Frightened Man Stopped by Police

Saddle Brook, N.Y. - UPB - Police found Walter Popcorn, 44, running down a street Tuesday night and stopped the frightened man to ask what had happened.

He said he had been painting a cage at an animal farm owned by Ringling Bros. circus when a leopard reached out and clawed him. He was not hurt seriously.

Grange News

Central Point Grange
Members from nine Granges in Jackson county attended the regular meeting of Central Point Grange Feb. 5. Visiting masters present were Herman Kamping, Griffin Creek Grange; Ori Moore, Roxy Ann; Pomona and Eagle Point Master Robert Bitterling; Lloyd Lacey, Phoenix; A. A. Walker, Gold Hill; Gail Buffington, Applegate; and Frank Hall, Live Oak. Visiting Grangers total 83.

The lecturer, Mrs. Homer Jeffries, presented a program which included Otis Swisher of Medford, with Mrs. Effie Kurtz accompanying him, an original poem by Mrs. Scott Hamilton, and group singing, directed by Swisher.

The charter was draped in memory of Mrs. Gene McCurley. Committee reports were given by Arnold Bohner, agriculture; Dee Hendrickson, horticulture; Edwing Gebhard, legislative and finance; Mrs. Lottie Cingade, reception; Mrs. Dee Hendrickson, relief.

HEC chairman, Mrs. O. T. Wilson, announced the open house scheduled Friday, Feb. 12, starting at 7 p.m. with a potluck supper for Grangers and friends. The lecturer, Mrs. Jeffries, has arranged the program and Mrs. Gaston Flux, recreation chairman, has planned square dancing.

All Grangers attending are asked to bring food and table service.

Mrs. Wilson reminded members to bring coffee bands. A collection of handmade silver jewelry, tools and pattens was exhibited on the display by Mrs. Edwin Gebhard.

Mrs. Douglas Decker was given the third and fourth degree obligation by the Master Benton Boyce. Insurance agent Roscoe Roberts reported.

NO GOLF TODAY - As the Russian river crested anywhere from 20 to 35 feet around Guerneville, Calif., residents evacuated the lowlands for higher, dryer ground. The roving photographer got hungry, saw the sign and decided to try a "deluxe" with everything, but the flood waters beat him to it, closing most of the shops, restaurants and even the golf course. By the way, he's still looking for the "Narrow Bridge."

FACTORY DAMAGED - Pillars of flame mark small buildings of the Havre De Grace Fireworks company at Havre De Grace, Md., and firefighters flee behind trucks as an ominous rumble signaled an explosion which a few seconds later levelled the main building, center left. Successive blasts claimed all but two of the 15 buildings, causing damage estimated at a million dollars and claiming the life of the owner, James Fabrizio, 35.

Try and Stop Me

By BENNETT CERF

A WEALTHY LADY, very avant garde, had her portrait painted by an abstractionist. "It's the best thing I've ever done," he said modestly when he delivered the finished portrait, "although I'm not too pleased with the way your nose turned out."

"Why don't you change it?" "Frankly," admitted the abstractionist, "I can't find it."

A dramatic star lunched at Sardi's with his wife and small daughter one Wednesday, and at a quarter to two arose from the table to go to his matinee.

"Daddy," pouted his daughter, "aren't you going shopping with us?"

"Can't, darling," explained the actor. "I have to go to work."

"Oh, daddy," she wailed, "aren't you an actor any more?"

Sign on the outside door of a local finance corporation: "Keep this door closed. Remember it's your money that pays for heating these premises."
