California Takes Top Cage Spot

New York—UPI—California's defending NCAA basketball champions Tuesday cracked Cincinnati's eight-week grip on first place in United Press International's major college ratings.

Coach Pete Newell's Golden Bears, who believe the best offense is a good defense, collected 19 first-place votes and a total of 330 points in the latest balloting by the 35 leading coaches who rate the major schools for UPI, Cincinnati, which had held first place since the season began, slipped to second with 13 first-place votes and 322 points.

California reached the top after holding second place the past four weeks. The Bears have a 16-1 record and lead the major teams in defense.

Bradley, which had to battle for an overtime road victory over Marquette Saturday night, moved from fourth to third. West Virginia, beaten by William and Mary in last week end's big upset, slipped from third to fifth. Ohio State advanced from fifth to fourth to complete a shuffle involving each of the five top-ranked teams.

There were no changes in the lower half of the top 10. Georgia Tech remained sixth, Villanova seventh, Utah eighth, Texas A&M ninth and Utah State 10th.

North Carolina again headed the second 10 group. Dayton moved from 18th to 12th. Southern California was 13th, Kansas State 14th and St. Louis 15th. St. Joseph's Pa., St. Bonaventure, Indiana and Kentucky, Southern Methodist and Iowa State tied for 16th.

Beaver Coach Returns Home

Corvallis—UPI—Stats Gill, Oregon State basketball coach returned here Tuesday afternoon to continue his convalescence from a heart attack suffered in Seattle Jan. 11.

Gill and his wife drove here after spending Monday night in Portland. He was released from Providence hospital in Seattle Monday.

The 57-year-old mentor will remain at his home for a week with no visitors and then start gradual exercises next week to build back his strength.

Assistant Coach Paul Valenti has been handling the Beavers in Gill's absence.

SUGAR RESURRECTED

New York—UPI—The Ring magazine resurrected Sugar Ray Robinson today and named him co-challenger for the middleweight crown, along with Gene Fullmer.

Only 24 hours previously, the National Boxing Association's latest ratings had buried champion Robinson in fifth place among the contenders.

SF Staters Defeat Red Raider Quint

Ashland — San Francisco State college used a more effective fast break and sharper goaling from the field and free line to dump Southern Oregon 75 to 55 here last night in non-league basketball.

The visiting Gators were on top 34 to 26 at the half. SOC closed the spread to 34 to 30 but the Californians rambled away after that. SF took an early 10 to 1 jump. The Red Raiders hacked the count to 10 to 8 but the Gators boomed to 19 to 8.

Jim Caranica put in 20 points and Jim Brown 18 for San Francisco and Dick Smith 15 and Gordon Carrigan 13 for the home club. Brown paced rebounding with 15 grabs and Smith had 12 retrievals for SOC.

SF outshot the Raiders 26 of 63 to 22 of 70 from the field and 24 of 31 to 11 of 30 from the gift stripe. The Gators had 47 to 40 rebound advantage.

Managers To Appeal Life Ban

New York—UPI—A "terribly shocked" Joe Netro and partner Johnny DeJohn, who co-managed ex-champion Carmen Basilio, were to confer with an attorney about possibilities of appealing their lifetime ban by the New York State Athletic Commission.

In an unusually severe ruling, the commission Monday barred them for life from the fight game in New York state for having paid $55,000 during the past four years to Gabe Genovese of Syracuse, N.Y., an undercover manager-matchmaker.

A favorable ruling by the NBA would permit Netro and DeJohn to manage fighters outside New York state.

Meanwhile, promoter Norman Rothschild of Syracuse, N.Y., who was fined $2,000, a separate but simultaneous decision by the commission Monday, said: "I will abide by the decision. I'll stay in boxing and put all engines full speed ahead in making matches."

Rothschild was fined $1,000 and his Arena Club was fined $1,000 because he admitted paying $10,000 to Genovese for his help in making a Basilio-Johnny Saxton welterweight title fight, Sept. 12, 1956.

Big Benny the dam builder had been in a trap once before during his younger days, which may have accounted for his unerring craftiness in avoiding the trapper's sets throughout his later life.

All through his years on the Chetco, Benny the Beaver carried an ear tag, put there by the game commission during an extensive beaver live-trapping and transplanting program. Records disclose the big male beaver had been live-trapped on the Pistol river, ear-tagged and transplanted to the Chetco in 1948.

Two-Ply Title Card Thursday

Los Angeles—UPI—Raymundo (Battling) Torres feels he was born under a lucky star and the good fortune should continue when he meets junior welterweight champion Calos Ortiz here Thursday night for the championship.

The Torres-Ortiz title fight is doublebilled with the championship match between bantamweight titlist Jose Becerra of Mexico and Alphonse Halimi of France in the Coliseum.

Bayliss-Elliott Duo Darkhorse In Tournament

Galen Sanner and Ray Stewart are still leading the holiday handicap golf tourney at Rogue Valley Country club with a total of 26 points.

Last weekend they beat Leonard Schilt and Curt Hopkins for two points. They also beat Warren Bayliss and Bob Elliot by one hole.

Bob Tassel and Herman Duncan are in second place with a total of 17. Their big victory this last week was for four points when they beat Bob Lockwood and Bob Hood.

A dark horse team are Bayliss and Elliott. Although they lost a point to Sanner and Stewart, they came back to take seven from Bob Voegtli and Bill Cowling, last years champions. This put Bayliss and Elliott in third place with 15 points.

Ranny Smith and Tom Teutsch were idle this last week and are still in fourth spot with 13.

In the low net department there is a new leading team. Last week Max Hillhollin and Ned Schuler shot a 61 against Bayard Getchell and Ken Teeters.
