

MEDFORD MAIL TRIBUNE

MEDFORD, OREGON, SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 14, 1960

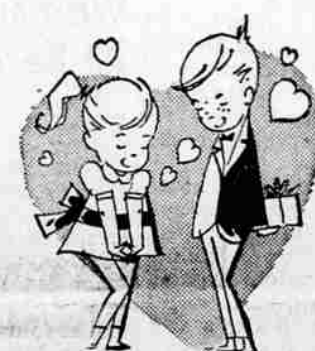

Sweethearts

Since St. Valentine's day is one dedicated to love and romance, engagements announced at this time are of special significance. Announced today is the engagement of Miss Patricia Anne Rukovina, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert S. Rukovina, 238 South Oakdale avenue, to Melvyn Cohen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Cohen, Washington, D. C. The bride-elect attended Medford High school and was graduated from Oregon State college in 1958. She has been employed in the national capital the past year as an accountant. Mr. Cohen, a graduate of Benjamin Franklin university in Washington, is on the staff of Paskins and Kernus, certified public accountants. The wedding is planned for May 29 in Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Robertson, 1020 West Eleventh street, announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Vicki Robertson, to Richard G. Graves, Grants Pass. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Goodwin of that city. Both Miss Robertson and her fiancé are students at Southern Oregon college, Miss Robertson being enrolled in elementary education and Mr. Graves in general studies. The couple plans a summer wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. Dean Warren, Selma, Ore., have made known the engagement of their daughter, Dorothy Joanne, to Marvin Arnold Throne, Gold Hill, son of Mrs. Paul A. Throne of Gold Hill and the late Mr. Throne. Miss Warren was graduated from Illinois Valley High school in 1950 and from Southern Oregon college in 1954. She has taught in Springfield, Ore., for the past six years. Mr. Throne is a graduate of Gold Hill High school and of Southern Oregon college, where he received a degree in 1951. He is now enrolled in the SOC graduate school. Mr. Throne is employed as a music and special education teacher at Hanby and Patrick Elementary schools in Gold Hill. The wedding is planned for June 18. (Maderne photo.)

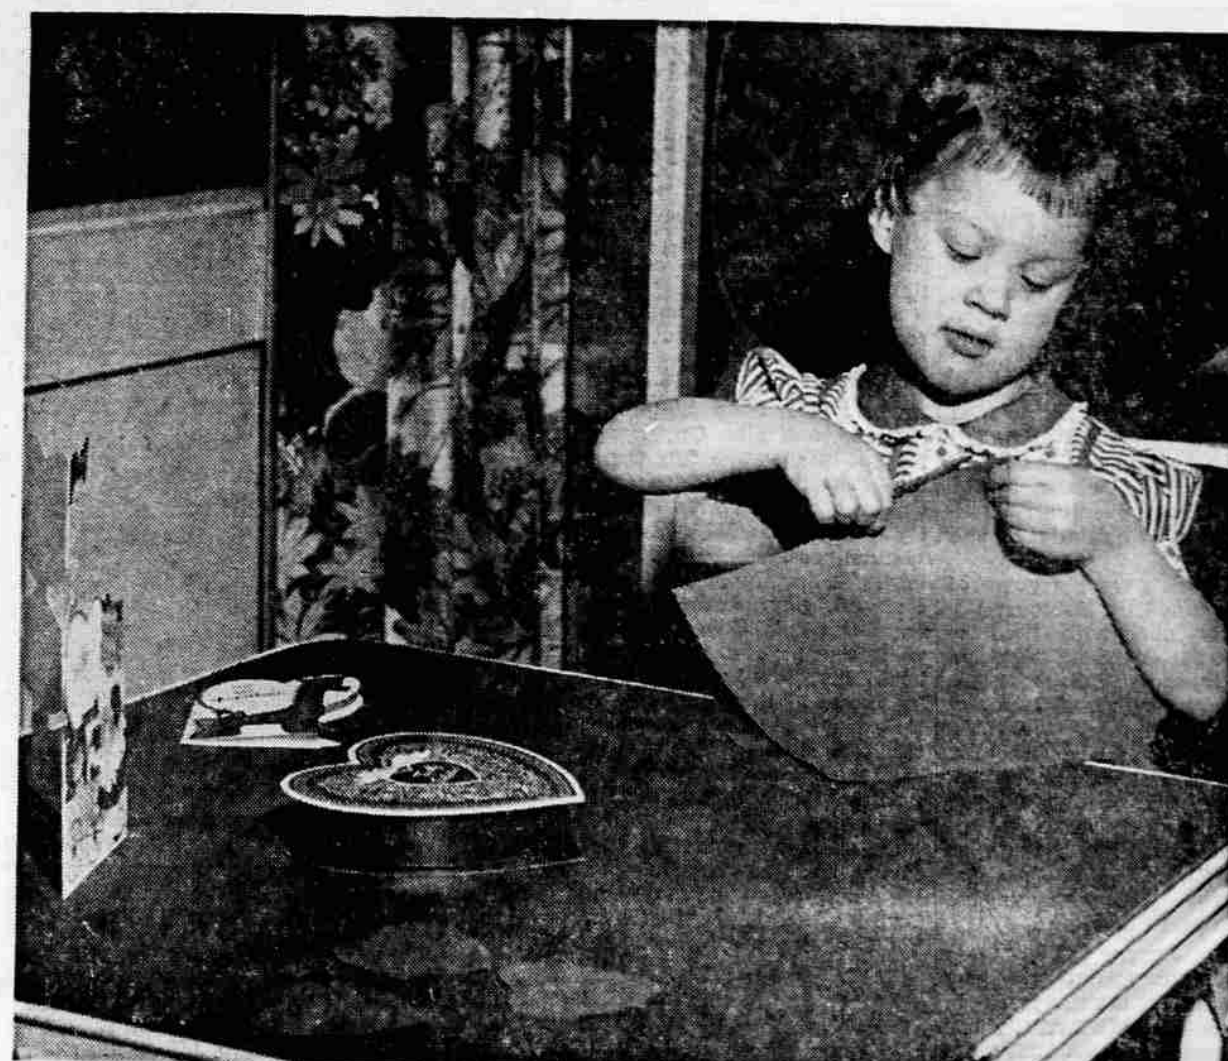

Another "family sweetheart" is Carol Allen, who is celebrating her fifth birthday today. Carol, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Allen, 349 Black Oak drive, also has two older brothers, Bill, 10, and Jim 9. Carol, who has blue eyes and brown hair, wore her new green and white birthday dress for her picture and posed with her heart-shaped birthday cake, baked by her mother, which will be served at a family dinner today. Mr. Allen is a Medford police officer. (Knackstedt photo.)

Miss Donna Louise Witter is the betrothed of Barry James Roberts, Portland. Miss Witter is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George C. Witter, 843 West Second street, and Mr. Roberts is the son of James Brunt, Norwich, England. News of the engagement was first revealed to friends January 10 at an afternoon party in Portland. A nosegay of white carnations and yellow roses was tied with a ribbon which held the names of the engaged couple. Miss Witter attended Medford schools and Whitworth college, Spokane. She is a teacher in Parkrose schools, Portland. Mr. Roberts, who formerly lived in Derbyshire, England, recently completed duty with the Royal Marine Band of England. He is now employed in Portland. An August wedding is planned. (Landis photo.)

Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Rawlings, Route 4, Box 405, Medford, announce the engagement of their daughter, Nellie R. Chick, to Jim Grey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herb Grey, 42 South Barneburg road, Medford. The bride-elect attended Medford High school and Robertson's School of Business and is employed by William Dawkins and Associates. Mr. Grey is on the staff of the display advertising department of the Medford Mail Tribune. He is a graduate of Medford High school and Whitworth college in Spokane. The wedding is planned for late May. (Landis photo.)

A "little sweetheart" is Virginia Polski, who will celebrate her third birthday anniversary today. Blue-eyed Virginia, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George R. Polski, 1501 Lenora drive, wore a valentine dress of red and white to pose for her picture. Virginia has two older brothers, Robert, 9, and Richard 11. The Polskis came to Oregon from Nebraska. (Knackstedt photo.)