Music from Lerner and Loewe's "My Fair Lady Suite" will be played as the overture for "Pygmalion," senior class play by the Medford High orchestra, directed by John Drysdale.

The music was written for "My Fair Lady," a well-known musical adopted from "Pygmalion."

Other selections played by the 75-piece orchestra will include "Tenderly" by Lawrence, and the "Waltzing Cat" by Anderson.

The senior class play will be presented this week and tickets may be purchased from seniors or by contacting the Medford High school office.

General elections for Student Government Day were held Friday. The candidates, as elected in the primary elections Monday, were Pat McLaughlin and Linda Slesser, mayor; Maxie Weston, Linda Lowry, Doug Kliever and John Lacy, Ward I.

Clint Stiger, Keith Berg, Lynn Knight and Wayne Thompson, Ward II; Jack Broadbent, Lee Cook, Mildred Boyd and Dave Ryn, Ward III; and Judy Bash and Darrell Miller, Ward IV.

Two councilmen were elected from each ward, except Ward IV.

The elected officials will meet to select persons to fill the appointive offices.

Both elected and appointed officials will participate in Student Government Day Feb. 24-25.

On Feb. 19 the first MHS teen-age program will be presented on KBES-TV. Bob Hamilton, ASB president, will be in charge of the presentation.

The program will consist of a panel discussion on student boy-girl relations. For future shows, students have been asked to sign up to dance "on the air."

Parts of the half-hour shows will be devoted to this type of activity.

Wednesday, the Medford High forensic squad with Coach DeVere Taylor will leave for the annual "Tournament of Champions" competition at Linfield college. Students from both junior highs are also attending the tournament.

Those from Medford schools participating are Doug Kliever, Dean Goddard, Carolyn Mencke, Elaine Jennings, Mike Phillips, Jim Frake, Suzy Thompson, and Judy Sims.

Eric Ewaldsen, Bob Rix, Diane Lewis, Martha Simpson, John Alansky, Carl Washburn, Vicky Enders and Nancy Duncan.

Joel Gregory, Mike Higgins, Marsha Watson, Jo Ann Johnson, Warren Olson, Alden Stewart, Marcia Belknap and Sunny Gastineau.

Jim Lessey, Scott Carpenter, Susan Hall, Deloras Smith, Bonnie Cheney, Ruth Milligan, Garner Hauptert and Mike Miller.

Jan Barker, Sue Sneed, Larry Tuttle, Robert Hoag, Sherry Koblick, Sue Jahn, Gary Spafford and John Gates.

Pat Thompson, Susan House, Sandra Gannon, Janet O'Sullivan, Georgia Mitchell, Janet Eddy, Linda Wilson and Linda Young.

Laurie Cooper, Roma Sims, Elizabeth Clark, Marilyn Conrad, Bill Dames, Darleane Hunt, Mary Frohnmayer, Louis Hunt, Bonnie Lowry and Fred Lorish.

Junior High school coaches accompanying the speakers will be Jerry McDougall, Hedrick, and Jack Henry, McLoughlin.

and humorous speaking, salesmanship, visual aids, after-dinner speaking, interview and radio.

Six band students were chosen for the all-state band to be held in Portland March 16-18.

Carla Boraough, Jim Collins, Margaret Medlin, Roy Taylor, Treva Toenniges and Harold Young were chosen for the band on the basis of written applications.

The approximately 165-member band will rehearse for the three days under the direction of Warren Bellis from the University of Oregon.

Friday they will perform for the Oregon Education association general assembly.

The group will be housed in private homes in Portland.

Auditioning, in the form of a talent show, was held Tuesday for students interested in the annual "Kiwanis Kapers" show.

The presentation will be held Feb. 24-27, and the proceeds are to be used for a dental clinic for underprivileged children.

Tryouts for the 1960-61 MHS choir and advanced girls' chorus were held Feb. 10 and 11. Lynn Sjolund, vocal music head, conducted the tryouts.

Griffin Creek School
Reporters: Linda Youmans, Douglas McNeil, Helen McKee, and Janet Walker

Griffin Creek school completed the first semester of school Jan. 29.

Honor roll students are Anne Bannister, George Bassett, Charlene McCormick, and Judy Youmans, sixth grade; Dale Fowler, Helen McKee, Carol Stuart, and Larry Martin, fifth grade; and Carolyn Giles, fourth grade.

A Book-Starting club was recently started. Members of the club cover text books for the school every Friday during activity period. Members are Wesley Ober, Larry Peterson, Jonathan Rode and Cliff Davidson. They are assisted by Mrs. Rose Tighe, school secretary.

The Griffin Creek varsity basketball team have two games left to play this season: Jefferson, Feb. 18; and Lone Pine Feb. 25. Members of the varsity squad are Wesley Ober, George Bassett, Terry Partasaf, Don Giles, Ray Young, Lindell Carney, Walter McPherson, Larry Peterson, Dennis Gallegly, Dennis Fowler and Curtis Pitts.

The Junior varsity has one game remaining to play with Jefferson, Feb. 19. Members of the JV squad are Dale Fowler, Chuck Sander, Marc Prentice, Dwight Romanchuk, Milton Bernheisel, Denzel Carney, Dan Kime, David Osborn, and Darwin Tenny. The coach for both teams is Roland Griffith, and the manager is Gary Ludwig.

Mrs. Edith Arnold's second grade won the room count at the February PTA meeting. We are going to get a game with the money that we received.

In our social studies class we have been reading many stories about Lincoln. We learned that he was much like any other boy. He did try harder than some children to learn and to make himself better. He liked to play jokes on others and sometimes got into trouble when playing a joke on someone.

Mrs. Alma Austin's fourth grade have been studying about plants in science. Linda Guber brought a little plant. We also made some finger paintings and named them.

In social studies we have been studying about Greece, Mediterranean Seas, and Paris, France.

We made valentines for our mothers and fathers. Mrs. Austin drew our silhouette for us. We put some of them in the lunch room.

Mrs. Judy Huck's fifth grade class elected new officers. President is Nicky Briggs, secretary is Zella Mason, sergeant at arms is Larry Martin, and class reporter is Linda Youmans. Officers for the first semester were president, Pamela Gideon, secretary, Darwin Tenny and class reporter, Dan Kime.

In art we started making valentine decorations. We are studying about middle western states now in geography.

Mrs. Mary Overstreet's room made faces of themselves and put them over a piece of paper for valentine boxes. We are making two big hearts out of Kleenex. The boys are making one for the girls and the girls are making one for the boys.

We have been studying about Egypt, Greece and France. We drew pictures of shepherds of Southern France. We looked at an onion with a microscope. We looked at the cells in it.
