New Federal Pension Law to Be Discussed At Meeting Next Week

The public has been invited to hear a discussion on the new federal pension law for veterans and their widows and children at a meeting in the VFW hall, 42 North Front st., at 7 p.m., Thursday, Feb. 25, Jerry V. Bianconi, Jackson county veterans service officer, has announced.

Shirley T. Brannock, contact representative at the Veterans Administration, Domiciliary, Camp White, will discuss the new law and answer questions submitted.

The new act, Public Law 86-211, will award pension to veterans and widows and children of World War I, World War II and the Korean Conflict, on the basis of need, Bianconi said.

Payments will be on a graduated scale, depending on individual outside incomes. A person already in receipt of pension on June 30, 1960, will be given his or her choice as to whether pension is to be based on the present law or the new one. This choice is vital to those currently receiving pension and will qualify for pension in the future. Pension entitlement arising after June 30 can be based only on the new act.

"The new act will make many veterans, unmarried widows and children eligible for the first time to pension based on nonservice connected disability or death," Bianconi said.

For example, he said, it removed the requirement that a World War II or Korean Conflict veteran must have had a service-connected disability in order for his widow or children to be eligible for pension, thus placing them on an equal footing with dependents of World War I veterans. Some persons will be eligible to higher pension payments than previously. Others will qualify for pension for the first time by reason of higher income ceilings.

Decision to Make
On March 1, all those presently on the pension rolls will have a decision to make, Bianconi said. Each will receive a new income questionnaire which is to be signed and returned to the Portland Veterans administration regional office if the recipient wishes to receive benefits under the new law after July 1, its effective date.

"Brannock will clarify the distinction between the two laws to enable persons receiving pension to make the right choice," Bianconi said.

"Once the new act has been selected, an individual can never return to the benefits of the old one, and a mistake in judgment could result in substantially smaller pension payments for the future."

The legislation does not affect compensation paid to veterans or dependents of service connected disability or death, he added.

Grange News

At the last meeting of Roxy Ann Grange Feb. 5, the charter was draped in memory of Mrs. Inez Tedrick, who was a charter member of the Grange when it was organized 28 years ago.

The next meeting will commence at 8:15 p.m. Friday, Feb. 19. It will be visitation night and members of all Granges will be welcome. The lecturer has planned a varied program, including Dr. Elmo Stevenson, president of Southern Oregon college, who will speak.

On Feb. 20, the degree team will confer the third and fourth degrees at North Pacific Grange, north of Grants Pass.
