at the quarter and St. Mary's 27 to 24 at the half of the rough game. Dick Evans had 17 points for SM and Doug Lewis 13 for the Cougars.

The Crusaders put in only seven of 21 free tries to IV's 12 of 20 but beat the Cougars from the field 21 to 18. St. Mary's is now 11-2 in win loss record for the season.

TAKE FOUR-BALL

Hollywood, Fla. - (UP) - Joanne Goodwin and Doris Phillips held the women's International Four-ball Golf championship today and for Miss Goodwin the victory was doubly sweet. She and Miss Phillips defeated Judy Bell and Barbara McIntire 2 and 1 to win the championship Sunday.

Chieftains Take Freshman Mix

Rogue River-Howard Tomlinson collected 20 points and Jack Salters 16 Saturday night in a Rogue River high freshman 49 to 40 basketball win over Glendale. Bowen had 17 for the Glendale club.
