Gardener Rushes Arrival of Spring

Tuxedo, N.Y.—UPI—The first robin traditionally means spring is here—and Garden Director Fred Johnson has decided to speed things up. Johnson, noting that his crocuses will be ready to bloom next week in the 125-acre Sterling Forest Gardens here, decided that a few orange-breasted robins were needed to complete the picture. Robins generally have more sense than to fly to cold New York in February. So Johnson made arrangements to airlift 300 of them here in a warm plane. He says the robins—and if tradition holds, spring—will be here next week.
