

Hatfield Expects To Cooperate With Neuberger on Dunes

By A. ROBERT SMITH
Mail Tribune
Washington Correspondent
Washington—(Special)—Gov. Mark Hatfield expects that he and Sen. Richard L. Neuberger (D-Ore.) will be able to "work together" on legislation to authorize a National Seashore in Oregon Dunes area of the scenic Oregon coast.

Hatfield has talked with Neuberger by telephone about the park bill his natural resources committee drafted, and which Neuberger has introduced in the Senate.

The governor declined to set forth what points of his proposed bill he would agree to modify. Neuberger, on introducing the measure, said there were several points that concerned him as impractical, but would leave it up to the National Park Service to determine what changes should be made in the governor's bill.

Hatfield said this method of reaching agreement was suitable to him. He noted that he has conferred with Park Service officials from San Francisco who assured him they felt his bill was basically workable. The governor also said he had confidence in Interior Secretary Fred A. Seaton's rulings on the details of the legislation.

Question Discussed
This was a reference to Seaton's jurisdiction over the Park Service. Any suggested changes in the governor's bill by the Park Service will have to be cleared by Seaton. Hatfield said he has discussed the question with Seaton, but not during this visit to Washington. Hatfield was here to testify before the Civil Aeronautics Board in favor of dual airline service between Portland-Seattle and Hawaii. Hatfield also conferred by telephone here with Rep. Charles O. Porter (D-Ore.) who is sponsoring the Oregon Dunes proposal in the House. Porter has not yet introduced Hatfield's bill, but has sent it to the Interior department for comment before taking further action.

Legislative action on the seashore question is not expected until Sen. Neuberger returns from his current rest period in Oregon. Just before going to Oregon for a medical checkup, Neuberger had scheduled a legislative strategy meeting with other senators sponsoring similar legislation for National Seashores in their states. Among them are Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson (D-Tex.) and Sen. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass.).

Would Assure Action
Hatfield said Neuberger had informed him of this. The governor said it appeared that Johnson's interest would assure Senate action on seashore bills.

Governor Hatfield said he plans to return to Washington next month for the annual dinner sponsored by the Grid-iron Club, an organization of veteran newspapermen which usually draws all the top political dignitaries in the nation's capital, often including the president. Principal speaker for the Democrats is to be Sen. Stuart Symington, and for the Republicans, Mark Hatfield.

France Warns on Test Site Flights

Paris—(UPI)—Aviation companies received an official warning today to restrict commercial flights over the French atomic test area in the western Sahara commencing Saturday morning.

The warning strengthened reports that France's first atomic bomb was ready to go off at any moment.

Restrictions of flights over the Sahara test area has been imposed several times in recent weeks but each was a practice alert.

Premier Michel Debre announced 24 hours ago, in a talk with newsmen, that France's plans to set off the blast actually were "more advanced" than originally expected.

A day before Debre's disclosure well-informed scientific sources said French technicians at Reggane, the secret Sahara atomic testing site, were waiting only for favorable wind currents before setting off the blast.

Search Continues For Housewife

Olympia, Wash.—(UPI)—An all-day search Thursday of sections of the Centralia hydroelectric canal near Yelm failed to turn up a clue of the fate of a housewife missing from her farm home since Monday.

The nine-mile canal was drained after Sheriff Clarence Van Allen theorized that the body of Mrs. Emelie Mercier, 42-year-old mother of six, may have been hidden in it.

Discovery of blood stains in the woman's home near Yelm touched off a widespread search for Mrs. Mercier.
