

Karen Warner, James Wolfe Reign Over Annual Banquet

Miss Karen Warner and James Wolfe were crowned queen and king of the Hi-N-Y at the annual banquet Thursday evening of the high school youth of First Church of the Nazarene.

Crowning Queen Karen was Janet Bohl, past queen. Ron Warner, 1959 king and president of the Hi-N-Y, crowned King James. The queen is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Warner, 796 Ellen avenue. Mrs. Helen Wolfe, Eagle Point, is the mother of the king.

Attendants were Jerry Anderson, Calvin Dean, Hazel Rawlings, and Mary Stiehl. More than 50 Nazarene youth attended the annual event. The king and queen selection is made by Hi-N-Y members during the two months prior to the banquet. Girls who attend the Sunday evening meetings vote for their selection as king and the boys for the queen. The votes are then tallied for the eight week period.

Pink and white streamers decorated the hall for the banquet and pink cheesecloth draperies on white formed the background for the crowning ceremonies. Silver hearts sprayed with pink snow hung from the ceiling and manzanita bushes sprayed pink and white pampas grass contributed by A. C. Carter, Jacksonville, decorated the activities building. Hearts at each place at the tables were the menus and programs.

Following the banquet prepared by Mrs. Fred Warner and her committee, a program was held. Mrs. Rex Goble sang a solo to the queen and king during the crowning accompanied by Miss Marilyn Sheperd. Mrs. Harold M. Sanner played two piano selections and the program also included several vocal ensembles and readings.

District Convention Plans Formulated at Board Session

Plans for the annual convention of First District Oregon Federation of Women's clubs, were made by district board members at a meeting held in the women's Civic club house in Ashland, Wednesday, February 10.

The convention will be Thursday, March 24, in the First Methodist church, Laurel and Main street, Medford.

Mrs. Carl W. Peterson, First District president, presided.

Mrs. Gertrude Bartlett, state historian and District chairman of poetry, opened the meeting with a spiritual reading. Mrs. Clay M. Lee, Medford, state and district chairman for trade and aid, and president of Travel Study club, held the group in the flag salute. Mrs. Peterson gave an address of welcome, and introduced three state officers: Mrs. John L. Holmes, Medford, state chairman of crime prevention and chairman of American home department for the district; Mrs. Bartlett, and Mrs. Lee.

Parliamentary rules that were made at the 1959 Federation convention in Roseburg were read.

Mrs. Holmes told of a "Day in Court" for the clubs, which will take place March 8. This is a nation wide in the Federation.

The remainder of the morning session was spent making the convention plans.

There will be a president's panel, with Mrs. Lee as moderator, and an international panel, with Mrs. Stephen Sabo, Ashland, moderator.

The morning session was adjourned, and a no-host luncheon was served at a gay valentine table by Mrs. Hendrixson, Mrs. Foster and Mrs. Russell. Centering the table was an arrangement of jasmine and pussy willows. Hearts and pussy willows decorated the room.

Mrs. Peterson opened the afternoon session with presidents' reports from Mrs. Lee, Travel Study club; Mrs. William E. Sweet, Medford Junior Women's club; Mrs. Earl Boyd, Cave Junction, Illinois Valley Federated Women's club; Mrs. Lynabel Deck, Rogue River; Mrs. Ray Burnette, Talent Federated Women's club, Talent; and Mrs. Widener Hendrixson, Ashland Civic club, Ashland.

Mrs. Bartlett gave three poems, two having been written by Mrs. Bartlett. Mrs. Roy Nye, chairman of art, gave a report, and Mrs. H. J. Stephens, chairman of conservation of natural resources, and second vice-president, talked on conservation; Mrs. Ralph Chapin, chairman of public affairs, gave a complete report on Indian affairs, and told of articles sent to the Indian children at Christmas.

Mrs. Peterson appointed Mrs. William H. White, past district president, Rogue River, Mrs. Boyd, Cave Junction, and Mrs. Marshall Cornett, Klamath Falls, on the nominating committee. Election of officers for District 1 will be held at the coming convention.

Jaycettes Plan Show

Eagle Point — Mrs. Ralph Humphries was elected chairman of the annual style show and tea at a recent meeting of Eagle Point Jaycettes. Mrs. Humphries selected her committee and date of the show is set for April 8, at the Eagle Point Grange hall.

Town and Country Dress shop will preview their new spring and Easter styles for the show.

It was voted to honor the youngest grandmother present this year.

Eagle Point Greeters committee reported the booklets should be ready and will be distributed as soon as possible.

Mrs. Glenn Nelson was named chairman for the float to be entered in the Jackson County Pear Blossom festival again this year.

Mrs. Harry Hanscom and Mrs. Harold Hanscom were hostesses for the meeting held at the Harry Hanscom residence on Stevens road. One guest was present.

Mrs. Keith Krambeal will be hostess for a meeting February 18 at her home on the Crater Lake highway at 8 p.m.

Librarian to Review Book at Saturday Meet

Miss Ruth Esther Hill, librarian at Ashland Junior High school, will review the book, Kom-Pawi, by Taiwan Koh, a story of the military occupation of Korea, at the next meeting of Epsilon chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma, international society for women teachers.

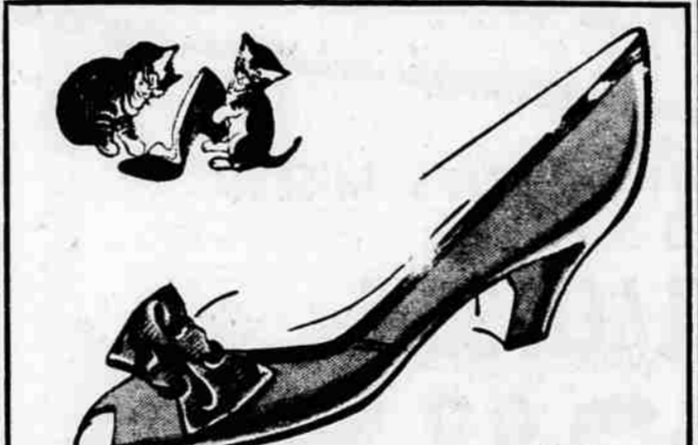

Miss Florence Allen, Southern Oregon college, who is state music chairman of the organization, will direct singing of the songs to be featured at the state convention to be held in Corvallis in May.

The meeting will be held at the Girls Community club, Saturday, February 20, at 2 p.m.

Miss Marie Prescott, social chairman, will be assisted by Miss Vida Scripser, Miss Allen, Mrs. Iona Taylor, and Mrs. Maye Wells, all of Ashland.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Reeder were among Rogue Valley Country club members who attended the "hard times" dance at the clubhouse last Saturday. The Reeders chose a mixture of clothing to wear with Mr. Reeder proudly displaying a large campaign button which read "Stevenson" and Mrs. Reeder topping her attire with a rose worn saucily on her head.
