Fifty-two players competed. Other north-south winners were Mrs. Glenn Harrison and Mrs. A. W. Lingaas, second; Mrs. H. J. Boyd and Paul A. Hatton, third; and Mrs. C. L. Howard and Mrs. Fred Rehling, fourth.

Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Coodes, Wilderville, Ore., were second place winners for east-west, while Mrs. J. S. Winslow, Mrs. R. T. Jones, Mrs. Frank Perl and Mrs. Ivan Harrington tied for third and fourth.

Nearly 85 per cent of all births in the United States are to women 18 to 34 years old.

Miss Mary Ellen Bell, public health nurse with the Jackson County Public Health department for many years, left Tuesday by plane for Europe where she plans to spend the next several months. This is Miss Bell's second trip abroad in recent years, and this time she plans to visit many orphanages and refugee camps. The camps for the most part will be those in which the World Council of Churches has an interest. The nurse plans first to visit in Spain, Italy, the island of Elba, Yugoslavia, Austria, Germany and Switzerland. Later she will travel in the Low Countries, in France and in the British islands. Miss Bell, who sponsors the education of a boy who lives near Vienna, also plans to visit the boy and his family. Before departure, Miss Bell was honored at a party given by Mrs. Douglas Lamb and Mrs. Harvey Beatty at the Lamb home for Madrona lane neighbors of the nurse. Decorations were in the European theme, and Miss Bell was presented gifts.

West Side Given Tree

Arbor day will be observed by West Side school students, teachers and members of the West Side Mothers' club in a meaningful manner Friday, February 12, Herbert G. Wing, principal, announced.

At 11 a.m. on that day a pink dogwood tree will be planted in front of the school by the children with the assistance of James W. Irby of the maintenance department of the Medford School district.

The tree was presented by Bonnie and Mary Cheney in memory of their many happy experiences as former pupils of West Side. A short program is also planned by the students.

The planting ceremony marks the initial step towards completion of the Mothers' club project for this year, that of landscaping the front of the school. The project was undertaken by the club following a contribution by Mr. and Mrs. Francis Cheney for that purpose. Members of the landscaping committee are Mrs. Robert L. Kagy, Mrs. Richard Watson and Mrs. Dwight Wilson.
