Crater High Clips Ashland Grizzlies

SOUTHERN OREGON CONFERENCE STANDINGS (As of Friday)

Team	W.	L.	Pct.
Medford	12	0	1.000
Klamath Falls	9	3	.750
Crater	5	7	.417
Grants Pass	4	8	.333
Ashland	0	12	.000

Ashland - Crater high re-assumed lone hold on third place and yet-to-win Ashland suffered its 12th loss in Southern Oregon conference basketball here Friday evening.

The Comets of Central Point trimmed the Grizzlies 48 to 41.

Crater took the lead for keeps at 21 to 20 in the late second quarter on a jumper by Chuck Turner. The Central Point school built several gaps of six points but was hard pressed to stay on top. Seven points, all on four shots in the last 6½ minutes of play were helpful to the Comets.

Strong work under the backboards by Denny Edwards and Chuck Turner, tip in points by Edwards, free throw accuracy by Turner and Loyal Higinbotham and ballhawking by Higinbotham were among individual efforts which paid off for the Crater club. Frequent loss of the ball by the Comets and good floor work by Ashland kept the Crater margin from being more decisive.

The Grizzlies manufactured early 10 to 4 and 12 to 6 point spreads but the Comets with the aid of seven first quarter free tosses went on top 13 to 12. Steve Gray's long two-hander gave Ashland a 14 to 13 edge at the first quarter buzzer.

Ashland went in front 18 to 13. Then Higinbotham got three buckets on a rebounder, a feed-in by Cooper and a jumper for Crater while Steve Harris and Phil Tucker picked up single free points for the Grizzlies, who still headed 20 to 19. Turner next put Crater ahead for good. At halftime the Comets led 28 to 24.

Crater had one difference of 33 to 27 in the third quarter. However, with Harris getting five points, Ashland outscored the Comets 11 to 9 in the panel and the Central Pointer lead was just 37 to 35 at the intermission.

Buckets by Turner and Edwards made it 41 to 35. Tucker tallied for the Grizzlies but two free shots by Higinbotham made it 43 to 37. Tucker got a gift point and Harris a long push for Ashland and the score was 43 to 40. Three charity throws by Higinbotham and two by Turner completed the Crater tallying.

Higinbotham with nine for 10 at the free line and Turner with seven for seven each had 15-point totals. Edwards scored 12. Tucker led Ashland with 17 for the night's high. Edwards had 15 rebounds, Turner 11 and Dave Sharp nine for Crater. Harris's seven were most for Ashland.

Crater junior varsity put in seven points in the last 45 seconds to win the preliminary from Ashland 47 to 41.

Dave Foote sank a driver and two free tosses and Willie Debrick added a field goal at the buzzer and a free shot afterward. For Ashland in the final seconds Dave Colwell missed the first try of a two shot foul and deliberately set up a rebound effort. The field shot missed. A personal and technical foul was called on Foote. Larry Johnson missed two tries for Ashland and made one.

Foote had 17 points for Crater and Bob King 13 for Ashland.

Portland-Third spot Southern Oregon bumped Portland State out of first place in the Oregon Collegiate conference basketball race Friday.

The Red Raiders' convincing 74 to 50 triumph as they made 61.6 per cent of their field tries restored Oregon Tech, idle in the circuit to top position. Oregon college clubbed Eastern Oregon 93 to 79 in another league fracas.

SOC gained the upper hand 12 to 10 midway in the first half then zoomed to 32 to 19 margin halftime rest. Portland tried to come back with a pressing defense in the second half but the tactics backfired. The Vikings fouled on a number of occasions and also the Raiders were able to get behind the PSC defenders.

PSC took a starting 2 to 0 jump but with Dick Smith getting the Raiders first points the score was tied at 6 to 6. Score was tied four times and the lead switched on five occasions in the first 10 minutes action.

The contest marked the first time in 21 games that the Vikings had been beaten in a "home" conference tussle.

Smith with 10 field goals in 11 shots was high point man for the night with 25. Gordon Carrigan had 22 for the Raiders. He made 10 of 12 free casts. Ray Torgerson had 13 counters for Portland. SOC made 27 field goals on 44 shots.

Carrigan Rises In Score Race

Portland - Gordon Carrigan of Southern Oregon jumped into second place in the Oregon conference scoring race last week end behind the season-long leader Ron Jones of Oregon College of Education.

Jones upped his average to 20.6 per game over the previous week's 19.1, thanks to a 35 point night against SOC at Ashland. Jones tossed in 55 points during the two game series.

But it was Carrigan, a quick-shooting guard for Coach Ted Schopf's Red Raiders, who turned in the season's top offensive performance in the same series. Carrigan flipped in 38 points against OCC one night to post the OCC's top individual game effort. He collected 60 points for the series to up his game average from a fifth place 12.8 to 16.3 behind Jones. Jones had totaled 227 points in 11 games while Carrigan had scored 213 in 13 contests.

Southern Oregon had the leader in field goal and free throw shooting. Tom Bernet has paced the shooters from the field all season and this week stepped up from fourth to first in the free throw department. He has rifled 19 of 37 field shots for a .514 percentage and 14 of 17 from the free throw line for a .824 mark.
