

Realty Board to Hear Consultant On Development

Chester A. Moores, Portland, governor's consultant to the Oregon department of planning and development, will address the regular meeting of the Medford Realty board at noon Friday, Feb. 12, at Rogue Valley Country club.

The meeting is part of the group's education for this year. William Frohnmayer is president.

Moores has announced his retirement as vice president of Commonwealth, Inc., in order to devote part time to the state job. He announced that he will work with all realtors in industrial development and appraisals "without having any operating ties with his old company," the realty board reported. He will remain on the corporation's board of directors.

He is past president of the Oregon society of industrial realtors, the chamber of commerce, Portland Rose Festival, Oregon and Portland Realty associations and is a First Citizen of Portland in recognition of his civic and business activities.

Other Business
Other business at the meeting include a vote on an amendment to the group's constitution and by-laws to allow salesmen to become active members of the board.

At the last meeting, E. L. Bartholemew was appointed head of the ethics committee with Ralph Bell, Ivan Peoples, Bob Hart, Mary Maass, Cap Vandagriff, Chris Barker as members. H. O. Martin was named chairman of the arbitration committee, with Norman Spencer, Clark Walker, Gordon McKenzie and Bill Pelsler, members.

Mrs. Bertha Gammill and Bob Hart will be in charge of membership; Harry Marshal and Wallace Watkins, publicity; Bob Stokes, public affairs and resolutions; Vandagriff, program, Frohnmayer and Don Herried; commercial development, John Weisbrod; and newspaper advertising, Wally Watkins.

Objectives for 1960 which were selected by the board of directors include active membership status for salesmen, active educational program, more effective newspaper advertising, and a commercial development program.

EP Students Plan Dance Friday Night

Eagle Point—Eighth grade students of Mrs. Larry Davis are sponsoring a Teens Against Polio Valentine dance Friday, Feb. 12, in the Eagle Point school gymnasium from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m.

Merle and Delvin Ford will sing a few songs. Refreshments will be served by Patsy Sutton, Nancy Walton and Viola Miller. Cookies will be brought by Donna Geren, Donald Hanscom, Barbara Jo Wilson, Richard Anderson, Richard Cowden, Ellen Hay and Rusty Clave.

Valentine designs will decorate the gym. Members of the decorating committee are Donna Geren, Willard Ayres, Linda Wietman, Ellen Hay, Donald Hanscom, Pamela Stevens, Frank Charley, Richard Anderson and Rusty Clave.

The dance will be semi-formal and proceeds will go to the March of Dimes.

Students of Mrs. Ann Briggs are building bird houses at school. A previous announcement stating that Mrs. Emily Gregg's students were building the houses was in error.

AUTOMATIC PICKER
Trenton, N.J.—UPI—Automation replaced a thousand potato pickers in New Jersey last year, the state Agriculture Department has reported. The department said 37 per cent of the state's potato crop was harvested by machine in 1959. Most of the displaced workers, the agency said, were farm laborers from the southern states.

PORT CAPTAIN DIES
Teaneck, N.J.—UPI—Capt. Clifton H. Keaton, 57, port captain of the American Export Lines in New York, died Tuesday.
