For the sixth year, residents of Jackson county are participating in the Great Decisions program outlined by the Foreign Policy Association. One of the groups starting the study course last Thursday night included residents of the Central Point area who gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Thompson, Scenic avenue. A potluck dinner preceded the study session. Members of the group are (left to right) Bill Smith, leader, John Chitwood, Mrs. C. B. Cordy, Mrs. Chitwood, Claude Thompson, Winston Gee, Lawrence Clocksin, Mr. Cordy, Mrs. Ann Brown, Mrs. Clocksin and Mrs. Thompson. The informal study groups are made up by neighborhoods, clubs, business women and in other manners. Although the series began officially last week, groups may still be formed and anyone interested may call Glenn Klein at the office of the Jackson County Extension service in the courthouse for further information.

Synthetic Fibers Unit Study

Four Home Extension units have scheduled meetings this week to hear lessons on synthetic fibers and fabrics.

Egg whites won't beat up to full volume if even a speck of yolk is in them. Should this happen in separating, use a piece of egg shell to lift out the yolk particle.

Lincoln Is Meet Subject

Several speakers were on the program for a meeting of Toastmistress club Wednesday evening. Mrs. Amy True gave the invocation and led the flag salute.

Topic mistress was Miss Voda Brower and her subject was, "The Life of Lincoln." It included his early life, influence of his stepmother and his political life.

Mrs. C. H. Redmond was lexicologist for the evening and gave three new words to study and use.

The speaker on education, Mrs. George Watson, had as her subject, "Delivery with Expression." She stressed the qualities necessary for a speaker to possess if she is successful.

Toastmistress was Mrs. Elmer Ness. She introduced three speakers. First was Mrs. J. W. Poage who gave her autobiography. The other two speakers gave contest type speeches. Mrs. Bernice Kunzman chose to speak on, "The Open Door," and Mrs. Roy Rolls spoke on, "Self Reliance."

Other officers for the evening were Mrs. J. D. Brummond, grammarian; Mrs. Edith Whillock, timer; Mrs. Thomas Ball, evaluator for the speeches; and Mrs. C. A. Thatcher was evaluator for the program as a whole.

Mrs. Ellen Lynner, president, presided at the business meeting. Mrs. Roy Keim was a guest of the club.

Pythian Club Votes

On Calantha Sisters

Members of the Pythian club voted to have "secret calantha sisters" at the meeting February 9 of the club at the home of Mrs. Edward E. Bostwick, 3273 Biddle road.

Following the evening meeting attended by 16 members, refreshments were served. The hostess was assisted by Mrs. Don Anderson. Winners at cards were Mrs. Dorothy Hall, Mrs. P. M. Aldredge and other prizes were received by Mrs. Arnold Molschenbacher, Mrs. John Russell and Mrs. Vesta Morgan.

The next meeting of the group will be Tuesday, March 8, at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. J. B. Cochran, 63 Bush street, Ashland.

A gourmet's dream can be a homemaker's delight: heat-to-serve concentrated cream of mushroom or celery soup with an equal volume of milk; blend in grated Swiss cheese and continue heating until cheese melts.

Indispensible Egg

Eggs are amazingly versatile. In addition to being a fine food by themselves, the Poultry and Egg National Board points out that eggs thicken, leaven, coat, garnish, emulsify, clarify, and bind. The egg is indispensable in cooking and good meal planning.
